C. D. Graham, Federal agricultural representative, urged members of the Strathville Junior Farmers Association, at last night's monthly meeting, to prepare for the annual campaign against the bot and warble fly. For the past three seasons the local agricultural office has managed county-wide campaigns for the treatment of stock against these pests, and Mr. Graham insisted that much of the ground gained during the last three years would be lost if the treatments were neglected this spring.

Members of the Sandhill Hunt Club, composed of Deputy-Reeve Ainslee Sherman of Chinguacousy, Reeve N. A. Robinson of Esquesing, George Wood, William Thompson, Emerson Loughood, Harvey Weir, Bill Grey and Fred Hostrawser, entertained their wives at dinner at Hostrawser's home last week. W. D. Bowles, clerk, and Norman Cameron, reeve of Chinguacousy were guests at the dinner, at which the mounted heads of three bucks, shot early this winter, were displayed.

Very close play at the Bridge Club Monday evening resulted in a tight race. First prize went to Messrs. F. Faran and L. Humberstone. In second place were C. Sinclair and J. Mills, with C. Parton and S. P. Chapman finishing third. The margin between any of the first seven pairs was very small. New comers are still being welcomed.

At the final meeting of the Oakville Board of Education, held last week in the Council Chambers, Trustee Fred Shaw, of the property committee, reported that the new rooms for domestic science and manual training would soon be ready for occupation. Work was completed but all the equipment had not yet arrived, he stated.

Trustee Frank Pullen wanted to know if anything was being done to stress the advantages of living under democratic principles. At the beginning of the year, I asked for the co-operation of all and I am pleased to say that I got it 100 per cent," he added.

Police Chief David Kerr, who is also attendance officer, reported that there was no juvenile crime in town. L. L. Skuce, inspector of schools for Halton County, in an address to the board, explained that his purpose in attending the meeting was to become better acquainted with the trustees. He laid stress on one or two items of his report, especially the music problem. "It is being now taught by a regular member of the staff, in addition to her other duties, and teaching very efficiently," he said.

Mr. Skuce hoped that later on the facilities at the High School for manual training and domestic science would be shared with Central Public School.

Promoted by the County Board of Junior Farmers, a dramatic school has been formed. The first meeting of the series was held Monday night in the Farmers' Building. Mr. J. E. Whitelock opened the meeting. Miss Eva Chisholm was elected chairman, and Miss Marion Fox, secretary-treasurer. Mr. Whitelock then introduced Mr. Burroughs, who is to be in charge. Mr. Burroughs is well known in Halton through his adjudication at drama festivals held throughout the county.

Miss E. MacDonald, teacher in the public school at Milton, is still unable to resume her duties, and school opened on Tuesday with Mrs. A. D. McDuffee of Milton, as supply teacher for a few weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Martin Early and their two little sons, Donald and Gordon, of Hydro, Ont., returned home on Saturday last, after visiting Mrs. Early's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Coulson, for three weeks. The hills near the mountain have been providing plenty of fun for those who enjoy the thrill of sliding or the invigorating ride that can be had on a toboggan when it plunges through the drifts or turns over.

A New Petunia - For Cutting

By BETTY BARCLAY

Something for nothing? After reading these four paragraphs, you will have to admit that for once you have an opportunity to get something decidedly new and attractive for as near nothing as a penny post card.

Only a few miles from where I am writing this story, on David Burpee's Fordhook Farms, near Philadelphia, they have developed a new Petunia that is outstanding in every respect.

Named "Strawberry Festival" (pictured above) with a color half way between strawberry and old rose, flowers grow 2 1/2 to 3 in. across, are artistically waxed or ruffled edges and a broad, deep, rich plum-colored throat so that they may be likened to a Gloriosa.

As easy to grow as any bedding Petunia; does well almost anywhere, in any ordinary garden soil where a sunny location. Makes a gorgeous showing in the garden. Its long stems 1 1/2 ft. or more in length, artistic flowers and attractive foliage all combine to make Strawberry Festival the finest and most desirable Petunia for cutting.

Let me think I am unduly excited over this 1939 Petunia model, may I say that while many of our favorite garden flowers have been in cultivation since before history began, the Petunia is a newcomer discovered as long as my supply lists. There is no charge. Just drop a postal to Betty Barclay, 3160 Kensington Avenue, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania—and the seed will be mailed promptly.

At the regular meeting of the Young People's Union of the United Church, Mrs. Caldwell, the speaker for the evening, gave an interesting talk on the missionary work of her daughters in China. After the Misses' benediction, some lively games were enjoyed by the group.—Free Press.

Myra, one of the largest states in Southern India, may soon have a member of Parliament to represent the interests of animals in its legislative council.

The Mission Circle held their January meeting at the Manse. The president, Miss M. Crossman having charge of the meeting.

Mrs. W. McEnery of Georgetown visited with friends here on Sunday. The members of the W.A. met for their January meeting at the home of Mrs. Wiley. Mrs. A. O. Foreman gave a very interesting account of the second chapter of Luke for the scripture lesson. Plans were made to hold a crokinolee social sometime in February. Programs for the year were given out to each member. A reading entitled "Lord make a regular man out of me" was given by Mrs. R. McEnery. Miss Shortill read some interesting quotations of Miss Agnes McPhail. Mrs. Kirkwood conducted a "what do you know?" contest. The roll call was answered with sing, whistle, speak or pay, which caused much merriment. Lunch was served by the committee. The next meeting will be held at Mrs. A. R. Merriams.

The lights in the crowded bus had failed and the passengers were thrown into confusion.

"Can I find you a strap?" the tall young man asked a young lady at his side.

"Thank you," she replied, "but I have just found one."

"Good," he replied, "then perhaps you wouldn't mind letting go of my tie?"

The young wife went into the grocery's.
"I bought three or four hams here a month or so ago," she said, "and they were fine. Have you any more of them?"
"Yes, ma'am," replied the grocer, "there are ten of those hanging there now."
"Well, if they're off the same pig, I'll take three of them," she said.
