—Alkalize with Alkasoy, the new bread manufactured by Brown's Bakery, Georgetown. See adv't in this issue.

—Dance at town hall, Glen Williams, Friday, March 24th. Doris Hulla's Orchestra. Dancing 9 to 2. Modern and old time dancing.

—Wait for the Retail Spring ONE CENT SALE, March 29 - 30 - 31, Apr. 1st. Hundreds of items to choose from.—Robb's Drug Store.

—If a car driver turns his head for one second, while driving 30 miles per hour, the car covers 44 feet, without his seeing what is in front of him.

—Russell T. Kelly, Hamilton, president of the Advertising Agency of the same name, was elected president of the Ontario Motor League in Toronto, recently.

—Mr. Jas. Smith of Acton passed away suddenly at his home after returning from the Acton-Simcoo hockey game in Galt. Death was due to a heart attack.

—Looking at summer resort pictures from the South, the Fergus News-Record is forced to conclude that some women will go a long way to get an excuse to undress.

—A public meeting of the Leadership League will be held in the Public Library on Friday, Mar. 24th at 8.15. Full and free discussion of problems affecting taxation.

—When coming out of her home at Eldorado last Saturday morning, Miss Sybil Bennett saw three beautiful young does in her driveway. This is quite a novel sight in this vicinity.

—Canadians last year spent 32 1/2 million dollars on motion pictures. It is a popular form of amusement. The amount works out to an average of nearly $3 for every Canadian.

—The last Bachelor's dance of this season will be held in the Parish Hall, Norval, on Friday evening, Mar. 24th. Lucky spot and lucky number dances. Also novelties. Admission 25c and 35c.

—Huron County was unsuccessful in its bid for the 1940 International Plowing Match, the Ontario Plowmen's Association at Toronto accepting the invitation of Elgin County.

—Mr. K. M. Langdon is moving his law office from Main St. to the Gregory Theatre Block, in the premises formerly occupied by Daie & Bennett. He expects to be in his new office April 1st.

—Roy Lindsay, Lot 23, Town Line, Esquimaux and Massagways, will hold a clearing sale of farm stock, implements, hay, grain, on Tuesday, April 6th at 1 o'clock. Terms cash.—R. J. Kerr, Auctioneer, Phone 36, Acton.

—The auditors' report of the Town of Georgetown for the year 1938, will be completed printing the end of this week and a copy may be secured by any ratepayer by applying at the Town Clerk's Office.

—These farmers are not so slow. Down in Elgin county they found that the new law prohibited them from selling raw milk to customers who desired it, so they sold the customers shares in the cow—and of course a man can use milk from his own cow.

—Liberal convention to nominate a candidate for the coming Federal Elections will be held in the Hume Theatre, Milton, at 8.00 p.m., Thursday, March 30th, next. The meeting will be addressed by R. J. Deachman, M.P.

—Another thing that doesn't seem consistent is to find the papers in some towns urging the abolition of Sunday advertising over the radio, and the retention of Sunday as a rest day, while the towns makes every effort to attract motorists in the summer and skiers in the winter.

—Owing to the fact that a number of people had their pockets picked recently at sales held in this district, those attending large gatherings would be well advised to be careful. There appears to be an organized gang of pick-pockets touring the country.

—An exchange last week told of having received a renewal to the paper by air mail. We have never yet received a renewal in this way, but we have quite a number of overdue subscriptions and a "Please find enclosed order for $1.50" by just the old reliable postal service would be greatly appreciated.

—We were startled the other day when we read the heading "Provincials Be on Red Schools May Be Bought." However, fortunately it is not the little red schools to which the province owes so much that are to be attacked, but the Red Communist institutions of the larger cities and there are no many among the leaders of this or any other country weekly of Ontario who will not heartily approve of the curtailment or abolition of these institutions.
