LOCAL NEWS

Picnics are popular at this season. —Just 141 more shopping days until Christmas.

—Keep July 28th open for the Presbyterian Church garden party.

—The man who advertises not only means business but does business.

—Get prepared for the Lions Club beauty contest Aug. 7th.

—Are you a subscriber to the home town weekly? If not, subscribe now and be a home-town booster.

—Dr. C. V. Williams will be absent from his office from July 13th to August 4th, while on vacation.

—Send us the names of your week end guests and other items of interest. Phone No. 8.

—Georgetown and district Orange and True Blue Lodges celebrated the Glorious Twelfth at Preston today.

—Remember Memorial Day, Sunday afternoon, Aug. 6th at Greenwood Cemetery.

—The crops never looked better in this district. A heavy crop of hay has been harvested.

—Many slow processions, observes the Kitchener Record, are caused by fast drivers.

—Baseball game at the park here to-morrow (Thursday) night. Action vs. Georgetown. Be sure to see this game.

—Strawberries are still on the market here—and of a good quality too. Cherries are also plentiful and prices very reasonable.

—Mr. John Armstrong will be in charge of the new Supermarket Service Station which is being erected on Guelph St., east of the High School.

—Rugs Creighton and his entertainers are supplying the program for the Presbyterian church garden party on July 28th. See advt. in this issue.

—Dr. Watson will be absent from office on vacation, but will return for a few days about August 1st. Dates will be announced later.

—It is a race these week-ends between the cars and the water to see which takes the most lives. 15 drowning accidents were reported in Ontario over last week end.

—Large crowds continue to do their shopping in Georgetown on Saturday nights. Have your advertisement in the Herald, where buyers may see the bargains you have to offer.

—The firemen were called out on Saturday afternoon to a fire at C. Carey's garage. The fire was extinguished before the firemen arrived and no serious damage done.

—The rain over Sunday was cooling to scorching humanity and the cooler weather of the past couple of days is a sort of breather before the hot days that are bound to come yet this month.

—The Acton Free Press last week started its sixty-fifth year of publication. Editor Mills is to congratulate on the success his paper has enjoyed during the years it has been under his editorship.

—Premier King certainly didn't give away any secrets when he said that an election this fall would depend upon the European political situation. That may be interpreted as meaning almost anything.

—The 38th annual convention and demonstration of the Firemen's Association of Ontario is being held in Whitby this year, on August 4th, 5th, 6th and 7th. Georgetown Fire Brigade will take part.

—The Walkerton Herald points out that the Bruce county capital has a new order of feminine control. Its three hotels are now owned and operated by women.

—Bolton Foundry and Iron Works are completing work on eighty furnaces, to be installed in houses built in Toronto under a government housing scheme.

—It is expected that a successor to the late William Partridge, governor of Peel County, will be made shortly, and prominently mentioned, according to the Peel Gazette, is Frank Peitch, Cheltenham.

—The Lorne Scots Regiment returned home from camp at Niagara-on-the-Lake over the week end. There were about 275 militia men from Halton, Peel, and Dufferin at camp this year.

—Don Early had the misfortune to fall from a motor-bike while attending the United Church S. S. picnic at Stanley Park, Erin, last Thursday, and received some nasty cuts and bruises that required a couple of stitches.

—What exactly happens when the human body is immersed in warm water? asked a doctor. To most of the Georgetown housewives the answer would be—the telephone bell rings.

—The summer is getting along and will be soon over and nothing has yet been done toward paving the connecting links in town. The Council have agreed to their part of the contract with the County, and it now remains for them to start the work.

—Baptist minister in Toronto claims "the state of religion should not be measured by the size of the congregation." Perhaps not, but a large congregation is at least evidence that people are interested enough to attend the service.

—All kinds of job printing promptly and neatly executed at the Herald Office. We specialize in nifty letter-heads, invoices, envelopes, rules, forms, circulars, posters, and all classes of commercial printing. Once tried, always satisfied. Leave us your next order.

—Rev. Ross K. Cameron, minister of First Presbyterian Church, Edmonton, and Mrs. Cameron, are vacationing in the East. Rev. Mr. Cameron will preach in Glenview Presbyterian Church, Toronto, while the minister of that church is on vacation.

—This Wharton Echo issued a splendid eight-page supplement to their regular edition, as a souvenir number to mark the sixtieth anniversary of the founding of the paper. It was very attractive in design and make-up and carried much historical matter relating to the paper. Mrs. E. A. Duncan is the editor and proprietor.

—The Jersey cow, Bonnie Ring, has produced for R. J. Graham, Georgetown, a splendid record of 1217 lbs. of milk and 69 lbs. of fat, testing 5.33% at ten years of age in 306 days. Bonnie Ring has been awarded a gold medal certificate by the Canadian Jersey Cattle Club.

—Work on the new hospital at Brampton for mental tubercular cases will be resumed about September. It was announced last week. A small portion of the proposed hospital was erected in 1937. The building will not be for tubercular patients as originally planned, but for mental patients only. It was stated.

—Who says freckles aren't useful? They will bring some lucky youngsters nice prizes this summer—that is if they have enough of them! Which means that the Freckle-Faced Kids Competition is on again at the Canadian National Exhibition. So better write away for an entry form—entry closes Aug. 24th.

—The Utopia of universal freedom and peace seems to be far distant but such an ideal is still in the heart of Man. This is borne out by the pageant "Utopia" at the Canadian National Exhibition this year, graphically setting forth the struggle of Great Britain throughout the centuries toward his grand goal.

—Personals are an attractive and interesting part of a newspaper. They are read by old and young; commented on by all. A United States editor, who is sometimes discouraged (as all editors are) by the neglect of those who should read in such items, published this at the head of his personal column: "If you have visitors of whom you are not ashamed, report to this office."

—Is Danzig to be the fuse used to set off a European War? If Germany's dictator takes the same procedure to grab the Polish city to the bosom of the Reich, as he did with Czechoslovakia, undoubtedly a crisis cannot be averted. Both Britain and France have guaranteed Poland that should the latter be compelled to go to war with Germany they will immediately lend assistance. Hitler had better beware of Danzig.

—Voice of the Leadership League will be heard in the next Federal election campaign in North Wellington. With a strong organization already in the making in the riding, announcements by that R. McElean of Mt. Forest will contest the constituency as representative of the local League. Possibility of a four-cornered fight for the Federal seat is now seen, with Dr. J. K. Blair, the sitting member, running as Liberal candidate; Lewis Grant, Valley Heights, Conservative, and William Murdoch of Palmerston as an independent.
