Baseball Team Drop Two Contests During Week

MILTON OUTSCORE LOCALS 14-3
—OAKVILLE EKE OUT 4-3
VICTORY IN CLOSURE GAME

The game here last Thursday night failed to create much interest, as Georgetown proved weak on the pitching end and on the bat. Brydon pitched for the locals and was touched for 10 hits, while Blinco and Simms took the mound for Milton. Brydon failed to get control of the ball in this game, and too many walks gave the Miltonites the edge. Blinco pitched well, but was replaced by their "south-paw" hurler in the sixth innings.

Milton — 3 6 2 1 1 0 — 14 10 3
Georgetown — 1 0 0 1 0 10 — 3 4 3

On Saturday afternoon the Georgetown team gave the league leaders a tussle down in Oakville, when the revamped team of juveniles held the winners to a 4-2 score. While we have no data of the game to hand, as the "kids" did themselves proud, Murray Ezeard pitched for Georgetown, Don Galbraith for Oakville.

CHANGE MAY BE MADE IN BASEBALL SET-UP

Oakville and Milton May Go Into Intermediate 'A' Play-offs — Action and Georgetown Remaining in Intermediate 'B'

At a meeting of the Halton County Baseball League executive held last Thursday night here, it was decided to ask the permission of the O.B.A. to reduce the status of the Georgetown and Action teams to Intermediate "B" and the winner of a play-off between these two teams to meet other Intermediate "B" teams in the play-downs; also that the Oakville and Milton teams continue in Intermediate "A" with a play-off between them, and the winner to advance in the Ontario playoffs.

TORONTO DRIVER CHARGED AFTER NOVAH ACCIDENT

W. O'Hara, 35 Wellesley street, Toronto, was arrested on a charge of reckless driving under the Criminal Code, and later released from Milton Jail on bail of $500 following an accident on the No. 7 highway at 4 a.m. Saturday morning. O'Hara was driving a light coach and crashed into the side of a five-ton transport in charge of Earl Jackson, Chesley, on the highway, one mile east of Georgetown.

O'Hara's car was completely wrecked and the frame of the huge transport was twisted, but O'Hara escaped with a minor cut on the forehead and a passenger, A. F. Hall received bruises when thrown against the windshield. They were attended by Dr. Hetherington of Brampton. Occupants of the truck were uninjured. The accident was investigated by Traffic Officer R. Hodgson.

Simple Stuff

(By Edward Wpdon)
Brewers' Warehouse

Eleven hundred citizens of Georgetown and district are reported to have petitioned against the opening of a brewers' warehouse in Georgetown. It is one of my business since I am not a citizen of Georgetown. I only live here in the summer and like it better the more I know of it. But I'm sorry that eleven hundred people have protested. This smacks of intolerance. I want the young folk of Georgetown to grow up into men and women of character, with grace and courage to face temptation and conquer it. I am a lifelong teetotaler. So was my father — and so were both my grandfathers. My paternal grandfather published a volume of Temperance songs in 1870. These are, for originality and intelligence, better than any literature issuing today from the publicity department of the Ontario Temperance Federation — though I say it as ought to be.

The Rev. F. C. Overend has a long letter in last week's Georgetown Herald. The form and matter of it are true to type. The late Judge Raney (local preacher in spare time and lawyer in business) once told me I was a "bootlegger's tout" because I wouldn't say that his precious Ontario Temperance Act was the greatest bit of legislation since Sinai! The same genial "temperance" beams from Mr. Overend's letter.

It closes on a peroration about "burnished gold of happiness, success and purity of our boys and girls." Quite unconvincing to this benighted individual. Happiness is a comparative term. Some of us ancient wonder at times what young folk of today would say if they had known what we knew in childhood? And "success" means mostly:— Running a "heaven and hell amalgamation society" as Carlyle bitterly says. And "purity"? Ye gods! I suggest in all humility that I wouldn't like to tell the average young person today anything about "purity" that he or she didn't know.

Mr. Overend and his friends of the O.T.F. are worrying about the devastating prospect of beer being sold in Georgetown. I could show them half a dozen things already being sold here that in comparison would make a glass of beer blush for shame. But like many another society of excellent promise the O.T.F. is myopic. It has a blind spot too — which is beer.

WHAT A PRICE TO PAY!

In commenting editorially on the recent circular issued by the office of Mr. C. George McCullough, editor of the Globe and Mail, to those who joined the Leadership League, the Acton Free Press says it would appear that the League has disbanded. We also reprint the following paragraph from the editorial which will show that it cost the sponsor of the Leadership League considerable coin of the realm:—

"It is interesting to note some statements in Mr. McCullough's letter. The broadcast cost $75,000 and were paid for by the Globe and Mail, which took approximately $30,000 for organization work, and of all these amounts, $300, we are told, has come from the public. The Globe and Mail and Mr. McCullough are paying the deficits. It's all rather interesting but it's certainly letting 'George do it' with a vengeance. The point which must be borne in mind is that the public are not very anxious to be saved from the terrible mess we are all in and which so often worries those who would like to see an improvement and lift the country out of all its trouble."

Many Opportunities on Farm For Youth, Says A. Maclaren

CHAIRMAN OF FARM PLACEMENT COMMITTEE

There is a great opportunity on farms for the young men of Canada, according to Alex. Maclaren, Georgetown, who is in charge of youth placement on farms in Halton County for the Ontario Government.

There is a greater opportunity on farms today than generally is realized, said Mr. Maclaren, who can give many examples of success stories involving immigrant boys and native Canadians he has placed on farms throughout this Central Ontario district.

"Back in 1930, I placed a lad of 16 from Manchester, who never had seen a farm before," said Mr. Maclaren. "After five months on that farm he was disappointed with his progress and I placed him on a second farm. But a month later, after I investigated the place further, I placed him on another farm — this time near Streetsville. That boy worked, showed the will to learn, the will to succeed, and three years ago he bought out his employer. Two years ago he married and he is doing very well.

"Then, there's the youngster I sent out to a farm five years ago. He worked well and last year a neighbor came up to him and said: 'I want to retire. I've watched you—you are a good worker, you will get ahead, if you like my farm and want to buy it, I'll sell it to you on any terms you think you can meet.'

"All the cases are not such success stories, but if a young man is willing to work and willing to learn, the farm today offers great opportunity," said Mr. Maclaren, who is chairman of the Farm Placement Subcommittee of the Toronto City Council's Committee for Stimulation of Employment.

HAS UNUSUAL JOB

The United Church of Canada has missionaries from the most easterly part of Canada to the most western point on the Pacific coast, but none has such an unusual job as Rev. Lester L. Burry.

Rev. Mr. Burry is not only pilot of the mission boat, "Glad Tidings," but also maintains a short wave transmitter set which he made with his own hands and which he now uses for broadcasting religious services to isolated groups in Labrador.

Every night in the summer time and two or three nights a week in the winter Rev. Burry's program is on the air over short wave, and according to letters received from hundreds of trappers and fisher folk, the programme is warmly welcomed.

Rev. Mr. Burry's headquarters are on the North West River at the foot of Hamilton Inlet, Labrador. From this point the missionary sets out every summer in his 40-foot boat bound for scores of isolated villages in a large section of the eastern part of Labrador. He directs services in many villages not visited by other ministers. He performs marriages and officiates at funerals. Often he is called upon to use his boat to move sick people to one of the Grenfell hospitals. In addition to all these duties Rev. Mr. Burry performs many social services.

Not content with building his own short wave sending transmitter, the United Church missionary has built more than 30 short wave receiving sets and distributed them among the many trappers who are isolated from civilization for many weeks during the winter.

During the past winter Mr. Burry has travelled many hundreds of miles in his Komatik drawn by his 12 Labrador huskies over the snow.

PREMIER KING TO BE HONORED AUGUST 8th

Pilgrimages will be made by leading statesmen, businessmen and educationists from every province of the Dominion to Toronto to pay tribute on August 8 to Rt. Hon. Mackenzie King in commemoration of the twentieth anniversary of his accession to leadership of the Liberal party in Canada.

In each province, one member of the House of Commons is directing the pilgrimage and indications are that large delegations representing a cross-section of the party in Canada, will be in attendance from even the most distant points.

A special sub-committee in Ontario is in charge of arrangements although primary responsibility for the organization and direction of this unprecedented national undertaking rests with a committee of parliamentary members.

The celebration is to commemorate the twentieth anniversary of Premier King's selection as leader of the Liberal Party in Canada will be in the form of a complimentary banquet in the Royal York hotel on the evening of August 8. During the evening personal tribute and homage will be paid him for his contribution to Canada during his many years in public office.

The head table will present a most notable gathering of Canadian public figures. The entire federal cabinet, prominent Liberal senators and Members of Parliament, provincial premiers and cabinet ministers, privy councillors and prominent business and professional men will be present. Rt. Hon. Ernest Lapointe, Minister of Justice will preside during the evening.

QUINTE SUN PURCHASED BY S. J. McMASTER

S. J. McMaster, formerly of the Toronto Transportation Commission, this week took possession of the Quinte Sun, a weekly newspaper published in Trenton. Mr. McMaster was employed on the Herald staff some years ago, and is an old Glen Williams boy.

WEED OF THE WEEK

WILD CARROT

Wild carrot is spreading at an alarming rate in Ontario and is now considered one of the worst weeds in the province, states John D. MacLeod, weed expert of the Ont. Dept. of Agriculture. A biennial weed (wild carrot) requires two years to produce seed and can easily be distinguished by its stems, flowers and leaves which closely resemble the cultivated carrot.

Wild carrot flowers from July to September. When open, they are in white, flat topped clusters, later closing up for the winter when they may break off and be carried miles by frozen ground and snow, scattering seeds as they are carried along.

Being a biennial, any plan for eradication should cover a two year period. Wild carrot does not give any difficulty where thorough cultivation, and a short rotation of crops is practised, but in meadows, which have been down two years or more, in pasture fields, fence lines, waste places and roadsides, it is rapidly becoming one of Ontario's worst weeds, declares Mr. MacLeod.

Pulling, spudding or cutting for two years in succession will not give plants an opportunity to mature seed and will lessen the infestation considerably. Sheep will eat Wild carrot if they are permitted to pasture the infested area before plants become too far advanced. Pasture fields or hay fields where a single cut of hay has been taken off early should be trimmed again the latter part of August. It should be kept in mind that all plants in flower are two year plants which will die that fall. It is of vital importance that such plants be kept from maturing seed.

PEEL GETTING THEIR SHARE OF PHEASANTS

It is planned to liberate in the four northern townships of Peel County this summer one thousand pheasants. Over 500 already have been released in Chinguacousy and Albion by the game warden.
