MILTON

John T. Hannant has sold his grocery store to the Milton Hydro Commission, which will have it remodeled for their office and housing of equipment. Mr. and Mrs. Allan S. Mahon, of Campbellville, Ont., announce the engagement of their only daughter, Sherrin Eades, to Mr. Kenneth A. McDonald, of Galt, the marriage to take place early in September. Milton town council passed a by-law recently that the assessing of the town for 1940 must be completed by Sept. 30th. E. K. Yates has been appointed assessor, his duties to commence at once. Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Willmott left on Monday for Ottawa, where Mr. Willmott will judge sheep at the Dominion Central Exhibition. Members of Milton and visiting fire brigades, led by Burlington band, paraded to Knox Presbyterian Church here on Sunday morning last for special service. Rev. John Riddell delivered the sermon the theme of which was "Fire." He led the sacrificial work of all firemen, who risk their lives to safeguard others. He described fire as "a good servant, but a poor master."—Champion.

OBITUARY

MRS. EMMA J. LESLIE
Following an illness of a few weeks Emma J. Thompson, beloved wife of the late John Leslie, passed away at her home in Erin on Thursday, August 17th, aged 78 years. A daughter of the late Joseph Triller Thompson and Maria Gallagher, she was born on the Thompson homestead, 10th E. Essex Township. She resided in Erin for a number of years. Her husband predeceased her in February, 1934. She is survived by one brother, Fred C. Thompson, and several nephews and nieces. She was a member of Burns' Presbyterian church in Erin. The funeral took place from her late residence on Saturday afternoon, when her pastor Rev. P. W. Murray conducted the service. During the service Mrs. Jessie Walker and Mrs. Clare Smith sang a duet, "Does Jesus Care," accompanied at the piano by Jean Abbott. Interment was made at Greenwood Cemetery, Georgetown. The pallbearers were: Walter Thompson, Ralph H. Thompson, Toronto; Leslie Thompson, Trenton; Elmer Thompson, LaVerne Thompson, Blake Leslie, Georgetown. The beautiful floral tribute bespoke of the esteem in which deceased was held.—Advocate.

Summary—Walks off McMenemy 2, off Wulf 8; off Morrow 5. The final big sets of the "Little World Series" took place on Tuesday evening, when the Copper Cliff team again took the measure of the local lads and defeated them to win the coveted Maple Leaf Trophy emblematic of the Ontario Midget Baseball Championship, 8-1 in a game that had everything. The contest was featured by the steady pitching of J. Morrow for the visitors and also by two double plays by that team. The Copper Cliff pitcher had 11 strikeouts during the game, while McMenemy had 2 up until being pulled in the 3rd inning in favor of Morrow. He was credited with 6 strikeouts.
