LOCAL NEWS

—Labor Day, Monday, September 4.

—It takes the other fellow to find the funny spot in ourselves.

—It is estimated that about 1,500,000 people have seen the quints to date.

—Friday is September 1st, a hint that autumn is just around the corner.

—Next Monday, Sept. 4th, will be a public holiday in Georgetown, it being Labor Day.

—A woman believes she is keeping a secret because she doesn't reveal the name of the woman who told her.

—Plan to have a part in making the Georgetown Fair the best ever this year.

—Law doesn't make a man good, but it keeps a heap of people from becoming hopelessly bad.

—Resurfacing of the Main Street in Brampton has been completed. The total cost was $20,000.

—Georgetown High and Public Schools will open for the fall term on Sept. 5th.

—Mr. I. Rachlin has started a cleaning and pressing business in the Lane Block. See advt. in this issue.

—Are you taking note of the Weed of the Week? Have you located it on your farm yet. Then what are you going to do about it?

—Mr. N. H. Brown brought a 'puff-ball' to this office last week which measured 52 inches in circumference. Some puff-ball, we say.

—The lobby of Georgetown Post Office will be open to boxholders on statutory holidays from 8.00 a.m. to 6.00 p.m.

—Send in your news items. They are always appreciated and help to make your home paper more interesting.

—The prosperity of our farmers is as much based on what the farmer has to pay for the commodities he buys as the price he gets for his farm products.

—There will be a lucky number draw for a radio and radio lamp at the big community street carnival on Sept. 14th. Get your tickets early.

—Members of the Women's Auxiliary to the Canadian Legion chartered a bus and spent a very enjoyable week end in Buffalo and touring the Niagara Peninsula.

—A husband and father is one who has washed dishes all week and then goes up to the family cottage to find that it is his turn to wash the dishes there.

—Speeding drivers put up all kinds of excuses for their too fast going. Rarely however, do they say they were hurrying because fearful of being late to church.

—It takes time to do the work of community organizations, but the time so given produces friendships and ties that give more valuable results than any time you devote to your own business and affairs.

—Women's Institute will meet at the home of Mrs. Geo. Campbell, Thursday, Sept. 7th. There will be a prize for the best living room bouquet. Please note change of date.

—The girls club of Limehouse Presbyterian Church will hold a peach social and program in the church on Friday evening Sept. 1, at 8 o'clock, S.T. Admission 20c and 10c.

—The world turns aside to let any man pass who knows where he is going. David Star Jordan, 'Wonder if this fellow whether he is bound'.

—Canadian government officials are making no chances in regard to sabotage in this district as well as all over Canada, and a special guard is doing 24-hour duty at the armories.

—Work is progressing reasonably fast on our Main Street, and it is expected the pavement will be laid in time for the big community street festival.

—Don't forget the big community street carnival at Georgetown on Sept. 14th, under the auspices of the Lorne Scots Band and the Lions Club. Fun for everyone.

—While war news has overshadowed almost everything else during the past week, local citizens continue about their daily duties, hoping that war will not come to Europe.

—The Copper Cliff baseball team, the members of which have been entertained at the home of our citizens for the past week, returned home this morning. The boys enjoyed their visit in town, and their behaviour was a credit to the town of Copper Cliff.

—Citizens generally are preparing their exhibits for Georgetown's big show on Sept. 27th and 28th, the 8th Quebecing Agricultural Society Fall Fair. The prize lists will be out shortly — the delay being that there are many changes this year and more prizes offered.

—In the article "Memories and Recollections of Georgetown High School" which appeared in our Aug. 18th issue, Mr. Howard F. Oram finds that he was in error in stating that Wallace McGregor was drowned. As a matter of fact he died of typhoid fever. He was, however, under the impression that he had graduated from the School of Practical Science, but of this he is not now certain; nor the year in which he died.

—Canada is steadily developing as a manufacturing country and her mineral resources are bringing in increasing revenue each year but basically Canada is, and will be for some time, an agricultural country. Thanks to provincial and federal encouragement and research the agricultural industry is flourishing, which is well attested to by the throngs of agriculturists who come from all over the United States to inspect the many horticultural, agricultural and livestock exhibits at the Canadian National Exhibition.
