DEED
BENHAM-Suddenly, in Georgetown, on Thursday evening, September 7, 1939, Edward A. Benham, beloved husband of the late Emma McConnell and father of Clarence G. Benham.

IN MEMORIAM
QUATE-In loving memory of Edith Gilman Quate, who passed away Sept. 17th, 1937.
Today recalls sad memories. Of a dear sister gone to rest; But the ones who think of her today, Are the ones who loved her best. -Ever remembered by her sister Mae and Family.

OBITUARY
MRS. CORNELIA McCONNELL
Mrs. Cornelia McConnell (formerly Cora Brinkett, wife of Thomas S. McConnell, 2443 Scotch Ave., Niagara Falls, N.Y., died early Saturday morning, Sept. 9th, in the Memorial Hospital, after an illness of several weeks' duration. Funeral services were held from the family home on Monday afternoon and from St. James Methodist Episcopal Church, the Rev. Jas. L. Lefter, officiating. Interment was made in Riverside cemetery. Surviving besides her husband, is a sister, Mrs. Kathleen Langford, Toronto, and an aunt, Mrs. William Barton, of Detroit, Mich. Mrs. McConnell was born in Georgetown, but has lived in Niagara Falls, N.Y., for 38 years.

MARtha E. REID
Martha E. Reid, daughter of the late Rev. Hugh Reid, of Erin, passed away at her home, on Mill Street, Acton, on Thursday, August 31st. Born in Caledon Township, she later removed to Erin, where she lived practically all her lifetime. For the last seven years she resided in Acton, in the comfortable home she and her sister had built on Mill Street East. She was a member of the Baptist Church, the Rev. Jas. Lefter, officiating. Interment was in Erin Cemetery. The pallbearers were Messrs. Hugh Reid, Jos. Reid, Harold Griffin, Smith Griffin and Charles W. Landsborough, all nephews of the deceased, and Mr. Walter Bauer, their neighbor. The flower bearers were Misses Stan-ley Cripps, Wilfred Coles, Wilmer Fryer and Philip Killick.-Free Press.

EDWARD A. BENHAM
Death came suddenly on Thursday evening last, Sept. 7th, to Edward A. Benham, well-known and lifelong resident of Georgetown. Mr. Benham had suffered a heart attack a week previous to his death, but at the time it was not considered serious. However, a second seizure on Thursday evening proved fatal and he passed away at his home about eleven-thirty o'clock. Deceased was born in Georgetown 66 years ago and had spent his entire life in the community. Mr. Benham's wife, the late Emma McConnell, predeceased him two years ago. In the real estate business for over 25 years, Mr. Benham made many friends and was highly respected by all who knew him. He was a member of the United Church and the Masonic Order. Surviving are one son, Clarence, of Georgetown, and three sisters and one brother, Mrs. G. McWilliams, Miss Emily Benham, Mrs. H. Standerwick and Fred Benham, all of Toronto. The funeral was held from the home of Mr. Harold McClure, Maple Ave., on Monday afternoon and was in charge of the late Emma McConnell. The service at the home was conducted by the Rev. F. C. Overend of the United Church, and at the grave by Rev. W. G. O. Thompson, chaplain of the lodge, assisted by Jos. Sanford, W. M. The pallbearers were W. H. Long, G. W. McIntosh, K. M. Langdon, Walter T. Evans, J. E. Sanford and R. W. Hinton. The many beautiful floral tributes bespoke the high esteem in which deceased was held.

Georgetown Public and High Schools Re-open for Fall Term

Public School Staff Remains the Same, While High School Personnel has One Change.

The summer vacation for the Public and High Schools is over and the doors were opened last week for the fall term. This is the sign for students and beginners to pick up their books and pencils and commence anew the seeking of an education that will fit them for a place in the world of tomorrow. Many changes have occurred in the curriculum of both schools during the past few years, but Georgetown schools are equipped better than ever to equip the boys and girls with an education adequate for the future.

Miss Jane Beals is the only new teacher on the staff this year. The administration of the High School is under the direction of a Board, composed of the following members: Messrs. C. B. Dayfoot, chairman; R. B. Poulis, Dr. F. R. Watson, Rev. W. G. O. Thompson, Rev. D. D. Davidson, Dr. A. McAllister, Rev. E. Percy Cleave, Messrs. John D. Kelly, D. P. Crichton, H. Barnes.

ASHGROVE
Miss Zeta Graham, whose marriage to Mr. Fred Nurse will take place on Saturday, Sept. 16th, has been the guest of honor at several showers and presentations. On August 29th at the home of Miss B. Lyons, several girl friends met and the bride-to-be was presented with a set of eight goblets in the cornflower design.

MILTON
Miss Muriel Norris and Miss Marie Wilson are now nurses-in-training in the Hamilton General Hospital.
