—A local citizen advises us that Adolf Hitler's hair is always straight because "Britannia Rules the Waves."

—Relief costs in Guelph are down $8,000 compared to a year ago and that should be good news for Wellington's county town.

—It's the people on the sidelines who seem to be getting the spoils of this war. Russia got half of Poland and it looks as if Duplessis is going to get Quebec today.

—The Georgetown Women's Institute will meet at the home of Mrs. Freure on Wednesday, Nov. 1st at 3 o'clock. All members urgently requested to be present.

—Despite the second Great War, Canada will observe Remembrance Day, November 11, the anniversary of the conclusion of the first Great War, as a statutory holiday.

—The story that the ex-Kaiser is preparing a spare room at Doorn for Hitler has a new twist. Seems that Wilhelm is having the room padded.

—The Women's Auxiliary of the Lorne Scots P. D. and H. Regt. will hold a bridge and euchre in the Legion Hall, Georgetown, Thursday, Nov. 2nd. Everyone welcome. Admission 25c. 2t.

—Mrs. Alice Tack, a bride-to-be of November, was given a kitchen shaker by Mrs. Ruth McNally at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred McNally, which was attended by a score of Mrs. Tack's friends. Mrs. L. Schrage of Brampton presided at the luncheon.

—A sufficient majority of votes were recorded in Beeton last Wednesday, which gives that municipality permission to sell beer and wines in hotel beverage room. Seven more votes than the required number were marked in favor of repeal.

—In Port Elgin the council has recently passed a curfew by-law to the effect that children 14 years and under must be off the Port Elgin streets by 9 o'clock in the evening, unless accompanied by parents or guardian. Curfew by-laws seem to break out here and there at intervals but they seldom are observed for any great length of time.

—The town of Simcoe is surely stepping into war work in earnest. In a campaign opened to secure funds to enable local organizations to carry on $42,576 was contributed in a few days. One subscription of $10,000, one of $7,500, two of $2,500 each and four of $1,000 each helped some. But is it not a fine example?

—Members of the Canadian Active Service Force are exempt from ordinary legal procedures for collection of debts. Vigilance upon the part of merchants in the transaction of business with the soldiery may in cases be an act of kindness to the Force member as well as an act of discretion in behalf of his own business.

—Mr. R. Y. Wemyss of Trenton (formerly of Georgetown) returned on Tuesday after several weeks spent visiting relatives in Scotland. He docked at New York harbor aboard the "Camorria" on Monday morning, and was met in Toronto by Mrs. Wemyss and Victor Wemyss. Mr. Wemyss expected to return two weeks ago, but owing to war conditions several bookings on other vessels were cancelled. Quinte Sun.

—Perhaps many cannot remember way back 70 years, but those who can will recall the great snow storm of October 20, 1869, which constitutes a record, as the snow came so early that it turned into potatoes, were buried in the fields and apples, were frozen on the trees, and there was no thaw until the spring. Just an old-fashioned winter.

—Motorists beware of carbon monoxide, now that colder weather has arrived. Carbon monoxide gas is deadly, and its presence is not noticed by the victim. One safe way to eliminate this danger is to open the garage doors before starting the car engine, also the opening of a car window will aid in combating the death-dealing gas. Don't take chances with carbon monoxide or it may prove to be fatal.

Midget Rugby Squad Triumph Over Milton

For the first time in several years a midget rugby team was organized by Mr. Lambert of the Georgetown High School. The players could not weigh more than 135 pounds. When the game started at Milton last Thursday, a fine rain was falling making the field damp. Allingham for Georgetown kicked off. Brush received the kick, but was brought down by Georgetown tacklers with only a slight gain. The Georgetown line was weak and Milton was able to make some slight gains. Georgetown recovered the ball on a fumble by a Milton player. A series of plunges by Allingham, Arnold and Clark soon took the Scarlet and Blue team down to the Milton end. In the second quarter Georgetown was penalized ten yards for off-side, but in spite of this R. Early made a touchdown putting Georgetown up 5-0. In the same quarter Ruddell recovered his own fumble and out-ran the Milton players to make a touchdown. Georgetown converted then on a pass from Allingham to D. Beaumont putting Georgetown in the lead 11-0. In the third quarter Georgetown gained two more points from rouses by Allingham, making the score 13-0. Milton threatened briefly in the final quarter and Brush kicked their solitary single. Georgetown came strong in the closing minutes and the second string line marched steadily down the field, but time was called just as they were in a scoring position again. Final score: Georgetown 13, Milton 1. Georgetown line-up: Flying wing, J. Ruddell; centre, A. Young; right half, D. Beaumont; left half, J. Allingham; quarterback R. Early; snap, G. Perry; left inside, O. Carter; right inside, W. Emmerston; right middle, W. Clark; left middle, H. Arnold; right end, G. Walker; left end, J. Bowman; subs, J. Keir, G. Macdonald, L. Beaumont, S. DeVries, B. McCartney, D. Early, R. Crichton.
