LOCAL NEWS

—A Merry Christmas!
—Just three shopping days left before Christmas.
—Firemen's Ball, Friday December 29th.
—Tomorrow is the shortest day of the year.
—Friday is nomination day in Esqueving Township.
—Turkeys and almost any fowl are plentiful this year.
—We hope Santa may prove a good friend to everyone.
—The schools close this week for the Christmas holidays.
—Looks as though we are going to have a green Christmas.
—It is not too late to send your donation toward the Christmas hamper for the needy.
—We would appreciate having the names of your holiday visitors for publication next week. Please hand them in early.
—Last minute Christmas shoppers will find gifts for every member of the family if they read the Herald advertisements.
—Don't forget the Glen Dance Wednesday, December 27th. Christmas special with streamers. Everybody assured of a good time.
—All copy for next week's paper must be in this office by Tuesday noon of next week. Correspondents and advertisers are urged to send their copy in promptly.
—The Community Christmas Tree has been erected at the corner of Main and Mill Streets and adds greatly to the Christmas spirit. Now, if it would only snow.
—The death occurred on Monday of Margaret Bruce, aged 72, wife of Edward W. Van Sciver of Burlington. Mr. Van Sciver is a former member of county council.
—The annual Christmas Party of Knox Church Sunday School will be held on Friday, December 22nd. Supper served at 6:00 o'clock. Everyone welcome. Silver Collection.
—The firemen are making extensive preparations for their annual ball on Friday evening, December 29th. Doris Bull's orchestra is supplying the music, and a grand time is assured all who attend.
—At the home at Holy Cross Hall on Monday evening the door prize of a turkey was won by Mr. Thos. Herbert, Georgetown. There was a good attendance, and all enjoyed the evening at the games.
—Have you secured your tickets for the Lions Club Christmas Tree draw, which will take place on Saturday afternoon? Turkeys, geese and chickens given away to some lucky persons.
—The first hockey match is scheduled for a week from Friday—December 29th—but it will have to turn a lot colder. The arena has been flooded, but the mild weather still prevails.

—We appreciate the kind remarks regarding our special Christmas issues of The Herald. They are made possible only through the co-operation of our merchants.
—Be sure to bring the kiddies to Georgetown on Saturday for the Community Christmas Tree. And while here do your last minute shopping with our local merchants. They still have a large stock to choose from.
—The proceeds of the Red Cross dance, held three weeks ago, amounted to about $40.00. The music was supplied by Doris Hull's orchestra, and all services and other expenses were donated. The music was excellent and was enjoyed by a good attendance.
