The annual Vestry meeting of St. George's Church was held, according and showed a substantial improveto Canon, on Monday evening, the Rector, Rev. W. G. O. Thompson, presiding. The Creed was recited, and the opening prayers said. The Vestry Clerk, Mr. Wallace Thompson, then read the minutes of last Vestry meeting.

The Rector addressed the Vestry, mentioning the work of the year past, and offering commendation to all who had served the church, and farthered her work in any capacity. He then gave the vital statistics: 17 baptized. 6 confirmed, 11 marriages, and 6 burials. He called on the congregation to make 1940 not just a normal year in the work of the Church and religion, but a very outstanding one. The Churchwardens' report was then sented by Mr. Thos. - Eason, Jr.,

ment in the Church's financial condition over last year.

Satisfactory reports were presented by the Sons of St. George, Sunday declared open by the Rector, for the School, Woman's Auxiliary, Daughters of the Church, Choir, Altar Guild, Junior Auxiliary, Babies' Branch, Orchestra, Willing Helpers and St. George's Tennis Club.

The Rector announced that Mr. Elmer C. Thompson would carry on as Rector's Warden. Mr. Thos. Eason, Jr., was re-elect-
