BALLINAFAD
 The funeral of the late Bessie Cole took place from Rumley & Johnston's Funeral Home in Acton on Monday, Feb. 19th. Rev. A. O. W. Foreman conducted the funeral service, which was largely attended. The deceased had been ill for several years and had recently undergone an operation from which she did not recover, passing away last Thursday in Hamilton Sanatorium. Our sincere sympathy goes out to the bereaved family, her mother, Mrs. Peter Cole, one brother, John, and one sister, Mary, who are left to mourn her loss. The deceased was of very bright and cheerful disposition and fought her long and painful struggle bravely with no thought of complaint. She was predeceased by her father, the late Peter Cole and two sisters, Clara and Hazel. There were many beautiful floral tributes. The honorary bearers were Messrs. Joseph Soper, John Williamson, Angus Thompson, Fred Cole, Harding Price and Frank Hughes. The active pallbearers were Messrs. Ernest McInery, Fred Shiel, Donald Houston, Georgetown; John Cook, Ospringe; Harold McInyre and Ellsworth Evans, Interment took place in Fairview Cemetery, Acton.
 The members of the W.A. held their February meeting at the home of Mrs. J. Kirkwood on Wednesday afternoon. The Scripture lesson from Genesis was read by Mrs. A. Starret and prayer by Mrs. F. W. Shortt. A short period was then devoted to business after which a Red Cross tea was served.
 The Young People held their regular meeting Thursday evening. Miss Murray Crossman had charge of the Missionary topic. The chapter dealt with the Untouchable People of India and proved to be very interesting. A timely talk on the present day party system of politics was given by Mr. C. Donell, which contained some very good thoughts to think over before March 26th.

BALLINAFAD
 A concert will be held in the hall on Monday night, Feb. 26, under auspices of the Sunday School. The program will be given by the Literary Club of Ospringe. Everybody welcome.

Jam for Soldiers
 Some forty orders for jam and marmalades have been placed by the War Supply Board since November 1st. to the Canada's enlisted men supplied with these necessities. The combined orders represented a total of $14,500 and include strawberry, raspberry and plum jams and orange marmalade.
