HUGHES CLEAVER

Liberal Candidate for Halton County

TO THE ELECTORS OF HALTON: You have heard and read a lot about National Government. While you do not believe that Dr. Manion's so called National Government candidates are other than Conservatives in a new garb, yet many of you feel as I do that this is not a war for any one party. political parties, all religious and all races in Canada must ted in our war effort if Canada is to make her maximum contribution to the successful presecution of the war. It is argued that this being so why shouldn't the Conservative party join with the Liberal party and form a National Government? This suggestion has a strong appeal to me personally but one must be a realist. Since Confederation Canada has been governed under the two party system, one party in power and the other in opposition. The party in opposition if 5 r 5. Then the country became divided over the enforcement of con-cription. When serious disunity occurred over this question a Union Government was formed. Dr. Manion believes that this should be done immediately while Mr. King believes just as strongly that the time has not yet arrived. Personally I believe that Canada has not yet suffered

In this regard I am pleased 1st. to find myself in full accord with my opponent who advances the ability of 3t these men and who urges in his letter of last week that their services should be used but Mr. Atkins apparently does not know that they are already being used. These boards are doing a real job for Canada. One illustration will suffice. Take the cost of living. You all know what happened to sugar in the first few weeks of the war, whereas now the "situation is fully controlled. There are about three million families in Canada. The average cost per week per family for food stuffs and normal household expenses is about $10.00. In the last war this went up to about $19.00 per week per family. An increased cost of $9.00 per family per week for three million families sums up to a total of $1404 millions annually, three times the yearly cost of the last war. Most people today realize that in modern warfare the home front is almost as important as the battlefront. All of these independent boards have functioned so efficiently that even though we are at almost as usual. As we move into the concluding week of the campaign you will be confused by wild and reckless charges which have little or no foundation in fact. I ask you to brush them all aside and use your own good judgment. You know what I have tried to accomplish for you and you know whether Halton has been well represented I suggest to you that if there ever was a time when you should brush aside your affiliations and vote for the welfare of Canada that time Is the present. I ask for your support. As this is my concluding letter to the County press I would like to add a word of appreciation and thanks to my many friends for the encouragement and assistance which has been accorded to me and to express the hope that when the election is over we will all unite to further the great task before us of preserving for Canada and the world those freedoms which we all cherish so highly.
