The Dominion Government has decided not to introduce daylight saving legislation this year, but will leave towns and villages to do as they see fit in the matter.

Our Main Street pavement has wintered well and presents a fine appearance this Spring.

Dr. C. T. W. Ross passed away suddenly at his home in Toronto on Mar. 23 of this year. 11 years ago he sold his practice to Dr. R. T. Paul, and moved to Sunderland, later to Toronto.

Mr. T. Warnes still owns the home bought by his late father. The Halpin family are yet faithful to the memory of Pte. Wilbert Halpin (Herald, Apr. 17). W. A. Forth was appointed Constable and Town Foreman, at a salary of $90 a month.

J. N. O'Neill is now selling the Willys cars. Briscoe and Franklin have long since disappeared from the automobile field. There is now no charge for water to use in sprinkling lawns. The Dominion Government never did introduce daylight saving time legislation, and the towns and villages are still free to decide the matter. Main Street pavement has again wintered well, and thanks to the Fire Brigade, again presents a fine appearance this spring. The Women's Civic Association has passed out of existence. It will long be remembered for its contributions to civic improvement—the Georgetown Public Library, being an outstanding example of this.

COUNTY COUNCIL

At the regular meeting of the county council on April 18th at Milton, a report was read from Miss M. F. Jackson, V.O.N., Burlington, outlining the nursing service which she had given in and around Nelson and Burlington districts, which amounted to some 2322 visits to homes and schools. In view of the fact that the V.O.N. is a worthy cause, Reeve Kerns, of Nelson, brought this report to the notice of the council, with a request for some financial assistance.

A discussion followed, and the members expressed themselves as follows: Mr. Robertson (Nelson): "I think there should be a V.O.N. organization in every municipality. In this case the nurse is certainly relieving the county of some expense."

Mr. Byers (Oshawa): "I think this is a splendid institution and while the county as a whole may be interested in a moral sense, yet I don't think they should be called upon to help finance it. Perhaps those interested might show even more active interest."

Mr. Gilbert (Traill): "Of course this is a worthy thing to do. It is a worthy cause and is undoubtedly saving us money."

Mr. Cleave (Georgetown): "If we should give a grant it would spread like wildfire, and how could we give to one organization and not another?"

Mr. Kerns: "How about fall fairs? We don't have a fair but we are always willing when your annual grants are requested."

Mr. Robertson: "I certainly think this is a very worthy cause, but perhaps it is a case of the municipalities to look after. Perhaps a resolution would help us to reach a decision."

It was moved by Mr. Robertson, seconded by Mr. Kerns, that the county of Halton make a grant of $100 to the Victorian Order of Nurses in Burlington. The resolution was defeated 9-5.

The main business for which the meeting was called was the consideration of tenders for health insurance. However, only the minutes, correspondence and the report of the morning session were considered at the morning session. The inspector of roads recommended the wood floors in cells and corridors on the top floor be replaced with concrete, and that the upper floor ceiling be made escape-proof and fire resisting; also that immediate action be taken with the upstairs ceiling and completion of the fire-hose line.

The report also showed commitments to the jail had increased since 1936. From 1936-37 there were 110 inmates; from 1938-39, 147 inmates.

At the afternoon session reports of standing committees were considered in committee of the whole, with Dr. C. H. Heslop in the chair. There was very little of importance in connection with any of the reports, which were later passed by council.

The agriculture committee recommended that Mr. J. E. Whitelock represent the county at the annual meeting of the forestry zone to be held in Hamilton.

Mr. T. G. Ramshaw and Mr. A. E. Wilson, both representing Lloyd's of London, addressed council with reference to county road liability insurance. Tenders were submitted, after which the two gentlemen withdrew, but remained on call. The tenders gave the following protection: $10,000 one person, $25,000 one accident, and property damage limit of $1,000. Mr. Ramshaw's tender was $588.62, and Mr. Wilson's for the same coverage $438.96.

Since there had been delay last year in receiving the policy, Mr. Wilson was recalled and asked if the policy would be delivered on time this year if his tender were accepted. After being assured that it would be, it was moved by Dr. Heslop, seconded by Mr. Hillier that the tender submitted by A. E. Wilson be accepted. Carried.

Two by-laws were introduced and given three readings and passed: No. 740, that the salary of the secretary be raised to the House of Refuge shall be $300 per annum commencing 1st April, 1940; No. 741, to appoint Dr. A. L. Noble, of Brampton, as physician to the inmates and officials of the House of Refuge; at a yearly salary of $400, such salary to be shared equally by the counties of Halton and Peel.

ANYBODY HERE GOT THE RIGHT TIME?

Mix up Daylight Saving Time and five time zones and you have a problem that will crack any radio brain. Here is a candid shot of Alan Young, of the CBC Vancouver presentation "Stag Party", trying to figure out when his programme will reach you. Alan is apparently bewildered, but if your community observes Daylight Saving you may hear "Stag Party" at the same time, 11:30 p.m. EDT. If you remain on Standard Time, the broadcast will reach you an hour earlier. Daylight Saving Time arrives on Sunday, April 28—be prepared to watch your radio listings for the times of your favourite programmes.

CBC'S ALAN YOUNG REVEALS ALL ON DAYLIGHT SAVING

Editor's note: Daylight Saving Time comes into effect in Eastern Canada on Sunday, April 28. The immediate result in all parts of the Dominion is the general time-switching of CBC programmes. While this is confusing to the average radio listener, to Alan Young, comedy star of the CBC's "Stag Party", it is downright baffling. Undaunted by this fact, Mr. Young locked himself in his cell and 24 hours later (in any kind of time produced the following thesis, tersely titled, "Daylight: Saving as I get it."

By Alan Young "Daylight saving is a great thing! That's what I said to my friend. "Daylight saving is a great thing!" After I picked myself up I continued, "I'm all in favour of it. Give me the daylight every time! All you can spare I believe that daylight is the most valuable thing in the world! That is unless I don't have to get up earlier for it. Just put it in a bottle under my pillow. I'll get it."

As a matter of fact and in the final analysis Daylight Saving is a good thing. I believe that daylight is the most valuable thing in the world! That is unless I don't have to get up earlier for it. Just put it in a bottle under my pillow. I'll get it."

Daylight Saving was actually taken away from the Phoenicians who didn't want it anyway. History proves that they habitually shut it out of their homes, thereby establishing what is termed "Phoenician Blinds." The Phoenicians later wrote about Daylight Saving the words "mifidu dikhjd sildokkks kwiff!" meaning "The Greeks have a word for it. We think it's 'Spring!'"

Having obtained a clear and concise definition of the subject we shall now explain Daylight Saving and its present application.

In the first place it had been suggested that the idea of moving the clock ONE hour ahead to save daylight we might as well save it ALL. This would necessitate moving the clock ahead FOUR hours which, you must admit, is not only revolutionary, but also AWFULLY EARLY!

This also has other disadvantages. You can imagine the results if Toronto accepted Daylight Saving and no one else did. When it was one o'clock in Calgary, it would be eleven o'clock in Toronto. Flying from Victoria to Ottawa would take less than a minute! Having people read your letter in Toronto before you mailed it in Vancouver would be foolish in the extreme. In the extreme East, I mean. Or do I know WHAT I mean?

In figuring out radio schedules Algers would have to be called in. Let "X" equal the time of the programme. "B" equals Daylight Saving. "C" equals me, of you and "P" equals four o'clock. BxPx2 equals X-B4 which means that we'll have to get up at five A.M. for our programme which won't be heard till nine anyway because C-Px4 x8 equals PU!

So if it's ten o'clock in Vancouver, and eight o'clock Friday evening in Toronto and I want to hear a programme at four in the afternoon, let's see — hmmm. Px4-X-C or Xx-C-HJK, which means, which means — Holy Smoke! — I better hurry and tune in if I want to hear how Stag Party is going to be last night! Excuse me!
