

Turn a photographer loose around the CBC Toronto studios and he will have a field day, particularly if he meets that versatile group known as the Happy Gang. Here is the result of a recent expedition among the "gangsters." Spring was in the air when our candid artist snapped the septet on their way to the CBC studios. They are, left to right, Bert Pearl, Hugh Bartlett, Bob Farnon, Kathleen Stokes, Blain Mathie, George Temple and Eddie Allen. Almost hidden behind his accordion is Eddie "Angel" Allen at left centre. Right centre is Kathleen Stokes, at the console of the studio organ. Everybody joins in on the chorus in the lower picture including George, Kathleen, Blain, Bert, Bob, Eddie and Hugh. Engineer Bob Flook was as usual hard at work in the control room when the photographer called. During this month the Happy Gang has been a busy group. In addition to their daily broadcasts over the CBC National Network at 1.00 p.m. EDT, they are making a number of personal appearances in several Ontario communities. These have included concerts in Hamilton, London and Kitchener. On May 15 they will journey to Windsor for a two-day engagement in the automobile centre. A week later, on May 22, citizens of Brantford will have an opportunity to meet every member of the group.

Letters to the Editor

NO SYMPATHY FOR AGNES

Dear Mr. Editor:
I note your comments on Miss Agnes McPhail in your issue of April 10th. What did she expect to get, when she bemoans the fact "what has it brought me?" She also complains that now she must get a job. This comes with very bad grace from one receiving $4,000 a year for 18 years, especially when elected by voters with an income of an eighth to a quarter of that amount, most of whom would consider themselves millionaires were they in receipt of such an income.

While none is her life idealism? She says party politics are the curse of the country, while it was the U.P.O. "party" which made her career possible, and it looks now as if she is quite willing to be the candidate of another "party" if there is a chance of being elected in Saskatoon. In other words, she is willing after all her "disillusionment" to "sacrifice" herself again.

The Conservative and Liberal parties are not the only parties. So a statement such as she makes is only a smoke screen to her thinking and make herself appear the savior of the oppressed.

You voice the hope that consideration will be given to her appointment to the Senate. Might I suggest that in theory, the members of the Senate were to be chosen from the citizenry at large, and it is a perversion of the high purpose when it is filled with discarded politicians, and a great injustice to the people to have these discards with their prejudices foisted on us for life.

Besides all that, Miss McPhail chose to join the small number of members of Parliament who became professional politicians. The theory of parliamentary pay is that a member is paid an indemnity to reimburse him for loss of time away from his farm, business or profession. Miss McPhail becoming the professional politician whom, by influence, she condemns, was able to attend all the little functions and garden parties which most members cannot do, thus cultivating her riding and lengthening her time in office.

TAXPAYER.

ALARMED BY RELIGIOUS SECT:

Mr. Editor:
Will you kindly give me space in your column for information sincerely sought after?

What is the foundation and belief grounded on, of the sect that is travelling through the country, on the Sabbath day, trying to sell their literature, when they can, and giving it where they cannot?

The writer has come in contact with their teaching and literature to the extent of forming an opinion as follows:

(a) They speak and teach that our clergy are the Pharisees working for money.

(b) The Church of Christ is a man-made organization, run by a favored few. Its members hypocrites.

(c) They attack the Government, thus endangering law and order.

(d) Also the Roman Catholic and Protestant doctrine in the same standard of nothingness.

(e) The school children must not salute the flag, as that is putting a rag before God.

(f) The most sacred thing in life is being crushed out, namely, love, which is the fulfilling of the law.

(g) Their Bible references are used in such a way as to distort their real meaning by taking a verse from here and there. The atmosphere of their efforts appears to teach hate rather than the contrary. There is nothing sacred.

(h) Jesus is not mentioned as the Saviour of mankind. When we die, we are dead, the breath is the soul and we are as the animals, but this sect is persecuted for righteousness sake.

Mr. Editor, we are told that Russia has no God. Is this the a.b.c. of atheism gotten into this fair Canada of ours? Is it Communism, Reds, Black Shirts, or the anti-Christ spoken of in the Bible which would, if possible, deceive the very elect.

Don't you think, sir, that the people of Canada should be warned of the danger of having anything to do with such a sect, or is there not a law to prohibit such people going around deceiving the unsuspecting? Or can you tell me through your valuable column the standard of their Christianity? Any information will be gratefully received.

ANXIOUS SUBSCRIBER.

I have not personally come in contact with this "sect" which you speak of, and therefore do not feel qualified to venture an answer to your questions. I shall do my best to check up on this organization. If what you say is true, they are certainly doing no good in this world.—Ed.

The Editor, The Georgetown Herald, May 2nd, 1940.

Dear Sir:
May I draw attention to two errors which appeared in your publication last week.

Mr. T. S. Farnham is President of the Georgetown Choral Society, rather than Director. Mr. W. E. Cappe, of Brampton, has directed our choir for the past five years, and we feel that you owe him this recognition. Elsewhere in the Herald, you mention that Mrs. Wrigglesworth, Mrs. (Dr.) Paul, and Mrs. Lambert were in charge of arrangements for the Festival. This could read Mr. Lambert, Mrs. (Dr.) Paul and Mrs. Lambert. Thanking you.

A READER.

(Thank you for bringing this to our attention. In future we shall keep our terminology more correct)—Ed.
