The Editor, Georgetown Herald, Georgetown, Ontario.

Dear Sir: In your issue of May 8th you published a letter signed "Anxious Subscriber," with a comment by yourself stating that you have not personally come in contact with "qualified" and therefore do not feel qualified to venture an answer. I am writing because do feel qualified to state the position of Jehovah's Witnesses because I have been closely associated with them since the year 1913, and presuming that you would wish to have a fair answer given to the questions which you published I request that you also publish this letter under the same section "Letters to the Editor."

CHURCH NEWS

Scripture Text
"Whence then cometh wisdom? And where is the place of understanding? And unto man he said, Behold, the fear of the Lord, that is wisdom; and to depart from evil, is understanding." Job 28: 20, 28.

St. George's Church
Rev. W. G. O. Thompson, Minister.
Trinity: Holy Communion 8 a.m. Sunday School 10 a.m. Matins 11 a.m. Evening Song 7 p.m.

St. George's Church
Confirmation will be administered in St. George's on Thursday evening, June 13th, at 8:00 o'clock, by his Lordship, Bishop Broughton. A cordial invitation is given to all. The altar flowers on Sunday were in loving memory of the late Albert Post.

St. Alban's Church, Glen Williams
Third Sunday after Trinity: Holy Communion 9:30 a.m. Sunday School 10:30 a.m.

At St. Alban's and St. George's the Rector suggested that the response to the King's call to prayer may have had something to do with the miraculous escape of the B.E.F. Perhaps we hamper our cause when we do not join our prayers in God's House for that cause. Let every person take that thought to heart.

Baptist Church
Rev. E. G. Baxter, Minister. 10:00 a.m. Worship service at school, subject: "Jesus Loved Him." 7:00 p.m. Evening worship, subject: "Christ in the Synagogue." Thursday 8:00 p.m. Prayer meeting. A welcome to all.

Knox Presbyterian Church
Services 11 a.m. and 7 p.m. The services on Sunday, June 9th, will be conducted by Mr. Douglas Seaton of Toronto.

The United Church
Rev. A. C. Overend, B.A., Pastor. 10 a.m. Sunday school and Bible class. 11 a.m. Rev. Donald Stewart, assistant minister at Chalmers' United Church, Guelph, will preach, and at 7 p.m. Rev. Charles Cummings, Norval, will be in charge of the service.

LIONS HEAR COLONEL CONOVER

Col. Conover "decried the endless passing of resolutions criticizing this and that phase of our war effort. He is not in favour of current suggestions to intern all naturalized Canadians of enemy birth or parentage. 'If a naturalized German behaves himself we have no reason to put him in an internment camp,' said the Colonel. 'We have accepted him as a Canadian, and he is entitled to the rights and privileges of a Canadian. However, if anyone, German or otherwise, in this country is found guilty of aiding or abetting the cause of the enemy, there is only one penalty for this—death.' He can see no reason why a man found guilty of such a crime as this should be kept in a jail or internment camp at our expense.

"This war is being fought for Canada, and we must be prepared to take our share in the struggle. Hitler wouldn't know what to do with England if he did conquer her. He wouldn't know what to do with Canada. She would be an inestimable asset in supplying raw materials for German industry, and in providing a land for German emigration. While we can't all be soldiers, we can all play our part in winning this war. He bitterly denounced the Canadians who were not giving their utmost in an effort to win the war. He described one recent occurrence which emphasized this point. A manufacturer, whose plant could easily be converted to making war supplies, recently closed down. When queried as to his reason for not producing war goods, he replied that with the Government only allowing a 5% profit, he would rather have his money in mortgages. 'That man,' said Col. Conover, 'is the worst possible kind of traitor that we could have in this country.'

It is the people's own fault when they elect a Government, then proceed to criticize the leaders whom they have elected. 'Those soldiers and sailors who have gone to their death fighting for the Empire, had one more year of that great man of peace, Neville Chamberlain, and then when war finally came, he was adjudged not suited to lead his people in war.'

"I have no doubt in my own mind, however, that we are going to win this war," concluded Col. Conover. "The battle may be long, but the British Empire cannot and must not fall, and it is our task to see that she does not."

Lionel Weik moved a sincere vote of thanks for the thoughts expressed by the Colonel. He agreed with his belief that Canadians do not realize danger until it is actually upon us. "How many votes would any political party have gathered a few years ago," he said, "if they had as their platform, the defence of Canada?"

Lionel Weik seconded this vote of thanks, and with a few words from Lion Kelly, the evening was brought to a close.

His purchase was for only twenty cents but he left that when his foreign bill was discovered and fled in a fairly late model car. Let other storekeepers be warned to keep a watchful eye on strangers as a number of these bills have been passed in the county recently.
