MIDGET BASEBALL

Some activity in the baseball field is promised by Gordon Acott, who dropped into the Herald Office on Monday afternoon. Gordon is supervisor of juvenile sports up at Copper Cliff, and he tells us they have 150 boys, making up eleven teams playing midget baseball in Copper Cliff.

It is planned to pick an all-star team from these groups, and they will join Georgetown on the Saturday before Civic Holiday, for a two-game series for the Ontario Midget Pro-Baseball Championship. The Copper Cliff team is sponsored by the International Nickel Corporation, while the Georgetown boys are being sponsored by the Herald Office.

This will be the third year of this competition, which has been won by Copper Cliff in the first two series. Gordon reports that the Copper Cliff kids are anxious to avenge their hockey defeat of last winter, while the Georgetown boys are just as anxious to capture that elusive baseball championship which has twice before slipped away from them.

Ed. McWhirter and Jimmy Sargent are in charge of arrangements in Georgetown, and it is expected that they will turn out the team of championship calibre such as the one which took the hockey championship a few months ago.

It is reported that Tony Lazzari would like the team to play three or four innings at the Maple Leaf Stadium, as a preliminary to one of their league games. If this can be arranged, it will be quite an honour for the boys and incidentally for the town itself.

Remember the date—Saturday and Civic Holiday.

REV. FATHER McREAVY HONOURED

Rev. Father McReavy, former priest at Holy Cross Church, was recently honoured at Paris on the occasion of the twenty-fifth anniversary of his ordination to the priesthood.

Quoting from the Paris Star: "The parishioners of the Church of the Sacred Heart took occasion on Tuesday evening to honour their pastor, Rev. Fr. F. J. McReavy, it being the twenty-fifth anniversary of his ordination.

"The evening was a social one, during which the pupils of Sacred Heart School, the congregation, and the C.Y.O. all made suitable gifts, and visiting clergy referred in complimentary terms to the guest of the evening.

"This was followed by an interesting and entertaining program, by pupils of the school—every number of which was enjoyed by all.

"Father McReavy thanked all for their kind tributes and gifts, and said he was most happy in his work here.

"Citizens of Paris generally join in this evidence of the respect in which Father McReavy is held, he being most highly regarded by all who know him.

"Luncheon by the ladies of the congregation and C.Y.O. concluded a very enjoyable evening."

Above all things, we must avoid jitters. The Empire has been in difficult places before and has come through.

IN OUR MAIL BAG

Plumbrook Farm, R. R. 4 Georgetown, June 19th, 1940.

To the Editor of the Herald, Georgetown

Dear Sir,

"The time has said, or was it the honorable member for Halton, to talk of many things, of ships, and shoes, and sealing wax, of cabbages and chiefly of kings." Why must we be deluged by a torrent of bickering and ill-founded charges and counter-charges concerning the personnel of the present administration. Continued narrowness and selfishness cannot but disillusion the public, not only in their elected representatives, but also in the effectiveness of our system of government. It seems that both Mr. O'Leaver and Mr. Hornuth, his sparring partner, have now enough rope to hang themselves together with their colleagues.

It is to be hoped in the future that they will refrain from airing personal differences during business hours and confine their efforts to effectively terminating the present struggle in favour of organizing the Dominion that she might meet successfully the economic and social upheaval, which is an inevitable consequence of this or any war.

Sincerely,
WEIR REID.

REBEKAHS ENTERTAINED

At the conclusion of the regular meeting of Verdun Rebekah Lodge last Tuesday evening, Mrs. S. C. McKenzie, the Noble Grand, invited the members to her home, where a most enjoyable time was spent. Several interesting games were played and while the members engaged in a sing-song with Mrs. Lillico on the piano, on the dining-room table a tempting platter of waffles and maple syrup was placed, which needless to say, quickly disappeared and were very much enjoyed.

Everyone present then contributed a few lines to a letter to Mrs. Brownlee, who has recently returned to Valleyfield, Quebec, but who during her stay here had been a faithful attendant at the Lodge meetings. After several cup readings and a vote of thanks to Mrs. McKenzie for a very pleasant evening, the members reluctantly parted.

The Garage Operators' Association Meeting

The regular meeting of the Halton Branch of the Ontario Garage Operators' Association was held in the Farmers' Hall at Milton on Thursday evening, June 6th, the president, Mr. J. L. McKindley, in charge.

The number of members and visitors was not as large as usual, but the enthusiasm was of the same high standard, and what was short in quantity was made up in quality.

A large number of items came before the meeting for discussion, and a very keen interest was shown by all the members in the manner in which every item was discussed.

It was with regret the Branch accepted the resignation of two of its valued member officers. The genial treasurer Geo. McLeod, stepped from the ranks of the Branch, and offered himself as No. 1 of the organization and placed himself at the service of our King and Country. The best wishes of the boys of Halton Branch will follow Mac, and we sincerely hope before long he will again be one of the member officers of the Branch.

Ross Maxwell, the vice-president, also stepped from the ranks. Ross having severed his connections with his business in Burlington, resigned from the Branch. It is hoped Ross will again locate in the county and again join the membership. One and all the boys join hands in wishing him every success and the very best of luck.

Following the regular business period the meeting was turned over to representatives of Imperial Oil Limited—Mr. R. R. Baker, Toronto, district salesman; Mr. J. Q. Shand, Fleet, consumer salesman, and Mr. R. V. Cunningham of the sales promotion staff. The big feature of their programme was motion pictures on the care and maintenance of the engine of a modern automobile. This was one of the best programmes presented to the Branch this season.

A vote of thanks was given to the Imperial Oil Co., Limited, and to their representatives for their efforts in bringing to the Halton Branch such an inspiring and educational program. By a motion the meeting then adjourned, and the regular meetings will be discontinued until September.

At the close of the meeting members and friends enjoyed a buffet luncheon provided through the courtesy of the Imperial Oil Co., Limited.

It would be the height of disloyalty for either Conservatives or Liberals to seek to make political capital out of the present critical military situation.

company; and the public, which he states has been congenial and quite satisfactory. "I don't see anything in the way that will prevent this band from proving of mutual benefit and interest to the town and to the company," he said. The band shows the advantage of good training and much natural ability. Admiration of the male of the band was expressed as well as pleasure over its young members and equipment. The new name of the organization will be indicated by the White Rose trade mark on the crest of the caps.

Mr. Cox has had considerable experience in training bands and has frequently acted as adjudicator in important band contests. At the present time he is vice-president of the Canadian Bandmasters' Association, and in line next year for the presidency. For a time he resided in Fort William and Port Arthur where he was bandmaster of the 98th Leinster Superior Regimental Band, the Fort Arthur Citizens' Band and the Fort Arthur Shipbuilding Company's Band, as well as playing first trumpet in the Thunder Bay Philharmonic Society. In Huntsville he was a member of the Anglo-Canadian Leather Company's Band, and conductor of the Choral Society. For the past fourteen years he has resided in Toronto where he has been musical director of the popular Queen's York Rangers First American Regimental Band. At the inception of school bands in Toronto, he was appointed instructor of East Toronto School Bands, an organization of 45 boys and girls. In all three places, he has been organizer and choirmaster of local churches.

Mr. Cox is married and intends bringing his wife and family of a daughter and two sons to Petrolia in July.

—Petrolia Advertiser-Topic—

Percie Cox has been choir master at Georgetown United Church for the past year. Although not a resident of Georgetown he has made many friends here through his work with the choir, and while congratulating him on this splendid position, he will be greatly missed in his duties at the church here.
