HOLSTEIN COWS

WILL TAKE WINDOW CHAIRS

Mr. G. W. Brook, of St. Paul, Norval, St. Stephen's, Barry and St. John's, Stewarttown, is leaving shortly for his new charge at Windermere, and Mrs. Brook has made many friends in the district who will be sorry to see him leave, but wish them health and happiness in their home in the Niagara Peninsula.

MARRIED BY REV. E. MACDONALD

This marriage is announced of Miss Louise, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James O. Young, of Brampton, to William Edward Townsend, of Norval. Rev. Ewen Macdonald, of Swainsville, and formerly of Norval, officiating at the wedding on August 17.

"My advice to you, Colonel, is to go through the movements of driving without using the ball," said the golf instructor.

"My dear fellow," answered the Colonel, "that's precisely the trouble I'm wanting to overcome!"

MANY TOWNS HAVE EARLY CLOSING BY-LAW

We have been asked by local business men to pioneer the idea of an early closing by-law for Georgetown. As we can't help but be in favor of a by-law of this type, we ask the business men and council of our town to give it some thought. An early closing by-law for Wednesday and Saturday nights would give our business men a chance to enjoy a couple more leisure hours of which they are now deprived each week. A by-law providing that all stores close by 11 p.m. would be a step forward in local business. Many towns of this size which have adopted early closing find that it works out well. Shoppers could easily do their shopping an hour or two earlier and give the clerks and storekeepers the privilege of closing early instead of having to keep open as long as there are people about the streets - which is often 12:30 or 1 o'clock on a Saturday night. It might even increase our church attendance somewhat. Serious thought should be given to this by merchants in general and by the town fathers.

ANOTHER'S POINT OF VIEW

Since our article last week on two-year terms for municipal councils, we note the following in the Orangeville Banner, which explains our case very well: "It is doubtful if the average elector is in favor of the two year term. He has long been accustomed to annual elections and is likely to be of the opinion that a year is quite long enough to keep a poor council in office. The Local Government Extension Act looks like a bit of officious and unnecessary legislation. Everything it seeks to do can be done under the existing system. The plea that it is designed to cut down expenses is not very convincing."

Assessment Equalization Still Bothers County Council

At the last meeting of County Council in Milton, the chief subject under discussion was again the proposed change in the equalization of the assessment.

Opening the debate, a communication was read from the Department of Municipal Affairs, stating in part: "I am not clear as to just what the Council proposes to do. I would, however, point out that under Section 212 of the Assessment Act the Council may appoint valuers to make an equalization of the County. Power is given to a County Council to appoint an Assessor, whose duty it is to work with the local Assessors, in an endeavour to bring about an equalization."

Opinion on the subject varied, some councillors expressing themselves in favour of a new equalization next year, while others were dubious as to the merits of a revision.

Replying to a statement that some assessments are too high, Reeve Harold Cleave, of Guelph, stated that this was a matter for the local assessor.

"If a man thinks he is assessed too high and does not appeal, that is his fault," said Mr. Cleave. "We should remember that County assessment has no bearing on local assessment."

The discussion ended, with each member of the Council being requested to discuss that matter with his own Council.

A letter from the Department of Agriculture drew the attention of the Council to the fact that a deduction of 50c per head by the farmers, was still being made as a protection against T.B. cattle, even on cattle coming from restricted areas. The letter advised that delegates be appointed to attend a meeting of the Live Stock Branch of Agriculture and the "Payers" Committee, where the matter will be thoroughly gone into.

Moved by Mr. Gilbert, seconded by Mr. Robertson, that the Chairman of the Agricultural Committee be a delegate at a meeting to be called by the Live Stock Branch. - Carried.

Other resolutions passed were as follows:

Moved by Mr. Evans, seconded by Mr. Hunt, that the following accounts be paid:

Finance	$27.27
High School	22.25
County Buildings	100.00
Printing	12.00

MARRIED TO AGAIN HOLD SYMPHONY AT FALL FAIR

The boys' show at the fall fair is always a feature attraction, and this year's show will be no exception. Inspector Met. Gault, of the Toronto Police Force, and an "old Georgetown" boy, is the son of the parade and himself tries to take a hand in the judging. The contest last year drew one of the largest fields of competitors of any show - and a large crowd of spectators, too. It is said that some heavy show operators have been noted as "insiders" rather than contestants, and that they are the most critical audience in the world. Last year little Bobby Hill of Glen Williams took the sweepstakes. Who will be the lucky boy this year?
