

AIRMEN FROM DOWN UNDER SEND GREETINGS HOME

When the first flight of the Royal Australian Air Force recently arrived at a Western Canadian port the CBC had microphones aboard ship to cover their arrival. In this picture CFC observer Jack Pesch is interviewing a group of boys known as "The Mascoters", getting greetings for friends and relatives at home. Later they broadcast a sing-song featuring popular Australian tunes. This group of embryo airmen is the first to arrive from Australia for further training under the Empire Air Training Scheme.

G.H.S. COLUMN

By Agnes Reid

Flash: The G.H.S. meet went off like a shot from a gun. Last Wednesday was a sunny day with an occasional chilly breeze but this did not hinder the pupils from demonstrating their best form in the events.

Speaking Aside: Mary Cummins had achieved her ambition on field day. During the week she had tried for 29 ft. in the hop, step and jump and on field day she went over the mark.

We onlookers on field day were amazed at the ease in which the performers went over the top. Keep up the good work, for practice makes perfect.

In a discussion during composition period in Form III, the pupils expressed their desire for the school, and we wish to form a Literary Society. Who will be our leader?

Owing to the preparations for the field meet there was no rugby last week.

The goals and nets for the basketball have arrived and we hope we shall soon see some games.

Latest addition to our equipment is a balance beam. This will help out the indoor exercises by providing variety of equipment.

WARM IN WINTER COOL IN SUMMER

FUEL BILLS ARE UP... SAVE BY INSULATING WITH RED TOP INSULATING WOOL

Fuel is costing more now under these abnormal conditions, and it's a smart man that finds ways and means to cut down on the amount of fuel it takes to keep his house comfortable.

When you insulate with Red Top Insulating Wool you ensure even heat both upstairs and down, eliminate draughts, and make definite savings on fuel bills because it's easier to keep the house warm and snug.

By the same token, the house keeps cool in summer, when the heat of the sun is kept out by insulation just as surely as the heat is kept in by it in the winter time.

Enjoy the comfort and savings of RED TOP Insulating WOOL.

A Treat for the Boys at Lansdowne Barracks

It was a big night for the boys at Lansdowne Barracks, Toronto, last night, when a program of singing, dancing, comedy and music was presented by an array of guest artists. Not that entertainments like this are unusual, for seldom a week goes by that the big concert hall isn't filled with an enthusiastic audience. But last night, the feature attraction was of special interest to the Georgetown veterans, and there are many of them, who are once more seeing service with the Canadian forces. Mrs. Katherine Preston, was there to sing two songs written by her mother, Mrs. Beth Loud, and Mrs. Dorothy Swan, back in 1915. Very appropriate songs too, for these days.

"We'll give our foes the rout and turn the bounders out And we'll march right into Berlin in the Spring."

The audience took up the chorus and sent it echoing through the hall. It was Georgetown's night, and we venture to say that "Loyal Canadians" and "When we march into Berlin" will be sung and whistled for many a day around the Barracks. Two copies, autographed by Mrs. Preston, have been added to the regimental records. By kind permission of Mrs. Beth Loud, we are reprinting the stirring words of the songs:

LOYAL CANADIANS

The loyal Sons of Canada, when called upon to fight,
To show a nation's might, and defend a nation's right
Her sons of toil, and sons of soil, her manhood brave and strong.

Rose up a valiant army to right a nation's wrong;
Rose up a valiant army to right a nation's wrong.

[Chorus]

Sons of the Empire were they,—and fought for the Red, White and Blue, Sons of the Maple proved they were able splendid things to do,—
Eager to enter the fray,—to answer their country's call,
Ev'rybody knows the Maple to the Rose is the truest friend of all.

The loyal Sons of Canada, have won their country's fame,
Have made themselves a name, are enroll'd in tongues
of flame
Our flag unfurled, shall rule the world, and peace and freedom reign,
Which the loyal sons of Britain would die to still maintain
Which the loyal sons of Britain would die to still maintain.

When We March Into Berlin

We'll fight, boys, fight, for Freedom, Justice, Right.
Teach our foes we mean to hold our own,
We'll fight unto the end, our loved ones to defend,
For our Country and our King upon his throne.
For the liberty we prize, and have lauded to the skies,
We're forced to take up arms, our peace to win.
We'll put our foes to rout and turn the bounders out.
And drive them back to Berlin in the Spring.

[Chorus]

So come, boys, come, and join the Army,
You'll be proud you're fighting for the King,
We'll give our foes the rout and turn the
bounders out,
And we'll march right into Berlin in the Spring.

We'll fight, boys, fight, with British pluck and might,
Give our foes the lesson they must learn,
That with Britons they can't play or they will rue the day.

For we'll give them all the licking that they earn,
England calls on me and you, our duty now to do,
To quit ourselves like men, as in the past;
All honour we will bring to our Country and our King,
That the Glory of our Empire ne'er may pass.

JOHNNY EMMERSON FINISHES EIGHTH IN GUELPH TEN-MILE RACE

Johnny Emerson, lone Georgetown entrant in the ten-mile cross country run at Guelph last Monday, finished in eighth place. This was one of the events in Guelph's annual Thanksgiving Day road races which attracted feet-footed stars from Toronto, Kitchener, Hamilton, Niagara Falls, Oakville and Preston to test their skills.

A feature of interest next Saturday will be the visit of twenty-five members of Toronto's Gladstone A.C. joined by their Georgetown pals, Johnny and James Emerson and Bill Collier, they will run from Georgetown to Toronto, leaving from the park about 2:30 p.m. This reverses last year's procedure of the Club, when they featured a run from Toronto to Georgetown.
