NORVAL RIFLE CLUB

(Last week)
The shooting last night was very fair considering that the three high scorers in the season's aggregate were handicapped by having to shoot on the 20 yard target at 25 yards. The three members were Messrs. Atkinson, Nurse and Meredith, and the visibility was not so good as on the 25 yard target. The scores are as follows:—Meredith 100 x 9; Wilson 100 x 10; Robertson 98 x 8; R. W. Hall 98 x 5; Lusk 97 x 5; Hustler 96 x 1; Norma Hall 85 x 3; Griffin 85 x 2; Mary Crozier 83 x 2; Atkinson 97 x 7.

120 AT TEACHERS' CONVENTION IN ACTON

JUNE FRANK AND EIGHT PUBLIC SCHOOL GIRLS GIVE MUSIC DEMONSTRATION

Halton County Teachers' Convention this year had a change of program that proved so helpful and popular that it was decided to continue the plan at the next convention. On Thursday teachers in Esqueping rural schools met at Stewartstown; those from Nasagaweya met at S.E. No. 9; Nelson teachers met at Fisher's Corners school; and Trafalgar teachers assembled at Linbrook. Teachers of urban schools met at Burlington.

The morning at each centre was spent in teaching and observing. In the afternoon there were discussions on the general methods.

Friday's sessions were held in Acton, at Knox Church. Devotional exercises were taken by Rev. H. L. Bennie and Reeve J. B. Chalmer and Dr. A. J. Buchanan, Chairman of the School Board, and Miss M. Z. Bennett, former Principal of Acton School, gave addresses of welcome.

Over 120 answered the roll call on Friday morning and following routine business, Inspector Skuce conducted an interesting half hour at which he pointed out that the most important things were not that there were 25,000 teachers and 700,000 school children and the annual cost of education in the Province was $4,000,000. The important thing was how we are moulding the lives of these coming citizens to make this a better world.

Another interesting address was given by Mr. J. Buchanan, B.S.A., of the O.A.C. Guelph. His subject was "Famous Bells." The address was illustrated. A former Inspector, Mr. J. M. Denyes, was present and addressed the Convention.

During the dinner hour the ladies of Knox and the United Churches served dinner at the United Church. Two very interesting reports of the O.E.A. were given at the afternoon session. Miss June Frank, of Georgetown, gave a music demonstration, assisted by eight girls from the Georgetown School. Mr. G. McKenzie, Acton, gave an interesting review of features he had noted.

DOMINION STORES ARE OF AGE

Dominion Stores Limited officially attains its 'majority' this month, having been founded just 21 years ago. Beginning with a small group of stores in Toronto, Dominion has grown into a chain of 337 outlets, from Windsor, Ont., to Sydney, Nova Scotia.

The Anniversary finds the company engaged in a far-reaching store renovation program, involving modernization of stores, equipment and merchandising methods, to increase still further the company's usefulness in communities which it serves.

A decentralization policy, giving greater responsibility to District Managers, has been successfully developed during the past year. This policy assists the communities where stores are located by still further increasing Dominion Stores' purchasing in the neighborhood and by catering more efficiently to the community's special requirements.

LEGION - SPEAKER TO EXPLAIN FUNCTIONS OF NAZI PROPAGANDA

"Lord Haw Haw" and "Sinister Sam," Britain's nick-names for two of Dr. Goebbels' notorious radio propagandists, will be the basis of the Sunday, November 3, broadcast of "The Legion Views the War" to be heard over the national network of the CBC from 7.50 to 8.00 p.m. EDT.

The speaker, who will represent the Canadian Legion which is presenting the new commentaries every fortnight, will explain the radio methods by the Nazis in an attempt to undermine the morale of the British people and break the confidence of other countries in Britain's ability to win the war.

WORSE AND WORSE

The Governor of the State one day appeared before the convicts at the State prison to make a speech. Forgetting his audience, he began in the usual manner:

"Fellow citizens — a murmur of laughter ran about the hall. The Governor became confused, and began:

"Fellow convicts —" The laughter increased. "Oh, you know what I mean, he stammered. "I mean I'm glad to see so many of you here." Up-roar.

Thymol, a substance allied to phenol (carbolic), but with 25 times the antiseptic strength of the latter, is strongly advocated as a gargle and mouth wash in the prevention of raw sore throats and of tartar of the teeth in persons subject to these ailments.

In every mouth left undisturbed for some hours—for example during sleep—a varying amount of white substance grows on the tongue and other mouth surfaces and accumulates around the teeth. This consists of a threadlike plant called lepto-thrix, in the meshes of which may be numerous germs and cells. This plant, if not removed, will grow rapidly and form a hard tartar on the teeth which can be removed only by a dentist's sharp instrument. Such removal is necessary otherwise the teeth and gums will suffer.

People otherwise meticulously clean in their habits habitually neglect their teeth; the brush, used in a perfunctory way, is allowed to become filthy and possibly does more harm than good.

Many persons are continually troubled with a raw sore throat, aggravated in some cases by smoking particularly if cigarettes are used; in these individuals a systematic use of a saturated solution of thymol in water as a mouthwash and gargle, is a most effectual preventive.

News from the North

Once again the CBC announces its Northern Messenger. For the seventh successive winter, this friendly broadcast to the men and women of the Northland will carry a weekly budget of news of the home folk, family gossip and good cheer. The 1940-41 series, with Sydney Brown at the microphone as in years gone by, commences Friday, November 8 at 12.00 midnight and on each subsequent Friday night at the midnight hour, until the land of the midnight sun feels the warmth of a kinder '90, six months hence.

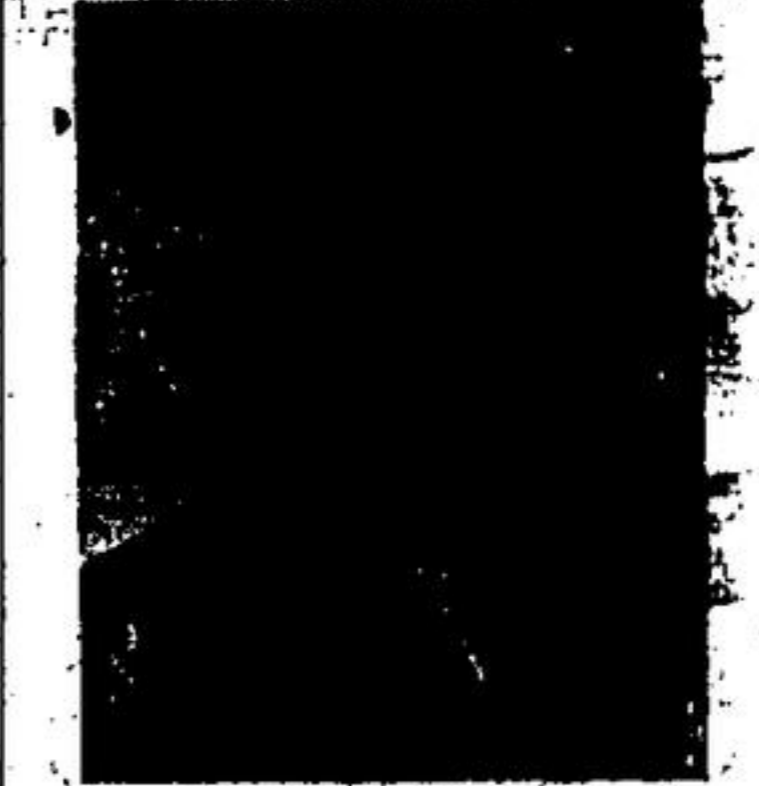

This year more than ever before, the lads and lasses of the outposts will want that close touch with home and for this reason CBC is advising all those with friends and relatives up on the rim of the Arctic to hurry their messages so that they may be in time for the opening broadcasts. All messages are to be addressed to: The Canadian Broadcasting Corporation, 53 York Street, Toronto, Canada, marked: "Northern Messenger."

Brookington on War Effort
Leonard W. Brookington, K.C., LL.D., one of Canada's leading barristers and likewise one of her most brilliant speakers, will address the audience of the CBC National Network on Wednesday, November 6 at 11.30 to 12.00 midnight EDT. Mr. Brookington, who recently stirred an international audience with his speech before the American Bar Association, will devote his remarks to "Canada's War Effort," what has been done and what is to be done as the Dominion plays an increasingly important role in the fight against barbarism. A rebroadcast of Mr. Brookington's talk will be presented to the stations of the CBC Eastern Network the following day, Thursday, November 7, at 7.30 to 8.00 p.m. EDT.

"Payload"
The CBC Drama Department announces the presentation from the Montreal studios, under the supervision of Rupert Lucas, of "Payload," a story in prose and blank verse of the striking development of Canada's North West. The script, an original work for radio, deals with the romance of aviation in a rich, vital young country and a treasure from its soil which is proving a boon to mankind. The authors are Margaret Kennedy and Sheila Murray of Winnipeg, and it will be presented with a special orchestral score by another Winnipeg artist, Barbara Pentland. "Payload" will be presented to the National Network Friday, November 8 at 9.00 to 10.00 p.m. EDT.

Berlin Correspondent
One of the youngest American newspaper writers to achieve outstanding success as a war correspondent is to be the next speaker on the series "Let's Face the Facts." He is Richard O. Boyer, one of "P.M.'s" shining lights. Mr. Boyer was born in Chicago 33 years ago, and commenced his newspaper career when he was 18. This past summer he spent several months in Germany and now, home again, he is telling what he thinks of Hitlerland.
He has already completed a brilliant analysis of conditions as he saw them, and his findings were carried by "P.M." in a series of 11 articles. He is accepting the invitation of the Director of Public Information to take part in the Department's important series of broadcasts which has been given weekly since July. He will be heard on Sunday, November 3 at 8.30 to 9.00 p.m. EDT.
When Boyer was 25 he won the American Mercury award for the best essay on American journalism and his articles have appeared in various year books ever since.

Canadian Book Week
Professor J. F. MacDonald, who for several seasons conducted the CBC

Rupert Lucas, Supervisor of Drama for the CBC, will be in charge of production of "Payload," a special documentary drama to be presented on Friday, November 8 at 9.00 p.m. EDT. This drama, written in prose and blank verse, will trace the development of Canada's North West. It was written by Margaret Kennedy and Anne Marriott, with a special musical score by Barbara Pentland, all of Winnipeg.

Book Review from the Toronto studios, is to make one of his welcome appearances before the microphone. He will talk about Canadian Book Week in a broadcast scheduled for Friday, November 8 at 7.45 p.m. EDT. Professor MacDonald, who is a member of the Department of English, University of Toronto, will review a number of outstanding Canadian books during his broadcast.

Let's Go —
Don't forget: "Let's Go to the Music Hall" is now scheduled Mondays at 8.00 to 8.30 p.m. EDT. Commencing November 4, The Old Chairman will introduce his cast with elegance and embellishments from the stage of the CBC Playhouse at the Ward Price Galleries in Toronto. Each Monday night an invited audience will join in the songs of the 'alls and applaud the stellar performances of such gifted impressionists as George Patton, Ed Newman, Pat Patterson, Yvonne Miller, Tom Hamilton, Frank Oldfield and the supporting cast. The programme is produced by George Temple and the music is under the direction of Simeon Joyce.

CANADIAN LEGION WILL NOT FORGET FALLEN COMRADES

Canada's soldier dead will be honoured by the nation on Remembrance Day, November 11, as a result of a decision by the Secretary of State to proclaim the day a statutory holiday as usual.

An appeal to all citizens to participate in the ceremonies that will be held throughout the country, is made by Alex Walker, of Calgary, Dominion president of the Canadian Legion, who announced that provincial commands and branches of the Legion have been instructed to make plans suitable to local conditions.

In spite of modified arrangements, necessitated because of the war, it is expected that thousands of citizens everywhere, and ex-service men including local detachments of the Veterans' Guard of Canada, will take part in the ceremonies.

CANADA TURNS OUT MORE PLANES

With each month, the humming wheels of the Canadian aircraft industry reach a higher tempo in their song of promised victory. In this photograph a technician is shown at his station in a large factory where a considerable number of these machines are being made in Canada for both British and Canadian use.
