Who little countries — who could know their fate?
 Neville went to Munich, and then there were eight;
 Eight little countries praying hard to heaven,
 Poland answered "No Sir!" and then there were seven;
 Seven little countries in a fearsome fix;
 Hitler "rescued" Denmark and then there were six;
 Six little countries sitting on a hive,
 Traitors in Norway, and then there were five;
 Five little countries all abhorring war,
 Luxembourg was easy — then there were four;
 Four little countries, one beyond the sea;
 Tulip time in Holland — then there were three;
 Three little countries feeling very blue;
 Belgium said "Hell Hitler!"—then there were two;
 Two little countries standing by the gun;
 France disillusioned — then there was one;
 One little country standing all alone;
 Bulldog vs Dachshund—who'll get the bone?

W.C.T.U. Meet at Home of Mrs. A. R. Speight

(By the Press Secretary)
 The November meeting of the W.C.T.U. was held at the home of Mrs. A. Speight, Thursday afternoon last, Mrs. R. H. Wright, presiding.

Mrs. A. Reeve led the devotional period taking as the subject of study Psalm 42 and 43, a comparison of which reveals them to be one in thought, the outpouring of the psalmist's troubled soul in a time when he was fighting "the good fight of faith," as Depression and Doubt assailed him. Hope and Faith and he cries: "O send out Thy light and Thy truth, let them lead me, let them bring me to Thy holy hill and Thy tabernacles."

The psalm ends with the three-repeated refrain "Why art Thou cast down, O my soul, and why art Thou disquieted within me? Hope in God, for I shall yet praise Him who is the health of my countenance, and my God." The comforting thought of this so needed message for these stormy days, was again heard in the beautiful vocal solo rendered by Miss King, whom we are so pleased to welcome to our community and whose earnest and choir leader of the United Church have already won for her a happy place in our midst.

Mr. J. D. Kelly representing the National War Savings Committee, briefly addressed the Union women, urging us to the imperative need of giving our government, which has the great responsibility of carrying on a colossal and, probably, a long war. We must not fail to recognize the fact that this is a world war, and that the distance between this continent and Russia is a bare fifty miles.

One of several suggestions left with us by Mr. Kelly was that we, this Christmas, make gifts of War Savings certificates which the patriotic receiver, could use for lighting fires.

Mrs. C. B. Dayfoot, the press secretary, in reporting progress of plans for the office of the Prime Minister, of the Minister of National War Services and of the Member for Halton County, in acknowledgment of the Union's communication in support of the war-time restriction of liquor sale as requested by the delegation of church and temperance leaders who were received by the government in July last.

In response to the request of Mrs. H. Bird, superintendent of Temperance Education in Sunday Schools, the meeting appointed to mark the papers in the annual Temperance Study Course, two judges, Mrs. H. Wrigglesworth and Miss June Frank.

Mrs. A. R. Vannatter was chosen as the Union's representative to the Local Council of Women to fill the place left vacant by Mrs. R. H. Wright's election to the presidency.

Mrs. A. Reeve, who represents the W.C.T.U. on the Soldiers' Comforts Committee, reported that thirty Christmas boxes for the boys overseas had recently been mailed. It was decided to take a special collection at the December meeting as a Christmas donation to the Soldiers' Comforts funds. Members please keep this in mind.

The December meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. F. C. Overend.

G.H.S. COLUMN

By Agnes Reid

We are back to school after a glorious week-end (if we can forget the rain and storm). Without further ado we shall go on with the news.

Remember the Oedip party on Friday 15th at 8 o'clock sharp. A good time is assured everyone; so come one, come all.

Everyone who would like to have the students go down to the Toronto Museum, could help us greatly by taking cars. The pupils are quite willing to pay for the gasoline. The day set is Thursday, Nov. 14th, or the week after.

Another plea for lockers. Some articles have disappeared so mysteriously.

Oakville 6 — G.H.S. 6

The game was rather late in starting but when it did start it proved to be very interesting. The two teams were very evenly matched. The Georgetown squad were leading in the play for the first half and during the last quarter. The Oakville squad led in the third quarter. During this third quarter the Oakville team scored their try, and converted it.

Oakville kicked off. Bob Early made a quarter-back sneak which completely baffled the Oakville squad. Larry MacKenzie made several brilliant plunges for many yards. The Georgetown squad would advance down the field only to be halted by their fighting opponents. Bob Early was injured in this quarter.

The second stanza was featured by plunges by MacKenzie and varied plays by Allingham. Allingham kicked, plunged and passed and was a four-star man.

In the third quarter the Oakville men seemed to take new heart and fought their way down the field through a faltering Georgetown defence. The Oakville kicker got away the only to be halted by the Oakville kicker who recovered the bounding ball. A pass and then a plunge secured them their try. The Oakville kicker promptly kicked a placement over the base for the convert.

The fourth quarter was very even in play until the last few minutes. A trick play netted the Georgetown squad a large gain. This was a quick pass to Allingham. Two more fast passes through by Allingham advanced the squad dangerously near to Oakville's line. Just then Mr. Lambert, the timekeeper shouted "time" and the game ended. If only that spurt had started sooner. We were within one play of a try for the old squad.

The Georgetown line played a sound defensive game and the whole backfield turned in star performances. Georgetown line-up—Quarter, R. Early; halves, Allingham, Carter, Ruddle, Bowman; snap, Dolson; insides, MacKenzie, Clark; middles, Arnold, Lambert; ends, Perry, Sargent; substitutes, Cliberton, D. Early, B. Kelly, Cook, Keir.

Fat Man: "What! Are you going to let this small boy shave me?"
 Barber: "Let the boy have his fun for once, sir. It's his birthday."

 The Georgetown Herald
 Georgetown, Ont.

Dear Sir:
 I wish to express my thanks for the Herald which you so kindly send me each week.

One appreciates receiving the news of Georgetown when away from one's home town.

We are kept very busy at school, having night classes as well as day classes. The school was inspected on Monday by Hon. Mr. Hoppel, Minister of Labour and Sir Howard D. Egville, of London England. Sir Howard D. Egville congratulated the school on the work it is doing.

Yours sincerely,
 Fred Armstrong, 782

Georgetown, Nov. 11th, 1940

To the Editor,
 Georgetown Herald.

Dear Mr. Editor:
 We note with interest your editorial of week ago on advertisement published in your issue of Oct. 23rd.

We are asking you in the interests of accuracy to permit us to correct your misquotation of our figures.

We stated that the amount of money spent in Canada last year for legal ly sold intoxicants was 180 million dollars. You quoted this as 106 million, a difference of 72 million, too large a sum to be ignored.

In reply to your statement that we are reasoning faultily when we claim that this liquor expenditure is a total waste, we must plead the fact that we have taken as reliable the statements of several of the most eminent economists who have written on this subject. To quote just one, Sir Ronald Wilberforce Allen, London, Eng.: "What really interests business men is not the gross revenue but the men in the street. All thinking men and women realize that the legalized liquor traffic involves definite moral and material damage to the national life. This has to be repaired and the cost of this must, in all fairness be written off against the gross revenue. When ten of all this damage is computed there is certainly no NET revenue from the drink trade."

We recommend to your attention, Mr. Editor, Viscount Snowden's booklet "End This Colossal Waste," to which we have more than once referred and which was placed some time ago in the Georgetown Public Library by our organization.

On behalf of Halton County W.C.T.U.

(Mrs. C. B.) Catherine Dayfoot,
 Press Secretary.

Camp Borden, Nov. 10th, 1940.
 Editor Georgetown Herald,
 Georgetown, Ontario.

Dear Sir:
 This is to notify your office that I have received your most welcomed Herald, which I greatly appreciate. The first town I arrived in with my wife and daughter when we came out from Scotland was Georgetown, and I took up and made my home in Limehouse where my sister, Mrs. A. W. Noron still lives. I served many years with the local regiment, the Halton Rifles under the command of Col. Brown and Col. Peddle, and I received my long service medal for 21 years service from Major Cousins. I know these officers are known to you, as many more of my old comrades such as C.S.M. Henry Shepherd, R.Q.M.S. George Alcott, Capt. Cummings, W.O. Class I with the Halton Rifles. I got to know the men throughout the County of Halton and while at Camp Borden I have met many of the old Halton Rifles serving with other units.

I certainly appreciate you sending me the Herald for it is just like being at home again and I wish to thank my niece, Mrs. Les Campbell, of Limehouse, for getting in touch with you to make the necessary arrangement. It is just the same this war as the last war—when you get a paper from home you feel at home.

Wishing yourself and staff the best of health and luck to carry on the good work, and thanking you
 Yours sincerely,
 11319 Sgt. A. Trotter,
 Perth Regt. (M.G.) C.A.S.F.,
 Camp Borden, Ontario.

The clever boxer, who knew practically every trick of the game, finally met his match. In the third round he found himself flat on his back listening to the referee count over him. "One" roared the referee, "two" three—four—five—six—seven. The fighter on the canvas reached up and grabbed the referee's wrist. "I'm a little hard of hearing," he interrupted. "Would you mind repeating that?"

STEWARTTOWN

Mrs. Geo. Andrew (formerly Janet Hawley) of Lockport, and Elsie Bob Andrew, of Lisle, were visitors at Mrs. Tracy's Sunday afternoon.

Gunner Dave Hodge and Mrs. Hodge spent the week end with Mr. and Mrs. W. Hodge.

Private Tom Dickson was home over the week end.

Monday being Remembrance Day, the children had a holiday from school.

During the wind storm Monday evening the lights went off for a few minutes.

ASHGROVE

Mrs. Earl Wilson and Mrs. P. D. Hartley, Milton, were hostesses for the W.M.S. November meeting on Tuesday last. Mrs. W. Brownridge was in the chair and after the regular routine of opening exercises and business matters were dealt with Mrs. Totten took charge of the devotional exercises. Mrs. Bellbody gave a very interesting life sketch of Miss Minnie Shipley, who had been a missionary in Honan China. Piano duets by Mrs. Totten and Mrs. P. Wilson were much enjoyed. Mrs. F. Wrigglesworth read an article on temperance and Mrs. James Barze closed this part of the meeting with prayer.

An interesting feature of the afternoon took place when ex-members of the Senior Girls' Sunday School Class and their ex-teacher, Mrs. Earl Wilson, presented Miss L. Reed with an autographed Bible.

At the close of the W.M.S. meeting Mrs. A. J. Ruddell, president of the W. A. took charge and plans were made and committees formed to arrange for the bazaars to be held early in December.

A vote of thanks was extended to Mrs. Earl Wilson and Mrs. Hartley for their kind hospitality after which Mrs. Wilson assisted by Mrs. Brownridge and Mrs. Anderson served a dainty lunch.

Mrs. Cecil Wilson, Baby Band superintendent, attended a special service of the Georgetown United Church Baby Band on Tuesday, November 5.
