The same old story!
 "It is a difficult task to get citizens hockey-minded before ice is formed at the Arena."—Herald, Nov. 22, 1939.
 But at this time last year, a meeting had at least been held, and officers elected. We'll have to get busy.

Local fans will be sorry to hear that President Nathan Silver will not be heading the executive this year. Nate was one of the chief boosters and he will be missed.

The Georgetown "Bod-Busters," 12 steadfast, erstwhile and would-be bowlers descended on Toronto the Good last Monday night for a match with a number of Torontoans. Sparked by ringer W. G. Bell, the aggregation included Howard Lillo, J. J. Gibbens, Harold and Perc Cleave, Harvey King, Gook, Clark, Jim Richardson, Tom Farnam, Walt Biehn, Art Reeve and Sam Thompson. Georgetown was edged out by a few hundred points, and the triumphant Torontoites entertained afterwards with coffee, sandwiches and... A return curling match is promised this winter.

Amidst a series of rumours from Acon comes the latest, that the rink will be flooded as usual, with the local militia confining itself to the curling rink.
 Two more successful hunters! Bill McDowell and Harold McChure each returned from a successful hunting expedition bringing Georgetown's deer bag to three. Harold, Bill Grant and Chief Marshall are warm in their praise of the McChure meal, and rumour has it that G.W. will shortly issue a book of tasty recipes.

FORMER GEORGETOWN LADY BURIED YESTERDAY

Mrs. J. P. Bell, well-known Hamilton church and welfare worker, and a former resident of Georgetown, died at her home, 178 Chedoke Ave., on Sunday, November 17th. She had been in failing health, but her death was unexpected. Born Rosalind Alice Boulbee, in Harrison 68 years ago, Mrs. Bell was the daughter of the late Rev. Arthur Boulbee and Mrs. Boulbee, and she attended Mrs. Neville's School in Toronto. Mr. Boulbee was afterwards rector at Georgetown, Cayuga, Waterdown, Kitchener and Brantford. She is survived by her husband, J. P. Bell, a former manager of the Bank of Hamilton in Georgetown and Church warden at St. George's Anglican Church, who recently retired as manager-in-chief for the Canadian Bank of Commerce in Hamilton. Mrs. Bell was a member of Christ's Church Cathedral, Women's Auxiliary and Cradle Roll, an active worker in the Babies' Dispensary Guild, and past treasurer of the Aged Women's Home. On Saturday afternoon, her daughter Alice Madeleine Bell, was married in Christ's Church Cathedral to Hugh Douglas Robertson, Hamilton, and the couple returned home after the sad news reached them on their wedding trip. She is also survived by two other daughters, Lady Aylmer of Westmount, P.Q., and Mrs. H. P. Lazier, Hamilton, and two sons, Alan S. Bell, Hamilton, and Captain John Turner Bell, serving in England with a Central Ontario regiment. A brother, Ernest B. Boulbee, lives in Victoria, B.C. The funeral service was held in Christ's Church Cathedral yesterday, with burial in Hamilton Cemetery.

STEWARTTOWN

Mrs. Baily and Miss Frances Jenkinson attended the Hamilton Deansery Sunday School Convention at Burlington Tuesday evening of last week.

The W.I. meeting was held on Tuesday at Mrs. Walter Lawson's home with a good attendance. Mrs. John Murray presided in the absence of Mrs. Lawson. The meeting opened in the usual manner with the members repeating the Institute Ode and prayer. Mrs. H. P. Lawson read the minutes, Mrs. H. Graham gave the financial report. Mrs. H. P. Lawson read "A tribute to the late Mr. Neville Chamberlain" and Mrs. Baily a paper "Patricio Dollars." Miss Frances Jenkinson, Julia DeVries and Donald Lawson favoured with piano solos. After closing the meeting with the National Anthem, lunch was served by the hostess.

Mr. Ken Harris and Mr. H. P. Lawson intended to Haliburton for a hunting trip over the week end. Mrs. B. Tennant, Mrs. K. Kidd and Bobby of Georgetown, were at the W. A. meeting Thursday afternoon, and visited in the village.
 Visiting at Mrs. Hunt's over the week end were Private S. Hunt, of Newmarket, and Aircraftsman Gilbert Hunt, of St. Thomas; also Mr. and Mrs. Trumble and family of Guelph.

NORVAL

The U.Y.P.S. of Mayfield were guests of the Norval U.Y.P.S. last Monday evening. Over sixty were present, and an excellent program was put on. Following the program was a series of really splendid games, into which all threw themselves wholeheartedly. Lunch was served. Mrs. Loree, of Bolton, has been visiting many of her old friends in Norval during the past week.

Miss Charlotte McPherson has returned to General Hospital, Toronto. This is most unfortunate, but we all sincerely hope that after this occasion Miss McPherson will come back to us in an improved condition and will continue to enjoy better health.

Mrs. J. Black, Mrs. Webster, and Miss Maguire all visited with Mr. John Gollop, in Toronto, last Tuesday, on the occasion of his birthday. A guest at the McPherson home on Wednesday, Nov. 20, was Mrs. Hambly, of Toronto.
 It is regretful and sad to know that Norval has been so unfortunate in losing one of its finest citizens, Mrs. J. Morgason, who passed away Tuesday morning at her home, town line, Norval. She had been a most active member of St. Paul's Anglican church and the W. A. Her contributions, suggestions, and genial fellowship will be missed by her many associates. Mrs. Morgason lived with her husband, Mr. J. Morgason, at Wainwright for eight years. Following this Mr. and Mrs. Morgason moved to Norval, where they have lived up until the present. Our highest respect and thoughts go to Mrs. Morgason at this time, and to Mr. Morgason our deepest sympathy in this his most sad loss.

GLEN WILLIAMS

Soldier boy's home for the week end included Ptes. Jim Bell, Clarence Winfield, Ralph Bludd, Irvine Hill, Ralph Crosswood, Gordon Allen and William Korzack.

About fifty members of the J.O.L. with Inez Scott as their W.C.L. together with their guardians, Mr. Fred Norton and Mrs. Roy Hills, had a very happy time at their party in the town hall on Thursday evening. Games, singing and dancing were enjoyed by the children and a bountiful lunch was served at the close of the enjoyable evening.

Many visitors from the village, Georgetown and Union, called at the Anglican parish hall on Tuesday afternoon and evening, to see the splendid display of work that had been completed by the local unit of the Red Cross during the past six weeks. A summary of the year's work, given at this meeting, shows that since Nov. 28, 1939, until September 30, 1940, twenty meetings had been held with an average attendance of eleven. Work completed and sent to the Cross Index of children's clothing: socks, 109 pairs; scarves, 14; wristlets, 19 pairs; handkerchiefs, 24; hospital gowns, 5; bandages, 437, 48 sling; bed sox, 12 pairs; icebag covers, 6; panties, 34 pairs; dresses, 9; slippers, 2 pair; quilts, 22; shirts, 12; slips, 33; boy's hats, 2; blankets, 2; donated 16, together with 85 lbs. of blankets and blanket ends; also a very large parcel of new clothing for refugees was forwarded in June. Articles on display included ten quilts, sweaters and sox for the soldiers and refugees, all kinds of children's clothing, 47 adult nightgowns, and a large number of knitted wooden blocks made by the boys and girls of the Public School.

Norval Juniors Meeting

The November meeting of the Norval Junior Institute and Junior Farmers was held at the home of Claude and Richard McLaughlin, on Tuesday, November 12th, with a large number in attendance.

The president, Charlotte Wilson, was in charge of the girls' meeting, which opened with the singing of the Institute Ode and the repetition of the Lord's Prayer in unison. The roll call was answered by "My Favourite Supper Dish."

The motto: "A Man's reach should exceed his grasp or what's a heaven for" was ably given by Betty Beld. An educational and humorous skit "Table Service and Mariners" was given by Isabel Whigglesworth, Betsy Fisher, Dorothy Gleave and Marion Dink. Isabel gave the explanations, while Betsy, Dorothy and Marion dramatized them. Amy Greenwood conducted a true and false contest, Charlotte McCullough being the winner.

The Junior Farmers' meeting opened with roll call, which was answered by "Hints on Preparing for Winter."

The minutes of the last meeting were read and on the motion of John Bird and Bruce Reid were adopted. Business was then brought before the meeting.

George Henderson and John Bird were appointed delegates to represent the Norval Junior Farmers at the conference for Junior Farmers on Conservation and Reforestation, to be held at Hamilton on Thursday, Nov. 28th. Angus McNabb gave a talk on "Parasites in Swine" which was followed by a quiz contest on "Things we didn't know in Grandpa's Day" by John Bird.

A very interesting, illustrated lecture was then given by Mr. Jack Arnott and Mr. Burns McLennan, of O.A.C. Guelph, on the care and keeping of bees. Questions were then asked and answered.

A joint meeting was afterwards held with the Junior Institute. Some business was discussed, and Harold McClure and Miss Elizabeth Reid conducted a contest.

The trip winners from achievement day, Miss Reta Fisher and Miss Charlotte Wilson then described their trip to Ottawa and Montreal, with the other trip winners of various counties. During this, they showed many snapshots of interesting scenes. A vote of thanks was given to the speakers of the evening. Lunch was served.

Find the Clue to...
WINTER COMFORT!

Want to learn how a number of your neighbors are enjoying heating comfort at its snugest—yet saving money on their fuel bills? Nature herself provided the "clue" to the "mystery" when she created Old Company's Anthracite. She made it the hardest of hard coals!
 Ages ago... when anthracite was born of earth pressures on buried vegetation... Nature bore down hardest at one spot—Pennsylvania's famous Panther Valley. Tremendous forces squeezed from Panther Valley Anthracite the soft spongy waste that has no fuel value. As a result, Old Company's Anthracite burns slowly... needs less attention. Because every ton is concentrated heat, fewer tons carry you through the heating season.
 The "solution" to your heating problem is simply this: Order your Old Company's Anthracite today.
