IN OUR MAIL BAG

Regina, November 7, 1940.

The Editor, Georgetown Herald, Georgetown.

Dear Sir: This letter is of necessity begun in a business-like manner. Never having had the chance to make your acquaintance, such procedure was taken. I wish to thank you for submitting to me a copy of your paper. It will enable me to keep in touch with some of the things left behind, so thank you again.

The two most interesting parts of your paper are the sporting section and the editorials; that is, in my opinion. A paper to my mind does not contain much human interest unless the publishers are unafraid to express their own views on current events. So keep up the good work.

Yours truly, Dave Orichion.

Georgetown, Ontario, November 19, 1940.

Dear Mr. Editor: The members of the Countess of Strathmore Chapter I.O.G.E. wish to advise the people of Georgetown and community that from this date on, Mr. Norman Snyder's truck will not be stationed on Main St. every Saturday afternoon for the purpose of receiving old magazines and newspapers, as previously announced. There has not been sufficient response to this weekly appeal to warrant continuing this practice.

However, you are asked to save your newspapers, magazines and metal until Spring, when we plan to have another "Salvage Drive" similar to the very successful one held this Fall. We wish to take this opportunity of thanking everyone who assisted us during the Drive; you, Mr. Editor, for your very helpful co-operation; the men who so kindly gave the use of their trucks and cars; the boys of the High School for their assistance, and all the citizens who saved the required articles for our collection.

The amount derived from the sale of these salvaged articles was very gratifying and is being used for patriotic purposes.

Thanking you again and trusting we may have the continued support of the people of Georgetown.

Yours truly, Isobel M. McDermid, Secretary Countess of Strathmore Chapter I.O.G.E.

Georgetown, Nov. 18, 1940
The Editor, Georgetown Herald.

We would very much appreciate your allowing us space in your valued paper to thank the citizens of Georgetown and surrounding districts for their wonderful support of our Poppy Day drive. We doubly appreciate their kindness in these times, when there are so many other calls, and are much encouraged by the fact that our collectors topped those of last year, showing a realization of the increasing need of our efforts. We wish also to thank all those taggers and other friends who helped to make the day a success.

To all the public we extend our sincere thanks and also to those named below who so generously subscribed to the fund.
