A GLANCE at the hockey groupings this year, would indicate a bumper season of hockey for this town. Five teams comprise the Junior section which will mean plenty of variety. Georgetown, Milton, Bolton, Brampton and Orangeville, while Intermediate Group 2 comprises Georgetown, Milton, Guelph (A), Ferme, Elora and Preston (A). The Junior team has not been entered as yet, but it will be before the closing date, and in all probability Georgetown will be grouped with Bolton and Orangeville, and possibly Milton.

ART BADLEY, of Elora, is convener of Group 2 Intermediate, meeting at Guelph; with G. R. Appleford, Burlington, convener of Group 3 Junior, meeting at Georgetown.

BRAMPTON, Orangeville, Bolton and Acton are out of Intermediate competition this year, which leaves a large territory from which players can be drawn. If local blizzards will be behind the club there is no reason why Georgetown should not have another winning team.

AFTER MUCH haggling, the Acton Hockey Club, threw up the sponge and decided to stay out of O.H.A. competition in all classes. This will probably be the first time the Thunder have not been left since their season was built.

WHILE PLAYING in an SPA game with Toronto Marlboros, last Saturday, Bob Goldham received injuries which will keep him out of hockey for some three or four weeks. Crashing into the boards, he had the ligaments in his shoulder badly torn. Marlboros were playing against Guelph Biltmore's, winning 7-5, when the unfortunate incident took place. We hope Bob will soon be on the line-up again.

"DALLY" BEAUMONT, who is attending North Toronto School, is trying hard to make the Aurora Junior "C" team, and has played in their SPA games.

ALEXANDER, SPENCE BIRDS PRIZE-WINNERS AT BRAMPTON SHOW

Brampton and Peel County Poultry Association held their thirtieth annual show recently in Brampton, and a fine turn out was on hand to see the many species of birds on exhibit.

W. J. Alexander, of Georgetown, won a special prize award for the best bird in the show, and another for the best cock. C. Spence, Georgetown, had the largest collection of any one variety while C. Spence, Jr. was noted as the youngest exhibitor at the show.

JUNIOR "C" MEETING IN GEORGETOWN

A meeting of officials representing the hockey clubs in Group Number 3 of the O.H.A. Junior "C" series was held at the McGibbon House in Georgetown last Thursday evening. Under the leadership of convener G. R. Appleford of Burlington, the meeting was called to discuss plans for the Group Number 3 Junior "C" series. Representatives were present from five clubs in the group — Georgetown, Milton, Burlington, Bolton and Orangeville.

President Eddie Coles, newly-elected president of the Georgetown Hockey Club, succeeding "Nate" Silver, who is now living in Toronto, represented the Georgetown club at the meeting.

A schedule was arranged for the season, each team to play four home games and four games away from home. O.H.A. referees will officiate at all games.

The first four teams will play off, the first and third and second and fourth teams being grouped in a two-game play-off, total goals to count. The first game will be played to ten minutes overtime if necessary, and the second will be played to a finish. The two teams meeting in the finals will play a best two-out-of-three final play-down.

SUCCESSFUL RED CROSS BENEFIT

On Tuesday, December 3rd, the ladies of the Red Cross work committee held a display of work in the Red Cross rooms in the Post Office. The goods on display represented the refugee clothing which had been made by local ladies during the past two months, as their quota for the national objective. The articles were arranged on tables around the sides of the room, and visitors were favourably impressed with both the quality and the quantity of the work turned out. At one end of the room a tea table with a beautiful bouquet of flowers in the middle, was provided over by Mrs. Henry Francis and Mrs. William Frank. The members of the work committee served tea to the visitors who, in spite of the bad weather, turned out in large numbers. A silver collection was taken and the sum of $28.00 was added to local Red Cross funds.

Goods on display which represented the quota asked for by national headquarters included:

- 5 layettes
- 20 dressing gowns (size 14)
- 60 ladies night gowns (size 18)
- 20 woollen dresses (size 16)
- 20 shirts (size 14)
- 25 knitted pullovers (size 14)
- 5 slips (size 16)
- 50 pr. boy's pants (8 yrs.)
- 40 pr. socks (2 yrs.)

Besides this number of extra articles made by Georgetown women included:

- 2 dressing gowns (size 14)
- 2 dresses (size 3)
- 3 cot quilts
- 1 dress (size 5)
- 1 coat and helmet (8 yrs.)
- 1 coat and 1 pr. mitts (7 yrs.)
- 4 windbreakers (size 8)
- 2 slips (4 yrs.)
- 5 skirts and pullovers, 1 tam (5 yrs.)
- 2 pullovers (1-4 yrs., 1-2 yrs.)
- 4 pillows slips
- 5 pr. mitts
- 1 pr. wristlets
- 11 pr. slippers
