HAPPY TIME CLUB ENJOYS SKATING PARTY

The Happy Time Club, composed of boys' seven to twelve years, met in St. George's Church basement on January 1st. Discipline drill instruction was given by Jim Kelly, and the rest of the evening was spent in games.

The sports committee arranged for a skating party, which took place on Saturday, January 4th, at Mr. Munz's farm. After a period of skating, hot soup and soda biscuits were enjoyed by the boys. Plans were made for the coming week, and these include an afternoon of winter sports which will be held at Oscar Lerch's farm next Saturday. Skating, tobogganing and sitting will make up the afternoon.

Princess Alice Presents Gown Worn by Queen

Presentation Made on Suggestion of Toronto Woman—Mrs. Crerar Accepts

Canada received as a present recently, the gown worn by Queen Elizabeth in the Senate Chamber, May 19, 1939. Princess Alice turned the gown over to the public archives where it will be on view. The gown is already well-known to Canadians because the Queen wore it when standing under the arch of the Peace Tower of the Parliament Buildings with the King as they posed for one of the best known pictures of the Royal tour. The dress was created by the Queen's famous London dress-maker, Norman Hartnell. He fashioned it of shimmering white satin, with a large crinoline skirt which, with the bodice is heavily encrusted with pearls, gold paillettes and sparkling diamantes. The whole garment was embroidered in a Persian pattern on a background of shiny gold lace and the court train is of the same gold and bejeweled embroidery. In presenting the dress to Canada on behalf of the Queen, Princess Alice described how the Queen asked her, when she was leaving Canada, if the princess would mind taking along an "extra box." The extra box turned out to be the one containing the gift. The gown was a favorite of the Queen's, the princess said, and she had parted with it "regretfully." At the same time, she wished to make the gift as "a lasting memento of her Canadian tour."

Princess Alice told of the Queen's affection for Canada and termed the gift "a mark of her appreciation and affection" for the Canadian people.

Second Gift

Mrs. T. A. Crerar, wife of the resources minister, accepted the dress on behalf of Prime Minister Mackenzie King. Mrs. Crerar said the gift would serve to remind her always of the happy days of the Queen's presence in our midst when her irresistible charm and radiant personality conquered the whole of Canada from ocean to ocean.

Welcoming Princess Alice at the ceremony of presentation in the public archives building, Hon. F. F. Casgrain, secretary of state, said, "In the absence of the prime minister, who is unable to attend, I deem it a great honor and privilege to welcome your royal highness."

"It is the second time since the visit of Her Majesty the Queen to this country that the Dominion has been favored with a gift from her," said Mr. Casgrain. "Last year the Queen most graciously presented to Canada the last letter that Wolfe wrote to his mother, two weeks before his victory and death on the Plains of Abraham, as well as the original portrait of Wolfe by the well-known American painter, Benjamin West."

Princess Alice, in presenting the gift mentioned the name of Miss Elizabeth M. DeLaford, of Toronto, whom she said was responsible for bringing the suggestion the gown might be presented to the people of Canada to the attention of the Queen.

YOUR INCOME TAX

HOW? WHEN? WHERE? WHO? HOW MUCH?

THIS YEAR, almost every man and woman in Canada will share the burden of paying for the war. A million new taxpayers will pay who never paid before. A personal budget payment plan is available to old taxpayers who are faced with substantially increased income taxes.

Canadians are asked to shoulder their share of the war effort cheerfully and willingly. By paying your income tax regularly, you help to speed the production of war material, and bring the day of victory closer. Figure out how much tax you will have to pay, and arrange to pay promptly when due.

Pay by instalments—the easy way—and save interest. Cut out this page and keep it for future reference.

WHO PAYS INCOME TAX?
If you are a single person without dependents, and your income in 1940 was more than $750.00 you pay general-income-tax.
If you are a married person without dependents, and your income in 1940 was more than $1500.00 you pay general-income-tax.
If you are a married person with children, you are allowed $400.00 exemption for each dependent child or grandchild, in addition to the $1500.00 exemption.

NOTE: In addition to the general-income-tax you pay National Defence Tax on your total income without any exemption if you are single and your income goes over $600 or if you are married and your income goes over $1,200.

HOW DO YOU PAY?
Your income tax may be paid in the following ways—

1. The Present Method: At least one-third of the tax to be paid by April 30th, the balance, with interest at 6% from April 30th, to be paid by August 31st. On any balance unpaid after August 31st, the interest rate will be 8%.
2. The Proposed Method: In 8 monthly instalments without interest. To take advantage of this new way of paying, the first instalment must be paid on or before January 31st. You must pay at least one-third of the estimated tax in four equal monthly instalments, in January, February, March and April, i.e. 1-12 of the estimated tax in each of the said 4 months. The remaining two-thirds must be paid in four equal monthly instalments in May, June, July and August, i.e. 1-8th of the estimated tax in each of the said 4 months. (This will be in the amended law.)
3. The Recommended Method: This method will not be found in the law but it is a simple method, namely, in eight equal monthly instalments, without interest, commencing in January.

To take advantage of the monthly payment plan without interest each payment must be made on or before the due date. Otherwise interest will be charged on the total balance remaining unpaid after April 30th.

EXAMPLE OF INSTALMENT PAYING WITHOUT INTEREST

If your estimated tax is $60.00 you pay one-third of the tax ($20.00) in four instalments ($5.00 each) and the remaining two-thirds ($40.00) in four instalments ($10.00 each). Your payments are therefore as follows:

On or Before Jan. 31	On or Before Feb. 28	On or Before Mar. 31	On or Before April 30
$5	$5	$5	$5
On or Before May 31	On or Before June 30	On or Before July 31	On or Before Aug. 31
$10	$10	$10	$10 = $40

However it is recommended that you pay your tax in eight equal monthly instalments of $7.50 each—$60.00.

Instalment Income Tax Remittance Forms are available at any post office, or any branch of any bank, or the office of the Inspector for your District, and their use will ensure accurate and proper allocation of your payment. However, you can send in your instalments by ordinary letter with your name and address plainly stated thereon, clearly indicating the division between Provincial and Dominion Tax payments.

HOW MUCH DO YOU PAY?

The general-income-tax is payable on your net income less exemptions. If you are single, your exemption is $750.00. Thus if your total income is $1,000.00 you must pay tax on $250.00. The exemption for a married person is $1,500.00 plus $400.00 for each dependent child or grandchild. Thus if you are a married man with two children and a total income of $2,600.00 your total exemptions are $1,500.00 plus $400.00 for each child, or $2,300.00 in all. So you pay tax on $300.00.

Payment: You may send a cheque, Post Office or Money Order in payment of income tax by mail, to the Inspector of Income Tax for the District in which you reside, made payable to the Receiver General of Canada. Write plainly, and give your name in full, so that mistakes in crediting may be avoided. Do not send money or postage stamps in envelopes.

RATES OF NATIONAL DEFENCE TAX

For a single person
2% on the total income if the income exceeds $200 and does not exceed $1,200.
3% on the total income if the income exceeds $1,200.

For a married person
2% on the total income if the income exceeds $1,200 with a tax credit of $4.00 for each dependent child or grandchild.

For 1940 the tax is on one-half of the income and the tax credit is $4.00.

FURTHER INFORMATION
