At this the first meeting of the Monicipal Council for the year 1941 it is my desire to convey to the members, my pleasure in being associated with men, who by their experience and good judgement have merited the con fidence of the electors of the Town of Georgetown. Mr. Bradley, who has subscribed to his declaration of office as councillor for the first time will, I believe, be a worthy representative of the citizens in the Ward in which he has been elected. .We are assembled here today in an atmosphere unparallelled in the history of our nation when the minds of the citizens of this and other Communities are centred on the struggle that the Great British Empire is making in defence of our religious freedom and the people's liberty to choose and form their own National, Provincial and civic governments, and I submit there is no better way we as representatives of the people of this municipality can serve the citizens and assist in the war effort than to follow a definite policy of tax-control and revision of the tax-rate downward. Seldom, if ever, has this Town been in a better position to adopt a "pay-asyou-go" policy, to build up a municipal estate for the benefit of present, and future tax-payers, eliminating tax burdens and pursue a policy of strict economy, consistent with necessary civic services, so that the citizens will better able to pay the increased national taxes in war and post-war per-This briefly is the policy I submit to the members of the council for their consideration. This, I believe is the leadership that is expected of me by the citizens of this community. At the present time the total debenture debt of the municipality is $150,-159,21 of which $95,411.71 is listed as recoverable and $54,747.50 as a direct charge to the Town: Most of these debentures issued in former years are bearing a high rate of interest and were issued for long terms which has proved to be unwise financing. For example: the water extension deben-

I consider mean. . Of course my early training was that I should not show spleen. Nor try to even up with him by matching up the score.

For soon or later, he will get his bumps and then some more. He'll run against some other gink, and get an awful jolt Twill make him think that he's been hit by one big thunder bolt;

E'en shock bsorbers couldn't stop the force of that sad blow. Old Compensation did the trick to let that fellow know That he can't get away with meanness, and his ways should mend, will get him in the end. But should some fellow hand me out some real nice roses red. The chances are that he'll be compensated fore I'm dead.

It's likely I shall keep my brain forever on the rack. To see how I can find a way to pay that fellow back: 1st, 3rd and 5th Sundays-Mass at It's something like King Solomon
