LOCAL NEWS

—Arbor Day, May 2nd.

—Tomorrow is May 1st, and the opening of the fishing season.

—Rummage Sale. St. George's W. A. Next Saturday at 2:00 Library.

—The roads are in better shape now, and motoring is becoming more pleasant.

—The new recruits for active service with the Lorne Scots are busily engaged in drill at the local armouries.

—Bargains unboarded at St. George's Rummage Sale. Library, Saturday afternoon.

—It is hoped to have a complete list of all those on active service with the Lorne Scots for next week's issue.

—The regular meeting of the Women's Institute will be held on Wed., May 7th, at the home of Mrs. H. C. Bailey. Election of officers.

—A number of Georgetown women are busily engaged knitting sweaters for the 50 odd recruits to the local regiment. They have to be made in two week's time.

—The Trill Rangers are collecting old newspapers and magazines and expect to be in the Park district Thursday evening. Have your papers ready to help the boys.

—The Good Neighbour Club are holding a quiz and dance in Ballinad Hall, Tuesday, May 6th, 8 o'clock S. T. Lunch. Admission 25c. Proceeds for B.W.V.F.

—Fitting services, celebrating St. George's Day, were held at St. George's Church of England on Sunday morning. Rev. W. G. O. Thompson was the preacher.

—"Bingo" Thursday, May 1st, 8:30 at Legion Hall, Georgetown. All proceeds for War Work of Lamehouse Women's Institute. Fifteen good prizes and two specials.

—A grass fire at the Matthew Estate, Main St. South, gave the firemen a run last Friday afternoon. No damage was done although the fire was creeping dangerously close to the house when the firemen arrived.

—A communication from the family of the late Walter E. Brawley to the secretary of the Business Men's Association expresses their thanks for the any kindnesses, expressions of sympathy and floral tributes of the business men of Georgetown.

—To A. E. Farnell and customers, we owe our apologies for a glaring error which appeared in the advertisement last week. Price of pork tenders should have been 33 cents a pound, rather than 23 cents, as we printed.
