

LIMEHOUSE

Mrs. R. Lane spent a few days with Mrs. Hall in Acton last week. She also attended the shower held in Toronto in honour of Mr. Wm. Hall and his bride-to-be.

On Wednesday afternoon a number of the ladies of the community gathered at the home of Mrs. S. Norrie for another quilting for refugee cartons. During the afternoon Mrs. Elsie called Mrs. E. Beerman, who is moving to Georgetown soon, to come forward, while Mrs. A. W. Benton read the following address:

Limehouse, Ontario,
June 25th, 1941.

Mrs. E. Beerman.

Dear Friend:

Some of the ladies gathered here this afternoon represent the members of the Limehouse Women's Institute, of which you have been a member for the past three and one-half years. We have found you a faithful helper in anything you undertook to do. The number associated with our organization is small, and so the removal of a member seems the greater. Those of us who have lived nearest you will perhaps miss you the most, as you were a kind and good neighbour.

Fortunately your new home is not far away and perhaps it will be convenient for you to find your way back to our social affairs and to visit among us. On behalf of the Limehouse Women's Institute may we leave with you this little gift. Although not valuable we may hope that it may remind you a little of the burg which you have called home for over nine years.

Signed on behalf of the members of Limehouse Women's Institute

Maxine Ellerby, President,
Isabel Benton, Sec-treas.

At the proper time Mrs. S. Norrie presented Mrs. Beerman with two coloured glass vases. Mrs. Beerman thanked the ladies for the gift and asked that they all visit her in her new home. A dainty lunch was served afterward.

Sergeant Gunner Norman Mitchell, training with the Royal New Zealand Air Force in Canada, spent a couple of days leave with his uncle William Mitchell, Mrs. Mitchell and family.

Smith, of Hamilton, has been visiting for a week with his sister, Mrs. O. Post.

The regular monthly meeting of the Girls' Lookout Club of the Presbyterian Church was held at the home of Mrs. Harvey Norton on Friday evening. The President called Grace Beerman forward during the evening and while the secretary, Francis Given, read the address, Mrs. Patterson on behalf of the members of the club presented her with a Bible.

Dear Grace:
It is with deep regret that we learned of your departure from us. We missed your connection with us. We missed you very much once before, but you came back to us and so we hope that you will do so on every opportunity which you have again.

You have taken part so ably in anything we have asked you to do and been so willing to help in all our undertakings. You have always been a real inspiration in our meetings.

We shall never forget you but just for fear you might forget us we ask you to accept this token of our regard for you.

Girls' Lookout Club,
Limehouse.

Grace expressed her thanks and hoped that she need not entirely sever her connection with the club but might attend meetings, at least occasionally. The Girls' Lookout Club held a tea and home-made baking sale on Mrs. H. Norton's lawn on Saturday afternoon from which they realized over nine dollars. Those taking part in the program included: Mrs. A. W. Norton, contributing two loaves, "Beautiful Dreamer" and "Cribbribbim," Mrs. H. Norton accompanying her; Misses Marion Norrie, Dolly Blick and Norma McMurdo, accompanied by Miss Grace Beerman with the harmonica, danced several times. Mrs. Joseph Scott won $1 worth of sugar, which was offered as the door prize. Following is a list of the guests — Mrs. G. Sinclair, Mrs. A. C. Patterson, Mrs. F. Lane, Mrs. John Newton, Mrs. A. McDonald, Mrs. James Ross, Mrs. W. Mitchell, Mrs. A. W. Norton, Mrs. S. Wright, Miss Shirley Wright, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Scott, Miss Inez Scott, Mrs. F. Shebourne, Mrs. A. J. Smeilhurst, Mrs. W. Mills, Mrs. F. Benton, Miss Francis Given, Misses Grace and Audrey Beerman, Mrs. S. Norrie, Miss Marion Norrie, Miss Dolly Blick, Miss Norma McMurdo, Miss Doris Mitchell, Mr. and Mrs. H. Norton, Mrs. Wm. Cowdy, Mrs. Norman McAlpine, Miss Jean Given, Miss Winnifred Ivens, Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Benton.

Mr. and Mrs. George Millere, Master George Millere and Miss Mary Ondrusch, of Toledo, are visiting Mr. and Mrs. Millere.

Mr. and Mrs. Tracey, of Toledo, and

During the afternoon Marjorie Norrie read an address and Margaret Kirkpatrick presented their teacher, Miss Francis Jenkinson, with a compact in appreciation for the help they had had from her in their work during the past year. We understand Miss Jenkinson has obtained another position and wish her luck in her new undertakings.

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Meredith visited with the Nobles at Cheltenham over the week-end.

Red Cross Letter

Georgetown, Ontario,
June 30th, 1941.

To the Citizens of Georgetown and District:

The Red Cross Society are holding their annual Garden Party at the home of Mrs. A. W. Nixon, "The Hooges," Georgetown, who for the second year in succession has allowed us to use her spacious and beautiful grounds for this purpose. The Garden Party will be held on the afternoon and evening of July 24th.

The Red Cross Society is in urgent need of funds and we are asking the co-operation of every religious, fraternal, military, social and public welfare organization in this community to send us their whole-hearted, patriotic support to make this Garden Party a success.

Every effort is being made to see that the expenses are kept to a minimum while ensuring to the citizens a very enjoyable outing. Excellent talent has already been engaged and the committee in charge are unsparring in their effort to see that you will be royally entertained.

None of the funds raised by this Garden Party go to the Red Cross Headquarters but the entire proceeds will be used by your local Society to purchase material to make into essential things, needed by our sailors, soldiers and airmen and also for clothing, blankets and other articles needed by the victims of bomb raids over the British Isles.

Nearly every one of us goes to one or more Garden Parties during the summer season. By going to this Garden Party you will have as good or a better time than at any other Garden Party. Then in addition to that you will have greatly aided the war effort. You will have placed funds in the hands of the Army of Mercy so that they may carry on their endeavor of ministering to the sick and the wounded and providing clothing and other essentials to the homeless victims of the atrocious and pagan Hun.

There are scores of citizens who are giving days and weeks of their time in many different endeavors without any thought whatever of any material gain to help further the Empire's war effort.

We respectfully appeal to you for your co-operation and ask that every citizen of this district purchase a ticket for our Garden Party.

Thanking you in anticipation of your loyal support, I am,

Your obedient servant,
LEROY DALE,
President of Georgetown District Red Cross Society.

YOUR PRODUCER IS JAMES FINLAY

James Robert Finlay has been assigned to a phase of CBC programme production that may well become one of that organization's most valuable contributions to the partnership of radio and the creative arts in Canada.

It is his responsibility to attend such events as the recent International Convocation at University of Toronto, and the Spring Festival sponsored by the Ontario Educational Association at Varsity Arena and to record them for presentation at a convenient hour over the CBC network. Also, a function which runs into hours can be compressed into a fraction of the time, if desired, with only the cream of the performance reproduced. This service can be described as radio reporting with illustrations and is the closest thing to a good feature story in the daily press that radio has devised.

Dick Charnishill, Regional CBC head at Toronto, gives Finlay credit for exploring, experimenting and developing this branch of CBC programme production. He is allowed to select his own assignments, supervise their production, cut and edit the material, write the commentary.

Jim says the O.E.A. Spring Festival gave him one of the biggest thrills of his radio career and the chance to describe in retrospect moments of colour and human interest that could not have been caught in a direct concert-to-audience broadcast. He plans many more such "function features." In the next few months and it is hoped that community, regional and national events will be brought into proper radio perspective through this employment of engineering equipment, imagination and keen reporting. Jim Finlay is glad this pioneering chore is in his hands, for he has always tried to look up the hill and around the bend in radio.

Finlay is a polished product of Canadian radio. He has epicurean taste, a well-ordered mind, is equally aware of practical technical matters and cultural joys. He is valuably equipped with humour, sympathy and tolerance. He started his career as an operator with Marconi, served a shift apprenticeship in the programme field at Wheeling, West Virginia, added immeasurably to his musical knowledge in a friendship with director Percy Harvey of Vancouver, who rewarded his apt provice with the hand of his daughter, Aileen, in 1938. Nothing has ever happened to him that he wanted to forget. Even being first boy camed by a new minister in a new school with a new name. That was in Wallasey, Cheshire, England, where he was born 33 years ago. He

Vacation Delights In Old World Setting

Tourists who previously found the time-mellowed cities of Europe the answer to their vacation problems are today enjoying those same old world delights on their own side of the Atlantic in old Quebec City where practically every vacation sport and pastime, including golf, tennis, fishing and hunting, combined with the most up-to-date accommodation, awaits the visitor in a mediaeval setting unique on the North American continent.

Easily accessible by Canadian Pacific rail lines from Montreal, New York, Boston, and other large eastern centres, Quebec is a superb touring base. With experienced guides, the city is in easy distance from the historic Plains of Abraham, the Citadel, the ancient city wall, the Great Gates, numerous monuments and other interesting landmarks.

Further afield the tourist is drawn to the picturesque Isle of Orleans, where farmers still sow by hand, plow by oxen, reap with the scythe and thresh with the flail, while women ply ancient hand-looms and spinning wheels. Other nearby attractions include Wolfe's Cove, Quebec Bridge, the Shrine of Ste. Anne de Beaupre, Montmorency Falls and Kent House, while northward lies the famed Laurentides Park, a vast area of virgin lake, forest and stream country where vacation delights await at every turn.

The opportunity of attending the service in century-old churches, rambling through narrow, cobblestoned streets, over long-silenced battlefields, and seeing the colorful "habitant" at work in the fields, is a rare privilege in the new world, and one that Quebec alone can offer. The ancient dwellings of Quebec's "Lower Town" stand out in sharp contrast to the modern grace of the Chateau Frontenac, Quebec's visitor. This famed Canadian Pacific hostelry is starting plans for many a delightful day's horse-drawn carriage. With its easy distance from the historic

Dmitri Demonstrates His Camera Skill

Ivan Dmitri, one of the world's greatest color photographers, demonstrates his uncanny skill at Mount Edith Cavell. Dmitri has a party of camera enthusiasts at Jasper Park Lodge from various parts of Canada and thirteen states in the United States. In this picture he is seen, crouched in the centre, after he has called the proper timing and exposure to a few of the 34 members of the party and is showing them the correct angle for a picture of Ernie Neiderer, well known Swiss mountain guide of Jasper, and little Dickie Johnston, of Minneapolis, who is with the party.

Inset shows Dickie close up, all decked up as a mountain climber. Dickie had a great time on the trip to Mount Edith Cavell and is a great favorite with the party.
