LIMEHOUSE

The Limehouse Women's Institute celebrated its twentieth anniversary on August 7th. Invitations had been sent to all who had been members since its organization and to members of neighbouring branches, and some of these were able to attend the afternoon tea held at the home of Mrs. H. Norton. Small tables, set on the lawn for the tea, looked very pretty. Miss E. Appelle, of Georgetown, the District President at the time the Limehouse Branch was organized was present and opposite Mrs. P. Merry, the present District President, poured tea at a large table outdoors. Mrs. Ellerby, President at Limehouse, acted as chairman.

Speakers for the afternoon included: Mrs. Merry, Miss Appelle and Miss Mary A. Clarke, superintendent of Women's Institutes of Ontario, the latter choosing "Opportunities for Women's Institutes" as her topic. She also congratulated the branch on its 20 years of work since being organized. She said that no worthless organization could have existed that long and urged the members to carry on. Miss Lois Merry sang, unaccompanied, "Alice Blue Gown," which all enjoyed.

Following is the guest list of the 20th anniversary tea:

Mrs. W. G. McDowell, Mrs. W. L. Millere, Mrs. Harold Cleave, Mrs. D. Livingston, Mrs. E. R. Robinson, Miss Mary A. Clarke, Mrs. W. J. Switzer, Mrs. W. T. Sinclair, Mrs. D. Campbell, Miss Mamie Campbell, Mrs. I. M. Bennett, Mrs. P. W. Merry, Mrs. Harry Price, Miss Jessie Campbell, Mrs. Wm. Braeken, Mrs. S. H. Webster, Mrs. A. W. Norton, Mrs. S. M. Wright, Mrs. F. Benton, Mrs. F. Brown, Mrs. H. R. Brown, Miss E. Appelle, Thelma Brown, Mrs. R. Lane, Mrs. A. W. Benton and children, Mrs. F. Shelbourne, Mrs. John Ellerby, Mrs. A. J. Smethurst, Mrs. Jamieson, Mrs. S. Norrie, Mrs. S. Gishy, Mrs. W. T. Mills, Mrs. W. Mitchell, Miss Doris Mitchell, Miss W. Ivens, Mrs. John Newton, Mrs. C. Mummy, Mrs. E. Jones, Mrs. Harvey Norton, Mrs. W. S. Wright, Miss Edna Russell, Miss Grace Pollett, Mrs. E. Pollett, Mr. and Mrs. R. Mulder and children, Mrs. H. Porter and children, Miss Agnes Robertson, Margaret and Jean Robertson, Mr. Jack Davis, Miss Helen Mills, Miss Ruth Norton, Mary and Margaret Kirkpatrick, Dorothy Lane, Marion Norrie, Eleanor Smith, Douglas Scott, Miss Lois Merry.

In the evening a lawn party was held on the grounds of the Presbyterian Church, the excellent program being given by the Guelph Middle Prize Choir and amateur artists. Mrs. Jamieson set a small table sold tickets on a fine "Canadian" bedspread, later won by Mrs. Jamieson. The committee are well-ganized way the anniversary was celebrated and that more cash has been added to the funds for war work.

The Limehouse W.I. met at the home of Mrs. Mills on Tuesday, Aug. 5th. The roll call created some amusement as each member was called upon to sing or whistle a patriotic song. Scarcely anyone refused to respond. Mrs. Gowdy read current events; Mrs. Henderson had charge of the motto: "Canada's position and importance to the British Empire." It was decided not to enter Action Fair W.I. exhibit, but to enter in the quilting bee there if possible. The quilts on hand were to be finished but no new work to be begun until September. Mrs. T. Grieve, of Georgetown, was guest speaker. She demonstrated simple and difficult bandaging, artificial respiration and use of tourniquet as well as giving advice in other cases of emergency. Her talk was very worth while. Following the singing of God Save the King the hostess and her assistants served lunch and a social half hour was spent.

Limehouse Presbyterian Church Sabbath School held their annual picnic to Stanley Park, Erin, on Saturday. All present report a grand time and over one hundred sat down to well-laden tables for supper. Races were run off as well as all enjoying the many other amusements. Winners of races were as follows:

Infants — Ross Norton; boys 6 - 8, Jim Gordon; girls 6 - 8, Jean Robertson; boys 9 - 12, Douglas Scott; girls 9 - 12, Margaret Robertson; young ladies, Marie Lynne; young men, Gordon Price; ladies' 3-legged race, Gwen Hill and Shirley Wright; men's 3-legged race, Gordon Price and Harvey Cook; kids race, Mrs. Gordon.

think of Toronto—wide, clean streets with street-cars, and proper size cars driving on the proper side of the street, and large modern buildings. I have seen the Pyramids, an enclosing a picture of myself with them for background—proof.

Suez

We go into Suez occasionally — a dirty little town. The canal is as wide as 8-10 big rivers—swampy. In today and some of the boys tried to fish, but the fish had different ideas. I also had a ride on a camel. There was an Egyptian soldier doing sentry on a camel along the canal. We raced up the bank and took pictures of him. Then he got off and led us get on. The camel went down on its knees and George tried to jump on as you would a horse, but the camel wasn't used to those tactics. At the first touch he jumped up and George fell off and almost rolled into the canal. I never laughed so much in my life. I believe the camel enjoyed it. Finally we both had a crack at it, and it's quite an experience. You feel awfully high up, and he sits down or gets up by a sequence of alternately slanting positions that are most disconcerting.

Two days ago we had a terrible sandstorm, a very miserable experience. The sand is sort of gritty silt—not like the clean sand of our lakes—and gets into your eyes and ears and down your throat.

We wear tropical kit in the daytime, and blue at night. In daytime it is like a hot summer day at home (only without any shade-trees) and at night it gets away down below zero.

On the Desert

I've spent some time in the desert before, and out there the days and nights are pretty terrible. There's quite a cold wind blowing this morning. Feels like September on Lake Huron. By noon it will be scorching hot.

We sleep with mosquito netting around our beds now. I didn't one night and got rather badly bitten. Always was a target for mosquitoes. Remember that summer at Hillsboro? Sudanese all wear long white nightgowns and either turbans or red flower-pot hats with tassels. Some of them are fairly clean, but the general run are incredibly filthy and live in the dirtiest surroundings.

Don't I wish I could tell you about the things we've been doing! We've been helping to make headline news for the past five months. Quite a while back before I came here we did a raid on Naples. I was tempted to put a bomb on Vesuvius but thought it might start erupting and take me with it. It smoulders all the time.

I played the organ in All Saints' Cathedral in Cairo the other day, in style. At present I have five hundred flying hours and twenty-seven raids to my credit, so I'm kind of a veteran.

Gold Coast, Too

Later letters (dated May) tell of his sojourn on the Gold Coast—the most humid climate in the world, where natives are kindly and clean and where fresh fruit is excellent and abundant. In the native village was a native church... "that looks surprisingly like the one in Arcadee—red brick and all."

And here the story of an organist of Arcadee should end. But it doesn't—goes on and on into God's Eternity where all things are plain and understood.

For on the 25th of July his Mother—she was the only son of his mother, and she a widow—was notified by the British War Office that her son had died on the field.

It is good to think that he played the organ in Cairo cathedral. Some of us will always associate that music with what he made here in Arcadee. And it is good also to think of that Gold Coast native church that looked so surprisingly like the one in Arcadee. To one sojourner at least the Gold Coast will be very near to Arcadee henceforth and forever. "The Tomb of Heroes is the Universe" says the poet, and though he would be the last in the world to think so our organist of Arcadee has given our quiet little town living identity with the universe by his brave life and fearless death. God comfort his Mother and Widow and Sisters.

BALLINAFAD

The regular meeting of the Mission Band was held in the church, on Thursday afternoon, August 7th. In the absence of Mrs. Kirkwood, the superintendent, Miss B. Hills had charge. Master James Kirkwood was in the chair. Joanna Shortall gave the topic, and George Perryman the watch-tower. One visitor was present. Mr. and Mrs. Horner, with daughter

Samuel Allen Buried At Glen Williams

On Saturday, August 11th, following a lingering illness, one of our most respected citizens, Samuel Allen, passed away in the General Hospital, Niagara Falls, Ontario. Mr. Allen, who was in his 84th year, was born in Armagh, Ireland, coming to Canada when a young man, and lived here and in the immediate neighbourhood for a great number of years. His wife, Catherine Campion, predeceased him five years ago, and since that time he had made his home with his daughter, Mrs. Melville Halliday, Niagara Falls, but made frequent visits with the rest of the family. Mr. Allen was a faithful member of the United Church. The funeral took place on Monday afternoon from the home of his son, Mr. George Allen, Glen Williams. A brief service was held at the home by Mr. R. K. Lemkay, who afterwards conducted a most impressive service at the United Church. Special hymns were sung by the choir, and included: "Faith of Our Fathers," a particular favourite of the deceased. Interment took place in Glen Williams Cemetery. The pallbearers were six grandsons—Sam and William Allen, East Rochester, N.Y.; Sam, Dennis and Victor Allen, London; Francis Allen and Wesley Day.

Those left to mourn the loss of a loving father are two daughters, Mrs. George Dennis, Dunville; Mrs. Melville Halliday, Niagara Falls, five sons, Joseph, of East Rochester, Thomas, Alfred, William and George Allen, Glen Williams. Twenty-seven grandchildren, twenty-six great grandchildren and two great-great-grandchildren, also survive.

Owing to ill-health, Joseph Allen was unable to be present at his father's funeral.

Beautiful floral tributes were received from: wreaths, the Family, Provincial Coating Mill; sprays, two from the grandchildren, L.O.E. No. 346, Glen Williams, Provincial Paper Mill, the Canadian Legion, Georgetown; the United Church, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Norton, the Ladies' Bible Class, the Dennis Family, Steve and Maud Norrie, Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Purdy, Ossining, N.Y., Eva and Curnel, Kitchener.
