LOCAL NEWS

—Labour Day, Monday, September 1st is a public holiday.
—Just a word of warning—it will soon be time to "take 'em out."
—Remember the Fall Fair is only two weeks away—Sept. 12th and 13th are the dates.
—He who whispers in a shell about the goods he has to sell. Will never reap the golden dollars. Like he who climbs a tree and hollers.
—An advertisement in the Georgetown Herald reaches one of the richest markets in Ontario.
—A new campaign to swell War Savings certificate sales across Canada is scheduled to open Sept. 12th, with an objective of $150 million a year.
—Something new for corn sufferers. Use Benzocaine, the new local anaesthetic. Contains only in Lloyd's Corn Salve. Get a jar now at Chapman's Drug Store.
—Georgetown Women's Institute will meet at the home of Mrs. Alex. Lewis, George St., on Wednesday, Sept. 3rd at 3 o'clock. Mr. H. L. Hutt will be the guest speaker. A contest for best living-room bouquet will also be held.
—The annual Convention of the Canadian Weekly Newspapers' Association was held last week in Quebec City. At the convention, Mr. Walter R. Legge, of the Granby (Que.) Leader-Mall, was elected president of the Association for the coming year.
—KEEP KLEEREX HANDY. "A quick-healing Salve" for Summer Skin Ailments, Sunburn, Poison Ivy, Mosquito Bites, Cuts, Burns, Impetigo, KLEEREX also heals Boils, Pimples, Eczema, Foriasis, etc. 50c; $1.00; $2.00—(Medium and Strong). Recommended and sold by Robb, and other Druggists.
—Bert Mortlock, editor of the Brampton Conservator for the past two years, has accepted a similar position with the Barrie Examiner. Bert will be missed in Brampton, where in addition to his duties as editor, he was an active member of the Lions Club. He has been succeeded by Miss Beulah Tomney, whose home is in Cooksville. She was formerly suburban correspondent for the Toronto Daily Star.

ASHGROVE
Mrs. Frank Wilson was hostess to the ladies and senior girls of the W.I. on Tuesday, August 19.
This well attended meeting, including many visitors, was in charge of the girls with Miss Joy Ruddell presiding.
The Institute president, Mrs. Engleby presided for the opening exercises and until the business part of the meeting was dispensed with. It was decided that each member should give twenty-five cents toward the jam fund. Mrs. R. J. Graham and Mrs. C. B. Dick were appointed delegates to attend the Institute convention at Chesley in September. Mrs. Hector Bird reported on the exhibit for Milton Fair and further plans were made on this project. With regrets of the Institute the resignation of the president was received and accepted. The two vice-presidents, Mrs. F. Wilson and Mrs. R. Hepburn will carry on for the remainder of the year. Miss L. Reed will be responsible for the Red Cross work previously in charge of Mrs. Engleby. Mrs. C. B. Dick read an address expressing the regrets of the members to Mrs. Engleby, since her removal from the community deemed it necessary for her to resign her position as president of the society, and Mrs. Cecil Wilson presented Mrs. Engleby with an electric table lamp. Mrs. Engleby expressed her appreciation to the members in a fitting manner.
The roll call was the name of a distant town and its industries. Miss Elsie Bird gave some contrasting thoughts on the motto "A day in the country is worth a month in town." Mrs. Ward favored with two lovely vocal solos and a piano solo by Mrs. T. Brownridge was much applauded. Miss I. Wigglesworth's paper on "Manners" was well prepared and practical. Misses D. Cleave, M. Dick and R. Fisher demonstrated rights and wrongs on "Road Etiquette." After singing God Save the King the girls served light refreshments. The September meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Francis Thompson.

Mr. and Mrs. J. White and Sally, of Toronto, spent last week with Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Dick.
Misses I. Wigglesworth, Joy Ruddell, Marion Dick, Betty Ruddell and Charlotte Wilson enjoyed a few days vacation at Wasaga Beach last week. Viola Bridgen is holidaying in Toronto for three weeks.

Mrs. Ward, of Weston, was a guest of Mrs. Frank Wilson last week. Mabel Wigglesworth is enjoying a holiday with her sister, Edith, at Stanley Park, Erin.
Mr. and Mrs. F. Wilson spent Sunday at the home of Mrs. Wilson's brother at Goderich.
Lena and Ellen Palmer, of Norval, spent last week with May and Jessie Wingfield.
Marion and Betty Switzer are holidaying with Brampton friends.
