BALLINAFAD

Mr. and Mrs. James Weatherston, of Toronto, visited with friends in this community last week.

Mrs. H. Barth, of Glen Williams, visited with Mrs. A. Kentner and Miss E. McChure last week.

The Mission Band met for their August meeting on Saturday. The scripture lesson was read, by Jimmy Kirkwood and a short prayer by Guy Merriam. Plans were made to hold their annual picnic on Saturday, Sept. 13th. The members are busy patching a quilt which is to be sent to Britain. The roll call was answered by naming two books in the New Testament. The Watch Tower was read by Dorothy Warne.

The farmers are busy threshing these days with a good yield of grain being reported.

Mr. Isaac Britton, of London, called on Mr. and Mrs. Wylie last week.

A very happy gathering assembled at the home of Mrs. F. J. Shortill on Friday afternoon, on the occasion of a special meeting of the whole W.M.S. family. While aeroplanes crossed overhead reminding us of Satan's forces at war, members of the Baby Band played happily on the soft green grass—a reminder of the other side of life, when Jesus said: "Of such is the Kingdom of Heaven." Mission Band members listened attentively to the programme arranged by the Auxiliary and assisted by Mission Circle members. The guest speaker, Mrs. (Rev.) Rees, of Erin, gave a thrilling account of missionary work she and her husband experienced with the people of Saskatchewan before and during the drought period. Mrs. Rees paid special tribute to the sales sent out from Ontario which were most gratefully received. Miss Laura McMillan, of Melville, sang a lovely solo. Both Melville and Churchill were well represented at the gathering. There were about seventy-five people present and all enjoyed the refreshments served on the lawn.

The August meeting of the W.M.S. was held at the home of Mrs. Robert McEnery. The devotional service was taken by Miss Hilt, assisted by several others. The topic was taken by Mrs. A. Starret, who also read a couple of temperance items and the Watch Tower.

On Tuesday, August 26th, Mrs. Francis Wesley Warne passed away in her 84th year, at the home of her daughter, Mrs. H. Fisher, 162 Blythwood Road, Toronto. She with her husband, the late Bishop Warne, spent forty years as missionaries in India. She leaves to mourn her loss one daughter, Edith, Mrs. H. Fisher. Interment was in the Ballinafad cemetery on Thursday, Aug. 28th, beside her husband, who predeceased her nine years ago.
