hope that it will continue into October. For the farmer needs a longer fall this year in order to get all his ploughing done, roots in, and silos well-filled, owing to the shortage of farm labour, and because his stock eats during the winter as well as through the summer. There must be something wrong with the person who takes no enjoyment out of the fall season, but misses its loveliness by being around the corner.

Camp Brebeuf Retreat

Selecting Camp Brebeuf, near Rockwood, the Catholic Youth Organizations of Hamilton Diocese held their first annual retreat. Rev. Fr. J. L. McBride, Diocesan Director of the C.Y.O. was in charge of the retreat. Rev. Fr. Pauller ably assisted with accommodations at the camp. About 65 young Catholic men came from all parts of the diocese—Hamilton, Brantford, Guelph, Kitchener, Preston, and other centres. They arrived on Saturday evening for the three-day retreat which extended over the week-end holiday. Rev. Fr. Hennessy, S.J. from the Jesuit Novitiate of Guelph, was retreat master. Father Hennessy began on Saturday evening conducting many excellent conferences, coming to the point and dealing with the problems of youth. He stressed the importance of living a true Christian life. The spiritual climax of the retreat was Monday morning with every retreatist receiving Holy Communion. The day was divided with the spiritual activities far overshadowing the recreational. The retreat was closed with a very interesting program. Mr. Bernard Cox, acting as master of ceremonies, had his summer campers stare several boxing bouts which were well received by the people present. These were inspired by songs and community singing. His Excellency, Bishop Ryan, of Hamilton, expressed his surprise and at the same time his pleasure at finding so many young Catholic men making the retreat. He briefly told the history of Camp Brebeuf, which is such an ideal place for the retreat. "I am positive," he said, "that Fr. Hennessy helped to better the lots of you young men who made the retreat." He went on to say, "You retreatists will remember these days every moment of your lives." He expressed his thought that young men who made the retreat were of an age to pick their place in life, and hoped that God would give some the vocation for the priesthood. His Excellency expressed his wish that the retreatists would co-operate with their parish priests in all they may ask of them. He hoped that the young men would be ambassadors of what Father Hennessy taught them and expressed his wish that they would carry along with them everything they gathered during these three days, and put them in practice, and thus they would live as true C.Y.O. members should.

Father McBride, Diocesan Director of the C.Y.O. thanked the young men who made the retreat. He felt sure that the retreat would grow from year to year. Father Hennessy was called upon to say a few words. He was greeted by a tremendous applause. He thanked the young men for their attention during the conferences.

The retreat, inaugurated this year, will be an annual activity of the C.Y.O. A club known as the "St. John Bosco Young Men's Club" was formed with Mr. Joseph Pietropolo, of Guelph, president; Gerald Duffy, of Hamilton, 1st vice-president; Mr. B. Barron, Brantford, 2nd vice-president; Mr. William Crawford, Hamilton, 3rd vice-president; Mr. John Bennett, of Guelph, secretary, and Mr. Sebastian Engert, of Kitchener, treasurer. This club will meet monthly to discuss ideas and activities.

ASHGROVE

The September meeting of the Ashgrove W.M.S. was held in the basement of the church on Tuesday, September 9th, with Mrs. W. Brownridge presiding. Plans were made for the autumn thank-offering meeting. The biography of Dr. Oliver Jackson, a pioneer missionary of Newfoundland, was the study for the afternoon. Next Sunday, September 21, is Rally Sunday. Mrs. Horace Barnes visited with friends in Toronto for a few days recently.

WHAT DOES YOUR "V" FOR VICTORY MEAN?

What does your "V" for victory mean? If you have one, or two, or three pasted on your car windows, does it mean full speed ahead, or does it mean driving at a moderate rate of speed—consuming a much-needed war material? We bring this matter up after talking with one of our townsmen who has just returned from a holiday trip. He had done considerable driving while away, but at no time did he exceed 40 miles an hour. But what really burned this fellow up was to see a car, plastered all over with victory "Vs," racing down the highway at break-neck speed. What did this V for victory mean to him—as far as gas consumption was concerned. Yes, it is a fine thing to display our victory "Vs" but to mean anything they must be lived up to. Motorists driving at 50 and 60 miles an hour on our highways are not paying the way for victory. Our fighting forces depend on gasoline for our tanks, planes, etc. Let everyone do his or her part by driving sanely—by driving as little as possible—and conserve gasoline.

AFTER THE FAIR—WHAT THEN?

You've heard the people who always say, "Now that the fall fair and the Toronto exhibition are over, we can expect winter any time." These people usually get under our skin, because instead of enjoying the lovely fall weather as it comes, they are trying to paint a picture of cold and stormy winter nights two or three months hence. No doubt fall slips by more quickly than the spring and summer seasons, but why bewail the fact? Harvest and thanksgiving are two seasons everyone should be thankful for, when all the grains and roots and vegetables are gathered into the barn, and the threshing done... assuring us of food aplenty until another seed time rolls around again. But so far this fall nature seems to have crossed up these so-called pessimists. The weather since September 1st has been much warmer... much more pleasant than those cool days of August. May we
