

The Anniversary of the Glen Williams United Church

(This poem, written by a Glen Williams girl, commemorates the 101st anniversary of Glen Williams United Church, which took place on Sunday, September 21st).
The United Church held its hundred and first anniversary, which was celebrated with gay festivity.
The church was decorated with fruits of all kinds.
And things that are helped to grow with the aid of mankind;
The altar was artistically draped with autumnal leaves
And hung on the ends of the pews were small grain sheaves.

Tall stalks of corn and leaves of every hue,
Looked as if they had been sprinkled with dew.
In each corner of the church stood a vine and a tall sunflower,
By the mid of the day they needed a shower.
By the steps stood very large baskets of marigolds
And the baskets, I'm sure, had all they could hold.

The worshippers came and filed in their place,
With a most happy look on everyone's face.
They all sang and prayed, with all their hearts,
And to the success of the celebration they did their part.
The auditorium was crowded from door to door,
All the people came—the rich, and also the poor.

The choir, which was dressed in black hats and gowns,
Gave a message in singing of great renown.
The famous soloist—Mrs. Roden, by name.

From a well-known church in Toronto she came;
The distinguished organist of our church did play
And many of the people great praises to her did say.
Reverend Leslie, the guest speaker, also from Toronto came,
Where he is well-known for his ministry fame;
With his Scotch wit aiding, a great message brought forth
And for the people who came, he made it well their worth.
Our pastor, Mr. Lemkay, to make it a success worked hard,
And everyone thinks he deserves the greatest reward.
—Marjorie Wagstaffe,
Glen Williams.

STEWARTTOWN

Trooper Tom Dickenson has spent several days at his home here.
In the absence of Rev. S. R. Colebrook, Rev. M. Noble, of Caledon East, had charge of the service Sunday afternoon at St. John's Church.
Mr. Norman Bally, Mr. and Mrs. Ted Bally and son John, of Toronto, visited with their mother, Mrs. Mary Bailey.
Mr. and Mrs. Frank Jenkinson, Herbert and Marilyn, of Mount Dennis, spent the week end with Mrs. H. Jenkinson.

ASHGROVE

The W.M.S. autumn thank-offering will be held on October 14th, with Miss Anderson, of Aoton, as guest speaker.
Several from our congregation attended the anniversary services on Sunday morning and evening at Hornby church.
Harold Wilson had the misfortune to fall and break his arm last week at school.

Mrs. J. W. Bessey Buried Last Week

Funeral services were held on Tuesday, Sept. 23rd, for Mrs. J. W. Bessey, who passed away on Sunday, September 21st, at her home, lot 19, concession 6, Esquewaug. The former Annie Alice Taylor, she was born in Georgetown seventy-five years ago, and was a daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Frank Taylor.
She was married 56 years ago to John William Bessey, who predeceased her. They lived for five years in Mount Forest, later moving to their farm home on the 6th line, where she has since resided.
A member of the Georgetown Baptist Church, she was active in the Women's Association of that church for a number of years. For the past 15 years, she had been a semi-invalid and unable to participate actively in church affairs.
She is survived by three daughters, Mrs. H. Speers, Meota, Saskatchewan, Mrs. B. Morris, Toronto, and Mrs. (Dr.) Carl Smith, Kitchener, three sons, Wray, at home, Roy, of Toronto, and Harry, of Stewarttown; and six grandchildren. She was predeceased by three sons, Frank, Robert and Wilfred.

The funeral service was conducted by Rev. E. G. Baxter, of Thorold, former pastor of the Georgetown church, assisted by Rev. J. E. Ostrom, of Georgetown, and Rev. W. E. Morphy, of Kitchener. Pallbearers were Messrs. Norman Devereaux, James McBride, Walter T. Evans, Herbert Bessey, Berwyn Morris and Dr. Carl Smith. Interment was in Greenwood Cemetery, Georgetown.
Many beautiful floral tributes were received from friends in token of their affection for the late Mrs. Bessey.
Friends from out-of-town who attended the funeral included: Mr. and Mrs. Carey Warren, Mr. Ernest Warren, Miss Clara Bessey, Miss Annie Bessey, Mr. Peter Bessey, Mr. and Mrs. George Milburn, Miss L. Slavin, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Godwin, Mrs. A. Morris, Mr. and Mrs. B. Eustace and Gertrude, Mrs. Donovan, of Toronto; Mr. William Scott and Mr. R. Galbraith, Milton; Mrs. J. Leckie, Kitchener; Mr. and Mrs. R. Miller, Nashville, Ont.; Mrs. H. Matthews and Graham, Erin.

WITH THE BOWLERS

By S.P.C.
Last Wednesday evening and on into the small hours, Georgetown Bowling Club held an open trebles tournament. Rinks were present from Burlington and Acton, as well as local troops. After the recently contested matches of 12 ends each, the winners were:
First—Acton rink of Ralph, Lowrie and Watson.
Second—Acton rink, skipped by Clayton.
Third—Georgetown rink of Faram, Reeve and F. Williams.
Inclement weather on Thursday nullified the usual 10ney, and on Friday, while potential challengers for the Grant Trophy claim they attended, no one appears to have seen them.
On Monday however, challengers in the persons of S. P. Chapman and Fred Thompson noticed the holders S. T. Faram and H. Dickie, into the windy blasts. After the usual 21 ends had been shivered through, the silverware went to a new home. The score was 24 - 20 but was really decided on the last end. Early in the game Chapman and Thompson worked up a fairly comfortable lead only to have Faram and Dickie almost overtake them in the home stretch. Already challenges are pouring in, the first being from the above-referred to absent challengers (so they say) of last Friday night.

CHURCH NEWS

Scripture Text
"And Asa cried unto the Lord his God, and said, Lord, it is nothing with thee to help, whether with many, or with few; but thou art with us, O Lord, our God; for we rest on thee, and in thy name we resist against this multitude. O Lord, thou art our God; let not man prevail against thee."

SURPRISE PARTY
Last Friday evening, September 26th, about thirty members of Verdun Rebekah Lodge paid a surprise visit to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Stafford Groat, on the occasion of their thirty-fifth wedding anniversary. After an hour of games, refreshments were served and Mrs. J. H. Lillico, on behalf of the War Services Club, presented Mrs. Groat with a picture. She expressed herself as being completely taken by surprise at the thoughtfulness of the Lodge members, and thanked them for their lovely gift.
