BALLINAFAD

Mr. and Mrs. Cam. McEnery spent Sunday with friends in Wingham. The Mission Circle held a very successful wicker roast in the hall on Friday evening. Progressive crokinole and Chinese checkers were played, after which wickers and coffee were served.

Services here were withdrawn on Sunday owing to anniversary services being held at Churchill. Dr. W. Silcox, of Toronto, preached very inspiring and timely sermons both morning and evening.

W.M.S. held their regular meeting at the home of Mrs. A. Starret. The roll call was answered with reasons for being interested in Missions. Mrs. A. O. W. Foreman gave a most interesting preview of the new study book "Serving with the Sons of Shu, a story of China. Mrs. F. J. Shortall gave a talk on "The Stewardship of the Gospel" in her usual capable manner.
