IN MEMORIAM

PRESSWOOD—In loving memory of Pte. John Presswood, who died Oct. 1st, 1918.

Somewhere in France in a soldier's grave

Lies our dear son, among the brave; He never shunned his country's call. But gladly gave his life, his all; He died the helpless to defend A faithful soldier's noble end.

—Ever remembered by Mother, Sister and Brother, of Glen Williams.

STEWARTTOWN

Mrs. Johnston, Mrs. Colebrook, Mrs. W. Hodge and Mrs. Bally, of Stewarttown W.A., attended the Halton Deacons' meeting held in Acton last week.

About fifty friends and neighbours met in the Orange Hall last Friday evening to give Mr. and Mrs. Roy Smith, who have just moved into their new home, a house warming. While the friends were gathering, Messrs. Jack Jenkinson and Douglas Lawson provided music for dancing. Miss Frances Jenkinson calling Roy and Betty to the front, asked them to accept the best wishes of all. The gifts were presented to them by Mrs. John Standish and were: an occasional chair, a silk cushion, a tri-light floor lamp, a coffee table, an end table and a mirror table centre. Taken completely by surprise, Roy thanked their friends for himself and his wife. Lunch was served and a neighbourly hour of visiting enjoyed.
