

Halton Holstein Breeders Staged Show at Milton

The third annual show of the Halton Holstein Breeders was staged at Milton on September 27th. And what a show, the little County of Halton of four townships brought forth convincing evidence of their slogan "The County with More Holsteins per Square Mile Than any other County in the Dominion." Shortage of labour, short crops, the busy season coupled with the recent windstorm which blew down numerous silos at a most inopportune time, couldn't keep them away. No less than 37 Halton breeders brought out one or more animals making a total of 132 individual animals. Furthermore, almost without exception they brought out their animals clipped and well halter broken. It looked like another C.N.E. when one saw 14 cows milk out in the mature class, 13 yearlings of dem. 13 "Gels" and 13 heifers. In the latter class 562 animals were in the ring at the one time. It is no wonder that the ringside was crowded throughout the afternoon to watch the work of judge Durso Innes who as usual did an efficient job. Even such experienced and veteran exhibitors as J. M. Fraser, D. G. Dunton and W. J. Fraser who came over from Peel County to watch the show and Geo. Clemons and Cliff Graham, of the Holstein Association, were more than enthusiastic.

W. S. Hall, of Oakville, contributed the largest number of animals and incidentally won the junior female championship on his senior yearling heifer Montvic Hienke Rag Apple Vera. Robinson Bros. were the premier exhibitors winning the senior and grand championship on their 2-year-old bull Leeholm Sir Texas; junior championship on their senior bull calf Credolme Francy Segis; senior and grand champion female on Daisy Gano Hartog, their five year old dry cow. The same breeders won the strong herd class as well as the strong wet cow class and the junior yearling heifer class. T. L. Leslie & Son were well to the fore in several classes topping the progeny class with their twin four-year-old daughters of Grace Rauwerd Dewdrop and also with the winning get of Lonedale Texal Boy and the winning two-year-old in milk on Allvaldale Rauwerd Echo. A Stark & Son repeated their 1940 triumph of securing the Bank of Nova Scotia special for the best Get bred and owned by exhibitor and also topped the three-year-old class with Sunnyside Rag Apple Laura, all sired by Glen Allen Rag Apple Snowball. G. Leslie Peer & Son won the two-year-old dry class with Hillandale Aaggie Hienke and the Fabst Aaggie which class on Hillandale recalled from the big calf club class at the C.N.E. Emerson Ford topped the senior heifer calf class with a granddaughter of Strathmore Kobs Zozo and Roy Wilson the yearling bull class with Woodland Tenke Romeo Lad. The premier exhibitor was John Pickett & Son and Esqueping Township won the Inter-Township class.

Associated with the show was the achievement day for the Milton Holstein Calf Club in which 21 club members paraded their black and whites for Judge E. A. Innes, Agricultural representative for Peel County. Here Donald Peer of Milton repeated his C.N.E. triumphs by winning first for calf and first for showmanship. Earl Ford, Craig Alexander and Wm. Brain were 2nd, 3rd and 4th respectively for calf and Wm. Brain, Earl Ford and Ralph Fish 2nd, 3rd and 4th respectively for showmanship.

Tribute must also be given to the Halton Club for their efficient organization including the attractive catalogue of entries. The ring composed of Wm. Robinson, Wilbert Biggar, Craig Reid, Fred and Jack Hamilton kept things running smoothly throughout the busy afternoon.

Halton Jersey Cattle Club Show an Outstanding Success

Halton Jersey Breeders indicated in no unmistakable manner at their annual Jersey show held at Milton on September 27th that they are well on the way to the province of Ontario. Not only have they a progressive club with upwards of fifty members, but they also demonstrated that they have the cattle by parading 75 Jerseys of the kind that please both the eye and the pocketbook. According to judge Oswald Warman, of Brampton, County Jersey Show at which it had been his privilege to officiate. Secretary James Bremner of the Canadian Jersey Cattle Club was also an enthusiastic ringside spectator.

In all 16 different Halton Jersey herds were represented at the show. The awards were fairly evenly divided with the senior and grand championship for bulls going to Maurice C. Beatty on Brampton Draconis Royal. The same breeder topped the 2-year-old heifer class with Ländale Basilia, a granddaughter of Brampton Basilia that noted world's champion cow. He also showed the way in the three-year-old class with Tändale Estella Flashlight and topped the progeny of dam class with the progeny of Osborne Blossom. Featherstone Bros. won the junior male championship on Avonlea's King Standard and also scored red ribbons on Avonlea's King's Iona, a yearling heifer and on their get of Silver Spring April King.

Halton Brook Farms, owned by Col. Neils of Oakville, a new Jersey enthusiast, dominated the cow classes, winning first in the aged cow milking class on Lawndale Royal Leda; first in the dry aged cow class on Glen Alden August and first in the three-year-olds on Scotch's Taxpayer. The same exhibitor won the strong herd class. W. J. Alexander also scored a red ribbon in the yearling bull class on Graham Farms Noble Master.

Other breeders who were well up in the money in a number of classes included Lorne Ella & Sons, Arthur Padbury, Chas. McKeown, D. R. McLaughlin, Estate W. A. McClure and W. Davies & Son. Maurice Beatty was the premier breeder and exhibitor.

The achievement day for the Halton Jersey and Guernsey Cattle Club was held at the same centre where 15 Jersey and Guernsey calves paraded for the judgment of Agricultural Representative E. A. Innes of Peel County. He topped the strong class with John McClure, Fraser McNabb and Kenneth Ella second, third and fourth, respectively. THEY ARE AT IT AGAIN

By H. L. Hutt

A number of years ago while visiting an old friend in Muskoka, a neighbour had rushed in for help with the declaration of our heading. This being interpreted meant peace and merriment in the air. And we are rushing into print with it now because of what we have seen going on all over town last week. Neighbours paying their respects or disrespects to each other in clouds of blinding pungent smoke from the burning of the fallen leaves that a kind Creator has provided to shade and shelter them from the heat of the summer sun. Something in line with what is going on in Europe just now, where Hitler and his hordes of deluded Huns are paying their respects to their neighbours on all sides.

Let us try to do better in this country and learn to say it with flowers. To all who would rather do so, we commend a careful consideration of an article by an eminent authority on "Making the Most of Fallen Leaves," appearing in the last number of the Canadian Horticulture and Home Magazine.

We have asked the Editor of the Herald to publish it for the benefit of our citizens. In brief it tells how to compost and make leaf mould of them for the growing of better flowers next year.

For the benefit of any who cannot conveniently compost them in their own back yard, send them to our compost heap and we will return them in flowers next year, all of the choicest gladioli, iris, peonies, lilies, delphiniums and what have you in their season. But remember no sticks, stones, cans, or broken milk bottles—the place for them is in the town dump, and any brought here will be returned when you call for your flowers.
