—Please save your good used baskets for the Junior Red Cross of the Public School. Some of the members will call early next week.

—Anniversary Services at Ashgrove next Sunday, Nov. 9th. Church supper Thursday, Nov. 13th, with an outstanding program of entertainment. Don't fail to be there.

—The event you have been waiting for. Two regular size drug store items for the price of one, plus only one cent. Wednesday, Thursday, Friday and Saturday, Nov. 5, 6, 7 and 8. Over 300 bargains to choose from.—Robb's Drug Store, The Rexall Store.

—$100,000 is a huge sum of money and to be used for this amount over a little love affair, is just too embarrassing for words. Well it seems one of our local boys is in a corner now and will face a determined lady's ire before long. Probably a reputable paper like the Herald should not indulge in this kind of gossip, still we would never get credit for good motives anyway but would be scorned for our failure to keep our subscribers informed.

I.O.D.E. MEETING

The Countess of Strathmore Chapter, I.O.D.E., met at the home of Mrs. Wallace Thompson on Tuesday evening, Nov. 4th. The meeting opened with the prayer of the Order. The minutes of the previous meeting and the treasurer's report were read and approved.

Mrs. C. V. Williams, War Service Convener, reported 51 shelter bags completed and ready to be sent to Provincial Headquarters. A donation of $5.00 was made to the Poppy Fund. Plans were discussed and arrangements made for a bingo to be held in the near future.

Plans were made for gifts to be sent at the Christmas season. General regret was expressed on learning that our wool convener, Miss Margaret Long, was leaving to take up new duties. We feel proud that her new work will be with the Canadian Women's Auxiliary Air Force and we wish her success and happiness in her new field.

The business being concluded a social half hour followed and the meeting closed with the National Anthem.

"IN OUR MAIL BAG"

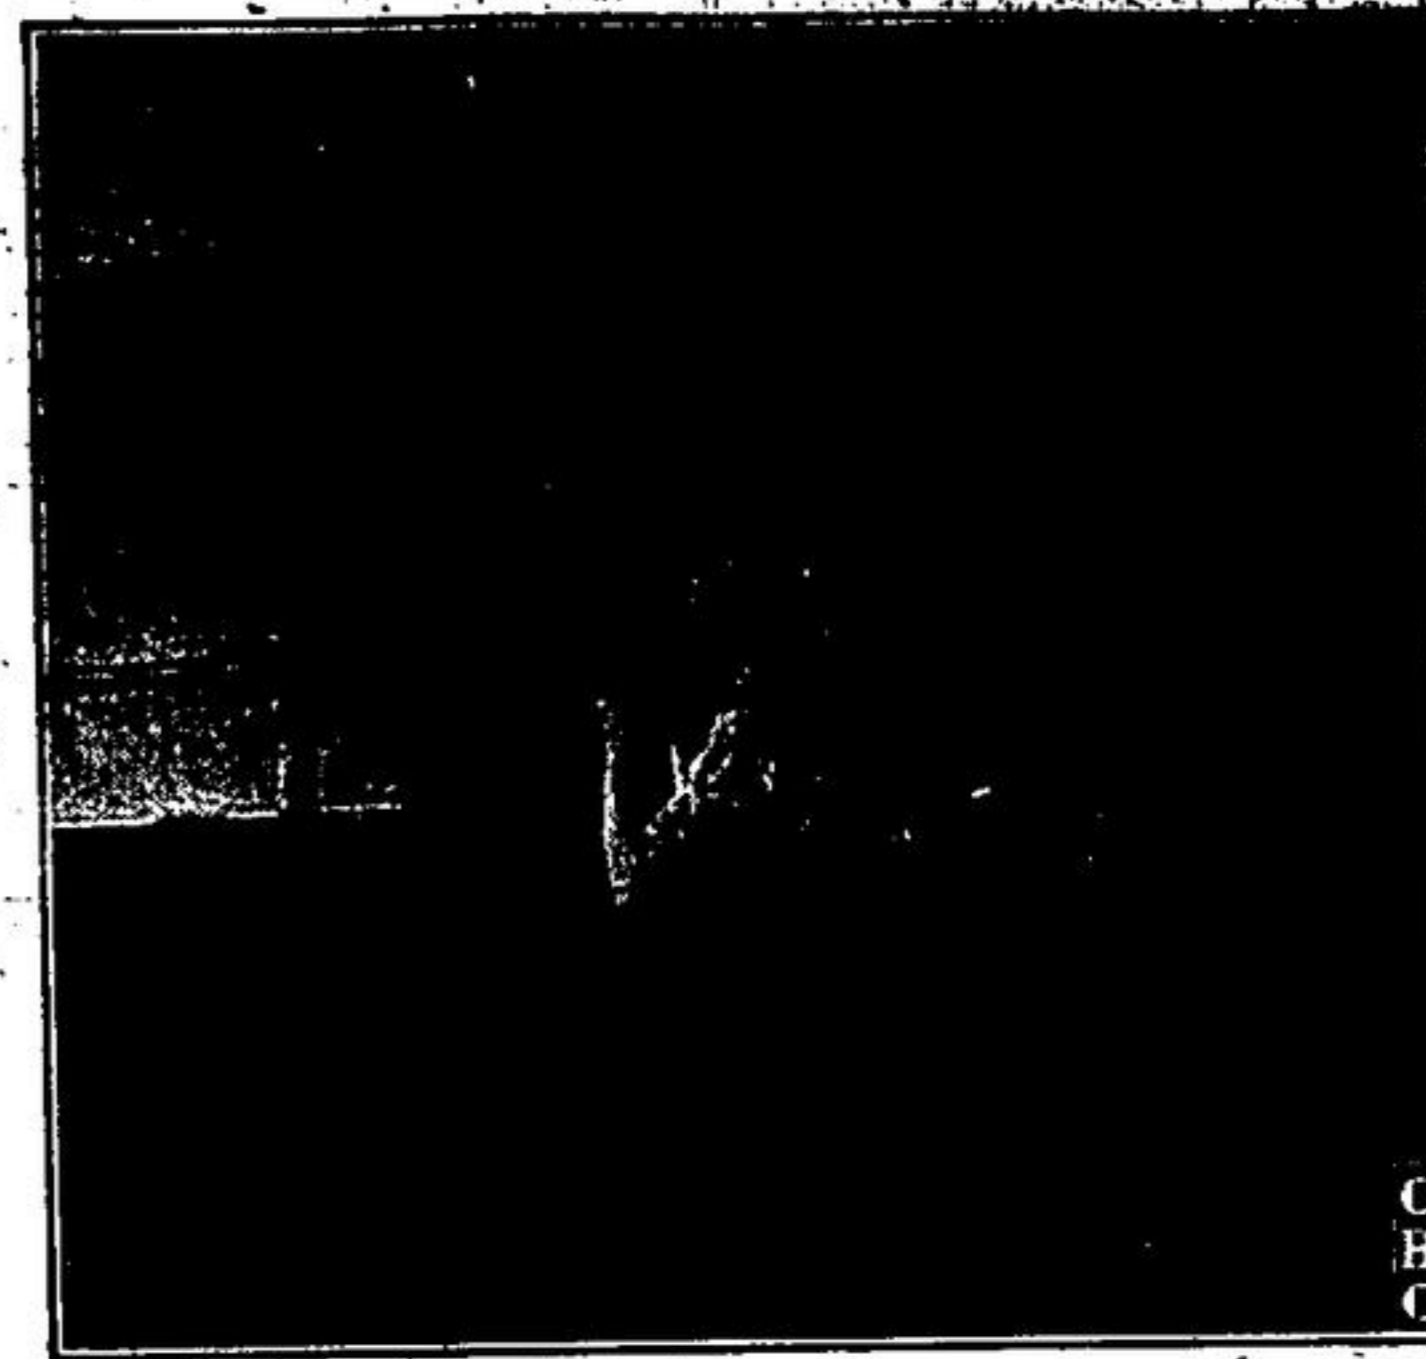

Glen Williams, Ontario, Nov. 3rd, 1941.

The Editor, The Georgetown Herald.

The younger set certainly had their so-called "fun" here in the Glen on Halloween—but if they would show more respect for church property in the future, it would be much appreciated.

"THEY FLY FOR FREEDOM"

The Canadian Broadcasting Corporation in collaboration with the Commonwealth Air Training Plan is currently presenting a series of weekly programmes describing the many aspects of this great Empire scheme. Gerald Noxon is the author of the stories which deal with all phases of the conduct and training of personnel. The broadcasts are presented on Wednesday nights at 10:30 p.m. EDT over a coast to coast network of the CBC. Shown in the photograph is a wireless air gunner receiving instruction on one of the many practice ranges employed in their training. Explanations of the work by experts form part of each broadcast and many students and instructors are heard in the interviews arranged by CBC producer Ian Smith.

BALLINAFAD

Mrs. George Thompson, of Orangeville, spent the week end with Mrs. B. Vannatter.

Mr. Bert Rogers has purchased Mr. James McKechnie's property and will soon take possession.

Mrs. Wm. McKay and Mr. Archie McKay, of Toronto; Mr. and Mrs. Walter Brownridge, of Ashgrove, and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Sinclair, of Milton, were Sunday visitors at the home of Mr. J. P. Sinclair and attended the anniversary services.

The anniversary services held in the United Church on Sunday, Nov. 2nd, were a great success, large crowds attending both services. The speaker for the day was Rev. Dr. Cochran, General Secretary of Home Missions for the United Church of Canada, who gave a very forcible and inspiring address at each service. The music in the morning was contributed by the Lambert Brothers, of Rockwood, and Mrs. F. J. Shortill, of Ballinafad. In the evening the Misses Aitken, of Hillsburg, supplied three vocal trios. The church was beautifully decorated for the occasion.

On Wednesday afternoon, Oct. 29th, the regular monthly meeting of the W.M.S. was held at the home of Mrs. Vannatter, the president, who was in the chair. The devotional exercises were conducted by Mrs. F. J. Shortill, assisted by Mrs. Starret. Mrs. Jesse McEneaney took up the first chapter of our new study book "Starting with the Song of Simeon" and Mrs. F. J. Shortill a part of our study book on Christian Stewardship.
