Social and Personal

Douglas Latimer is convalescing in Queen General Hospital after undergoing an appendix operation last week-end.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Kaiser, former Georgetown residents, are moving from Theford to Senften, where Mr. Kaiser's appointment as Canadian National Railways agent takes effect on December 1st. Prior to moving to Theford in May, 1940, he was employed as first-trick operator at Georgetown station for twenty-four and a half years.

ANNOUNCEMENT

Mr. and Mrs. S. H. Lindsay, 6th Line, Esquevas, will be at home to their friends who wish to call on the occasion of their golden wedding anniversary, Tuesday, December 2nd, from 7 to 9 Standard Time.

Buchanan - Dobbie Wedding

A pretty house wedding was solemnized at the home of the bride's parents at Georgetown Saturday, Nov. 15th, when Mildred Dobbie, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Dobbie, George Street, became the bride of Leoline Archibald Stewart Buchanan, R.C.A.F., son of Mr. and Mrs. William Buchanan, Elizabeth Street, Brampton. Rev. H. C. Todd officiated in a service of love, mums and roses.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a street-length dress of lavender blue trimmed with black fox, with matching hat and black accessories. Her corsage was of orchids. She was attended by Mary Buchanan, sister of the groom, who wore a moss green wool dress street-length, with black hat and corsage of yellow roses. Ray Edwards, R.C.A.F., was best man. The bride's mother received in a street-length dress of black wool, with matching accessories and corsage of roses. Assisting was the mother of the groom in a mulberry wine wool dress and corsage of roses. Following to their new home in Brampton, Manitoba, the brides were a plum wool dress, fur-trimmed, plum-top coat with brown accessories.

Court of Revision Grants One Appeal

A Court of Revision, to hear appeals against the assessment roll of 1942, was held in the Municipal Office on Monday evening at 8:00 p.m. The court consisted of Councillors K. R. MacDonald, N. H. Brown, J. Costigan, C. Bradley and A. E. Cripps.

Three appeals were entered, and one of these was granted—a $75.00 reduction on a piece of vacant land owned by a resident. A few additions were made for changes of ownership and new buildings.

Bowling Motes

Just to show how wrong your scribe can be . . . at the same time that last week's paper hit the street the address of the Grant Trophy was being changed again. Taking full advantage of the shifting wintry breezes James Richardson and Ern Thompson, challengers luffed and tackled their way home in the usual elapsed time to lift the mug from Harold Cleave and W. G. Bell. Though the score was being changed again, as changeable as the wind, the final score was 21-16 for the insurgents.

On Friday night bowlers and curlers to the number of 18 journeyed to Toronto in five cars to be the guests of Britannia L.O.L., Toronto, for indoor bowling. They were received at the Boulevard Club, where the complete alleys had been engaged for the evening. A lively tournament was held and the recapitulation showed that the visitors and home teams were in a game from a Georgetown team, who had won the first two games with ease. At the conclusion luncheon was served, and everybody said they had enjoyed a wonderful evening. The locals will have their recent hosts as guests in Georgetown for a return "do" at the Curling Club during the winter.

Camera Club

Nov. 7th the Camera Club meeting took the form of a work hour. Every member learned how to print negatives and how to handle the paper and material going through the different chemicals.

Nov. 14th, a short talk was given by the president, Bill Alexander, on the subject of the pinhole camera. It was decided to purchase six of them and later to hold a contest for the best pin-hole camera pictures.

Visitors at G.H.S.

On Tuesday morning there were numerous rumours afloat that the inspectors had arrived. The rumours were proven all too soon, but at least we won't be kept in suspense any longer about an approaching visit.

Young-Raines Wedding In London November 15

St. Matthew's Church, London, was the scene of a lovely wedding on Saturday, November 15th, when Marion Clara Williamson "Billie" Raines, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Percy W. Raines of that city, became the bride of John Leslie Young, son of Mr. and Mrs. B. Young, of Georgetown.

The bride's grandfather, Rev. H. A. F. Bourne, of Toronto, who celebrated the 79th birthday the previous Wednesday, performed the ceremony, assisted by Rev. A. A. Trumper, pastor of St. Matthew's. Mr. E. Horton, at the organ, played the Dutch hymn of Thanksgiving during the signing of the register.

The bride's wedding gown was of white frosted organza over satin, with puffed sleeves, bouffant skirt and bustle back. Her three-quarter length veil fell from a coronet of pleated tulle, set with white sequins. She carried a bouquet of red roses and white mums, and was given in marriage by her father. Her maid of honour was Miss Ruth Whale, a member of the class of 1941 at the University of Western Ontario, who wore a floor-length gown of midnight blue, with a velvet turban of a darker blue, and carried rose and gold mums.

Mr. Hugo Lyons, of London, was best man, and the groom's brother, Mr. George Young, of Georgetown, and Mr. John H. Bourne, of Toronto, were ushers. The bride's three-and-one-half-year-old nephew, David Hutchinson, of Windsor, was ring-bearer.

A reception was held after the ceremony at the home of the bride's parents, 457 Quebec Street, London. Mrs. Raines received the guests, wearing a Burgundy frock and a large black hat, with a corsage of Talsman roses. She was assisted by the groom's mother, who wore medium blue, a sheer with hat to match, and a corsage of pink roses.

The living room was beautiful with bouquets of gold and bronze mums, and in the dining room the motif was pink and white. The table was decorated with the bride's mother, pale pink and topped with two pale pink rosebuds. Mrs. D. D. Gray, of Windsor, and Mrs. I. B. Whale, of Glendale, poured tea.

Assisting in serving the guests were Miss Evelyn Stewart, B.A., '40, of Alderston, and Miss Mary Whale, B.A., '39, of Sandhampton, college chums of the bride, and Mrs. Cyril Richardson, of Toronto, and Miss M. Raines, of Walkerton.

For travelling, the bride chose a green wool frock with brown accessories and brown English Tweed coat. The couple will live at Strathkiness Farm, Terra Cotta. The bride is a graduate of the Arts class of 1940 at the University of Western Ontario.
