

BALLINAFAD

The White Gift service was observed Sunday morning. Members of the Sunday school and congregation presented gifts which will be sent to All People's Mission in Hamilton.

The trustees of the Community Hall held their annual meeting Wednesday evening. Trustees elected for 1942 were Mr. J. Allan, Mr. A. McKay, Mr. J. P. Kirkwood and Harry Shortill, with Mr. D. J. Sinclair as treasurer. The club treasurer is Norman Sinclair. Mr. Lloyd McEweny left Thursday for Kitchener where he will complete his four months training in the army.

GLEN WILLIAMS

Miss Fanny Weaver reported for duty at the C.W.A.F. Training Depot, Jarvis Street, Toronto, on Saturday morning. She is among the 148 young Canadian women who form the first trades unit, and will go to the R.O. A.F. Uplands School, Ottawa, shortly.

A.C. John Hooper returned to Mountain View on Tuesday after spending two weeks furlough at his home.

Mr. Alfred Allen, who has been a patient in Guelph General Hospital for the past three weeks, is now progressing favourably and hopes to return home today.

Miss Eileen McQuarrie left on Thursday for Waldemar, where she will spend a couple of weeks.

Miss Marjorie Wagstaffe, who recently underwent an appendix operation in Guelph General Hospital, was able to return home today.

ASHGROVE

The W.A. social on Monday evening was a decided success. The Alka-Seltzer "Did I Say That?" was the first feature of the evening. Mrs. Sinclair, Hornby, Miss Florence Laidlaw, Norval, Mrs. Frank Wilson, Gilbert Wigglesworth, Ward Brownridge, Leslie Giffen, Ashgrove, were the six whose names were drawn for the quiz. We congratulate them all on their success, although we regret that the contestant for the large sum of money was unable to answer the question. A short but very fine program followed, including guitar duet by Murray Sinclair and Keith Mary, of Hornby; vocal duets by Misses Florence Laidlaw and Joy Ruddle; humorous readings by Mrs. John Bellbody, and a piano duet by Mrs. Frank Wilson and Miss Isabel Wigglesworth. A sale of aprons, baking and candy followed, after which everyone enjoyed a social half hour when the ladies served lunch.

A well-attended meeting of the W.I. was held at the home of Mrs. Clayton Wilson on Tuesday, Dec. 9, with Mrs. Frank Wilson presiding. In the absence of the secretary, Mrs. Francis Thompson acted pro tem. A Christmas verse was the roll call, and Mrs. Wilfred Bird gave thoughts on the motto: "A man that hath friends must show himself friendly." A lovely Christmas paper was prepared and given by Mrs. F. Thompson, followed by carol singing, led by Mrs. A. J.

Ruddle. Mrs. Gerald Graham gave a very interesting outline of the second days' course on "What is New in Nutrition." Much fun was enjoyed when the Christmas pudding was served, as each one pulled a string attached to a small gift with a verse attached came from the pudding. Miss Joy Ruddle favored in her usual pleasing manner with a lovely solo. The lunch committee assisted by the hostess served lunch at the close.

Ashgrove school concert, Dec. 17th, in the church basement.

STEWARTTOWN

The Women's Auxiliary annual meeting was held at Mrs. Joseph Standish's home, Rev. S. R. Colebrook presided at the meeting.

The reports showed that in 1941 there were 10 members, 37 meetings held, average attendance 6. All financial obligations were met and a balance on hand of $235. A sale was shipped with new articles valued at $34.00, also 37 articles of used clothing. The work of the W.A. section of Stewarttown Red Cross was reported. To date 386 articles have been made and returned to Red Cross rooms in Georgetown. This work was done at home by the members and friends. The Junior W.A. reported 8 members, 31 meetings. A sale of 3 layettes was sent to the missionary centre for shipment also cot quilts. The little helpers are holding their meeting shortly.

Officers for 1942 are:—
Honorary President—Mrs. W. D. Johnston.
Honorary Secretary (for all time)—Mrs. J. A. Tracy.
President—Mrs. Mary Bailly.
Vice-President—Mrs. S. R. Colebrook.
Secretary—Mrs. Joseph Standish.
Treasurer—Mrs. J. H. Smith.
Educational Secretary—Mrs. Colebrook.
United Thank-offering Secretary—Mrs. Johnston.
Extra Cent-a-day Secretary—Mrs. Smith.
Junior Superintendent—Mrs. Bailly.
Little Helpers Secretary—Mrs. W. Hodge.
Auditors—Mrs. Betty, Mrs. Hodge.
Delegates to Annual Meeting—Mrs. Johnston, Mrs. Colebrook.

The A.Y.P.A. meeting last week was in the form of a social evening. The meeting opened with "O Canada" followed by community singing with Miss Jenkinson at the piano. Mr. Colebrook then showed pictures "From Vancouver to Caracas" and one realized that Canada is not only a big country, but a very beautiful country as well. Lunch was served with Misses Frances Jenkinson, May Hicken and Betty Cudden in charge. Everyone enjoyed a very pleasant evening. The collection was for the Evening Telegram's War Victims' Fund.

LIMEHOUSE

MRS. W. A. LANE PASSED AWAY NOVEMBER 29th

Limehouse lost one of her most highly esteemed citizens on Saturday, November 29th, 1941, in the passing of Margaret Ann Miller, beloved wife of William A. Lane.

The late Mrs. Lane was of Scottish and United Empire Loyalist descent being the daughter of John and Della Miller, and the last member of the family to go to her reward. She was a lifelong member of Limehouse Presbyterian congregation where she taught the infant class in the Sunday school for a number of years.

William A. Lane and Margaret Miller were united in marriage on January 3, 1900, and until coming to Limehouse eleven years ago had farmed in Esquesing and Erin townships. She is survived by the bereaved husband to whom we extend sympathy on behalf of the entire community where she was so well known.

The largely attended funeral held at the home on Tuesday, December 2, was conducted by Rev. C. C. Cochran, her pastor. During the service Mrs. A. W. Norton sang "Softly and Tenderly Jesus is Calling." Pallbearers were the nephews, Messrs. Ernest, Stuart, Bernard, Robert and Fred Miller, and a great-nephew by marriage, James Lowry. Interment was in Greenwood cemetery, Georgetown.

The heartfelt floral tributes were received from: Mr. Lane, Bernard, Robert and Stuart Miller; Messrs. Muriel and Russell Miller, Jessie, Wilfrid, Lois and Frank Robinson, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Miller and family, Mr. and Mrs. James Murray, Elsie and Clark Christie, Evelyn and Walter Crawford, Women's Missionary Society, and Girls' Lookout Club of the Presbyterian Church, at Limehouse. These were carried by Messrs. Harding Price, Victor Watson and son, Walter Calford and Robert Calford.

Those from a distance who attended the funeral included: Mr. Frank Miller, of Swastika, Mr. and Mrs. Robinson of Streetsville, Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Lane of Glen Huron, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Calford, son and daughter, and Mrs. Clark Christie, of Oshawa, Mr. and Mrs. Wilfrid Robinson and son, Frank, Mrs. N. Steep, Mrs. Calvin Miller and son, of Guelph, Mr. and Mrs. James Lowry, of Mimosa, Mr. and Mrs. James Gillespie, Mr. and Mrs. Wigglesworth, Mr. and Mrs. Armstrong, Miss Armstrong, Mrs. Cook, Mr. and Mrs. Bingham and Mr. and Mrs. Graham, all of Erin, as well as friends from Ashgrove, Georgetown and other neighbouring communities.

Limehouse Women's Institute met at the home of Mrs. S. M. Wright, on December 4th, with thirteen ladies in attendance. The roll call was answered by each member naming her first remembered gift. Carols were sung in honour of the season.

Over ten dollars was realized for war work from the recent salvage collection.

During November, Limehouse delivered to the Georgetown Red Cross the following: from yarn provided by the Red Cross—5 pr. seaman's socks, 12 pr. army socks, 6 pr. mitts, 2 pr. seaman's stockings, 4 sleeveless sweaters, 2 turtle neck sweaters; from material purchased by W. I.—8 hand quilted quilts, also three girls' dresses and one pair child's oxfords donated.

A large carton of used clothing and quilt was packed at the home of Mrs. A. W. Benton last Wednesday. The ladies were asked to bring old silk stocking legs to be used by men on minesweepers as a protection for the arms under heavy woolen sweaters.

A card was received from Piper McVey acknowledging receipt of cigarettes from the W. I. Donations of $5.00 each were sent the Evening Telegram's Christmas Cheer for British Children Fund and the Daily Star Santa Claus Fund.

Mrs. F. Shelbourne contributed a Christmas poem and Mrs. Kirkpatrick won Mrs. Ellery's words from "Christmas" contest. Following the National Anthem a social half hour was spent.

Mrs. Bill Shelbourne was the holder of the lucky ticket, No. 110, which won him the quilt recently raffled by Limehouse Women's Institute to aid in their war work.

The Limehouse Young People's Society held a social evening at the home of Doris Harding on Tuesday evening of last week.

The Girls' Lookout Club held a bazaar and afternoon tea at the home of Mrs. H. Norton on Saturday last. They were well pleased with the results.

Mr. Rex Frost presented his "Cavalcade of Europe" in the Legion Hall on Friday evening, on behalf of Limehouse W.I. war fund. It was certainly a very educational and interesting evening's entertainment. It was worthy of a better attendance from the district.

Mr. W. A. Lane and Mrs. Roe visited Mr. and Mrs. James Lowry at Mimosa on Sunday.

Miss Ivens spent the week end with Mrs. Gale and the Newtons. Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Grant, of Toronto spent Sunday with her parents.

Mr. and Mrs. Morrow, of Toronto, spent the week end with her mother.

PULP AND PAPER FOR FREEDOM

You Have a Right to be Proud!

If you work in the pulp and paper industry these days, you have a right to be proud. Your industry is doing a good job for Canada and for freedom.

First, many of your industry's products are directly used for war needs — pulps for explosives, wrappings and containers for munitions and food, boards for army buildings, paper to do the Nation's business, newsprint to sustain a free press. You are keeping this supply flowing without a break: here in Canada, to the United States, across the seas.

Second, the products your industry is selling in the United States and other countries are the largest single industrial source of the money Canada must have to pay for munitions. Pulp and paper exports last year gave Canada nearly 250 million dollars of vital foreign exchange. Every export shipment that leaves your mill is a body blow to Nazi slavery.

Whether you work in the woods, or in a mill or in an office, you are part of the war job your industry is doing. You can take pride in the job. Keep it rolling for freedom.
