JOHN THE BAPTIST AND JESUS

LESSON TEXT Luke 3:15-17:21, 22. GOLDEN TEXT: "Thou art my beloved Son in whom I am well pleased."—Luke 3:22

"A reed shaken with the wind?" No. "A man clothed in soft raiment?" No. "A prophet?" Yes, I say unto you, and more than a prophet. For this is he of whom it is written, Behold I send my messenger before thy face. Verily I say unto you, Among them that are born of women there hath not risen a greater than John the Baptist." Such was the testimony of Jesus (Matt. 11:7-11) about the man who in our lesson of today bears his testimony concerning Jesus.

I. John: the Preacher of Repentance (vv. 1-3)

The times in which a man lives will often make or break him. If times are dark and difficult most men submit to the burden of the day without protest or effort. But not so with John. The period in which he lived is graphically brought before us as we consider the names of civil or religious leaders mentioned in verses 1 and 2. Tiberius Caesar, the emperor, was virtual dictator, talented, ambitious, cruel, licentious, infamous, inhuman. (Van Doren) Pilate was the governor of Judaea, who later condemned Jesus to the cross. Herod was a seducer and murderer. Annas and Caiaphas ruled the infancy into which the Messiah had fallen.

God needed a man with a flaming message of judgment, and He found him ready out in the wilderness, far from decadent Rome and virtually dead Jerusalem. Upon this man John came the message, "Repent ye toward God." But he had even a greater mission.

II. John—the Forerunner of Jesus (vv. 4-6)

He humbly identifies himself as the voice in the wilderness prophesied by Isaiah. This was the important duty of preparing the way for the coming of the Lord Jesus.

The picture is that of the preparation for the coming of an oriental monarch. When he was about to make a journey, a servant was sent before him to prepare the high-way. Valleys needed to be filled, hills lowered, crooked paths made straight, rough ways made smooth. Thus, before men would be ready to receive Christ, moral obstacles must be removed, men must reject of their sins and turn from them" (Edman).

Isaiah says that "all flesh shall see the salvation of God," something which God has made possible, but which we have not even yet fully carried out. The gospel is universal in its character—for all mankind. This prophetic word will, of course, have its complete fulfillment when the King comes to reign. Then "they shall teach no more every man his neighbor, and every man his brother, saying, Know the Lord: for they shall all know me, from the least of them to the greatest of them" (Jer. 31:34).

III. John—the Follower of Jesus (vv. 15-17)

The humility of the man, his recognition of true greatness in Christ, his willingness to efface self, is seen in the words of these verses and in such other passages as John 1:29-30, where he directed his disciples to Jesus, whom they followed, and John 3:26-30, where in response to the effort to make him jealous of Jesus because his (John's) disciples followed him, John replied, "He must increase, but I must decrease." He was glad to be the friend of the Bridegroom who rejoiced when the bridegroom came (John 3:29). He declared himself unworthy to loose the latchet of Christ's shoe (Luke 3:16).

The Christian virtue of humility is evil spoken of by a world of force and hatred, but it is still precious in the sight of God, and the ornament par excellence of Christian character. "Be clothed with humility: for God resisteth the proud and giveth grace to the humble" (1 Pet. 5:5).

As he put himself in the background, John put Christ forward as the one whose baptism would not be a material element, water, indicating the inward change of repentance, but would be with Holy Ghost, cleansing and transforming life.

However, the Christ who comes as a Saviour to the repentant one, comes also as the flaming fire of judgment upon the impenitent. There is wheat and chaff in the world of men, and the fan of Christ will soon separate the wheat which goes into His eternal garner from the chaff which He will burn with unquenchable fire.

Our God is a God of unflinching grace, but He is also a God of severest judgment upon those "that obey not the gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ." Read the solemn words of II Thessalonians 1:7-9. It is an awful thing to be of the Saviour, and thus, to make Him our Judge.

"Give unto the Lord the glory due unto his name: bring an offering, and come into his courts. O worship the Lord in the beauty of holiness: fear before him, all the earth." Ps. 96: 8, 9.

WOMEN'S INSTITUTE

The January meeting of the Georgetown Branch of the Women's Institute was held at the home of Mrs. Howard Kentner on Wednesday afternoon, January 7th. Mrs. McDowell occupied the chair, and after the usual opening Institute ode and prayer, the minutes of the previous meeting were read and approved. Reports from the helping hand and flower committees were received and the outstanding accounts ordered paid.

The response to the roll call caused some merriment as each answered by telling a witty story.

Mrs. W. Peck, representing the Red Cross, laid before the members the present allotment of work to be done at the work rooms and it was moved and seconded that the Institute assume its share of the work as before.

A quilt made by Mrs. N. Snyder and Mrs. W. D. Johnston was given to the Institute to be turned in to the Red Cross.

A very pleasant event of the afternoon was a presentation of a past president's pin to Mrs. A. Wylie, by Mrs. D. Livingstone, also a past president. Mrs. Wylie very graciously thanked the members.

Miss Laura Bell gave an interesting talk and demonstration on ways of sewing and dressing up a standard white cake recipe.

Several items of interest along current events were given by Mrs. W. Peck. After a short sing song, a vote of thanks was tendered Miss Bell, Mrs. Kentner, the hostess, and after singing Our Saviour the King, a cup of tea was served.
