

THE HERALD PICTURE PARADE OF 1941

LORNE SCOTS OVERSEAS

A group of No. 8 platoon of the Lorne Scots, sent to us from overseas by Pte. D. Bowman. The Lorne Scots were mobilized in April, and after some preliminary training in Hamilton, proceeded immediately overseas.

READING THE HERALD

Ptes. Bruce Hasley and Jack Watson and Lance-Cpl. Jim Gambell enjoy the news from home according to this snap which Pte. Watson sent home to his wife. Every week, more than one hundred copies of the local paper are sent free of charge to men in uniform on both sides of the water by the Herald Office.

MORE LORNE SCOTS

Another group, this time No. 4 Platoon, which was snapped by Pte. Bowman's camera. Since these pictures were taken, the local men have been scattered to different posts in the Old Country, and there isn't the chance of a get-together such as this.

HUGH TEMPLIN

Mr. Templin, editor and publisher of the Fergus News-Record, has written a thrilling account of a recent trip to England as a member of an official party of Canadian editors who were invited by the British Government to see the Old Country under war-time conditions. Instalment number seven appears in this paper, and there's more to follow.

PILOT OFFICER AND MRS. JAMES F. EVANS

Two well-known local people are Pilot Officer and Mrs. James F. Evans (the former June Frank), who were married in Smiths Falls last September. Pilot Officer Evans received his commission after training in British Columbia and Manitoba, and was posted overseas shortly after his marriage. Mrs. Evans has resumed her position on the staff of Georgetown Public School.

MAJOR JOHN R. BARBER

"Always a good sport" is the way Pte. Fred Toal described Maj. Barber, when he sent home this picture which he snapped on the parade ground. That's what the local lads think of their energetic young major, who went overseas with the Regiment last summer.

ANDY CLARK

Your "Neighbourly News" reporter, Andy Clark, is heard every Sunday morning at 10 a.m. over the CBO network. Quoting bits of information gleaned from Ontario weeklies, his program is one of the most interesting on the air.

A FEW OF THE MANY

$2822.18 was the record established in ten months by the Herald War Victims' Fund. This is operated without expense, by your local newspaper, and turned over to the Evening Telegram Fund to be sent to war victims in Britain. Top left, a Tely cameraman has snapped the editor at his desk; bottom left and top right, are members of the McWabb

Street Neighborhood Club, whose regular contributions now total $120.00; bottom right, the Tennant family, who operated a raffle on this Lorne Scots cushion, donated by their two sons overseas, and turned in $37.15 to the Fund.

PTE. GEORGE RIDDALL

Pte. George Riddall has been getting in some extra fighting overseas, as this picture shows. According to all reports Pte. Riddall is making a name for himself in the boxing world, and scored a bye in his first professional match in Liverpool.
