BIGGER .. BETTER at BUCK'S

RUMP ROASTS ROUND & BETTER ROLLED RIB ROASTS lb. 32c WING ROASTS lb. 31c PORK SHOULDERS PORK HOCKS lb. 15c RIB or LOINLAMBCHOPS Ib. 39c STEWING LAMB WHITEFISH LAKE HERRING lb.

lb. 20c lb. 16c 7c WESTON'S CLIX KRAFT DINNER 18c McLAREN'S PEANUT BUTTER, tall jar ROYAL YORK - 19 oc. Us APPLE JUICE 3 for 25c PURE CLOVER HONEY 2 lb. tin 33c — 4 lb. 59c LIEBLY - U of The ORANGE AND GRAPEFRUIT JUICE PREPARED MUSTARD, 4 oz. glass cup 10c ZENT HWEET - 25 on the Box Jar GHERKIN PICKLES KLEENEX, large box AMERICAN BLEND COFFEE, fresh ground lb. 39c PALMOLIVE SOAP 3 for 20c GILLETTE'S LYE 11c GOLD MEDAL FLOOR WAX, I lb. tin GARDEN PATCH - 16 oc. Tim 2 for 25c GOLDEN BANTAM CORN

FRESH FRUIT AND VEGETABLES

SUNKIST - Sweet and Juicy

25, 29, 39c doz. ORANGES Extra Large-Size 64's 3 lb. 14c CARROTS

GRAPEFRUIT 3 for 25c NO. 1 COOKING ONIONS B.C. Fancy Delicious Esting APPLES 3 for 10c CABBAGE CALIFORNIA-LATTE 3 for 10c

lb. 8c LEMONS NEW CALIFORNIA CARROTS 2 bun. 19c SPY APPLES 2 lb. 15c WAXED PARSNIPS TURNIPS lb. 5c lb. 21/2c Icoberg Head Lettuce, Celery Hearts at Market Prices

C. J. BUCK

PHONE 28w

GEORGETOWN

4 lb. 25c

hree Feature I III CC I COLUIC MICAICS

"NOT PEACE BUT THE SWORD" "EVERYWHERE IN THE WORLD"

"FIRST AID FOR FRONT LINERS" The Sound Pilm Story from Britain of the Evening Telegram British War Victim's Pund

A Special Mobile Motion Picture Unit from Military District No. 2 will bring this Program to you FREE! - at Knox Presbyterian Church Sunday School

THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 12th, AT 8 P.M. UNDER THE AUSPICES OF LIONS CLUB. GEORGETOWN A collection will be taken for The Toronto Evening Telegram British War Victims' Fund

LOCAL NEWS

-Rebekah birthday party, March Particulars later.

and effective. $1.00 two week's supply at MacCormack's Drug Store.

-A concert will be presented by the pupils of Georgetown Public School on Priday evening, Peb. 27th. Particulars later.

-Something new for corn sufferers. Use Benzocaine, the new local anaesthetic, contained only in Lloyd's Corn Bale. Get a jar now at Chapman's Drug Store.

-Euchre in Legion Rooms on Wed-Legion are running this euchre, all proceeds going to the Auxiliary Solprizes. Admission 25c.

-The St. John Ambuince Brigade.

arttown and Norval. Proceeds in aid greatest admiral that over lived. of Rev. P. C. Jackson, a former rector , whose church and rectory at Wol-He has a parish of 10,000 people. Ad- meeting of the Horticultural Society Familiex Co., 570 St. Clement, Monmission Mc.

IN MEMORIAM

HALPIN-In loving memory of Wil- It liam Halpin, who passed away Peb. 5th. 1940.

We little thought when leaving home, farm wanted. Apply: He would no more return: -BLENDOR TABLETS, harmless That he in death so soon would sleep And leave us here to mourn. We do not know the pain he bore We did not see him die. We only know he passed away

> And never said goodbye. -Ever remembered by Wife and # Pamily.

The Life of Lord Nelson (Continued from Page 7)

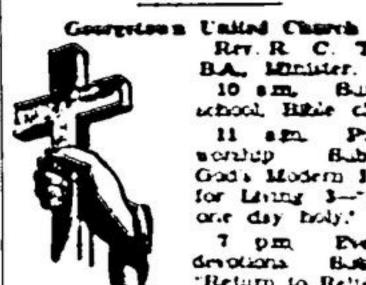

When we look at the map of our nesday, Pebruary 11th. The W.A. to the Dominion of Canada we see in Manitoba a great river and grain port at its mouth. They are named the Nel- body hardwood will be received by diers' Pund. Everybody welcome. Good son River and Port Nelson. In our S. S. No. 16. Tenders to be in by own county of Halton we see the two Pab. 6th. townships, Nelson and Trafalgar, bor-Georgetown Nursing Division 97, will dering on the lake. With the village 2t hold a bingo in the Legion Hall, on named Nelson in the Township of Nel-Friday, Peb. 20th, at 8.30 p.m. The son. So we can know that even when members will appreciate your patron- places in Canada were named people age to help get equipment as this work | thought of Nelson's victory and hon- land in good state of cultivation. Apall voluntary. Good prizes and oured him. Since then the great name ply to: has lived, for in war and desparate times the English think of Nelson and -Euchre and crokinole in Parish his wonderful message. They still Hall, Norval, Wednesday, Pob. 11th, fight bravely lest they soil that mem- MEN AND WOMEN WANTED at 8 p.m. S.T., sponsored by the An- ory by failure. So Nelson's memory Mean congregations of Hornby, Stew- and name will live forever as the

We regret having to hold over for the Route and enjoy steady work. Golden nished apartment, warm, insulated lesey, modern, have been bombed next issue a report of the annual opportunity. ACT NOW. TODAY.- rooms with every convenience. Apply:

and other news items.

CHURCH NEWS

Suisters Pert This best of the ter shell ast est of the mouth; then their medical therein day and while their mayor cowith the de passibles to all that is ovitten therein: for them then their have good service." Judy 1:

Rev. R. C. Toda BA. Weister. 10 sm. Bunday echocal Hitae class. II am Pake Bubject: BOILTO Gods Modern Rules for Linux 3-Keel or.e day body. 7 pm Evening devotions Bustect

"Return to Religion" Dm.-Young Proples Wed 8 pm Prayer and Hatir study

ML GOOVET'S CREATE W O O Thompson, Rector.

threastraims thinday Holy Oummunion 8 am Bunday school 10 am Mauns 11 am Ern.

M. Alban's Church, Giro Williams braggaims Hunday Holy Communion 930 am Bunday achool 200 pm Drawing 300 pm

AL John's Church, hireartious Him H R Culmbrook Hirotor 2 pm Hunday when! 3 pm Dening prayer

Rt. Paul's Church, Norvall 130 pm Bandas school 7.30 p.m. Evening prayer

Ht. Hiephen's Church, Hernby II am Holy Communion

Knes Presbyterian Church

(irergrienn 1000 am Bundry school 1100 am Public worthip 700 pm Public worship 7.30 pm Monday, Bible class 815 p.m. Monday: YPB*

Limehouse Presbylerian Church 30 (EBT) Sunday whoo: Bible Class 230 (125T) Public worthip 800 (EST: Toroda), YP5

Glen Williams United Church R K Lemksy, B.A.

200 pm Bunday school 700 pm Public worship Come to the church in the Olen

Raptist Church Minister-Rev J E Ostrom Thurs. Feb 5th-An hour of fellowhip and prayer at 8 pm Bun . Peb 8th-3 pm Bunday school hour 7 pm Evening service Theme: Prayer-Easentlal in 19421" Mr Ostrom will minister in sermon and song "My house-shall be a House of Welcome.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS

WANTED TO RENT Unfurnished heated room, centrally ocated. Leave particulars at HERALD OFFICE.

FOR SALE 8 Pigs. 8 weeks old. Apply: P. D. CHARLES, Ocorgetown, Phone 82 r 31 ROOM AND BOARD Comfortable home for one or two gentlemen. Single beds, good board.

PHONE 219. Georgetown FOR SALE Private sale of household furnishings next Saturday, Pobruary 7th, at the home of Mrs. M. Laws, Main St., Georgetown. FOR HALE

I goat, milking, with 2 kids or without. Apply: SAM. ROBERTS. Stewarttown.

HELP WANTED Poreman farmer on 200 acre dairy DR. PAUL BEER.

R. R. 3 Ocorgetown, Phone Georgetown 82 r 2. ROOM AND BOARD Comfortable home for one or two gentlemen. Single beds, good board.

PHONE 219, Georgetown. PAINTING and DECORATING Painting and decorating at reasonable prices. Estimates free. New Oarage facilities for one car.

walinaper samples. D. HERRINGTON. Phone 401.

TENDERS FOR WOOD Tenders for several cords-of good

LAURENCE BURT, Sec'ty-Treas. R. R. 1 Georgetown

A PARM TO RENT 100 Acres with good buildings and market prices.

CHAS. H. SMITH, Erin P.O. Box 112. Phone 17 r 43.

Past repeating business selling 200 treal.

two

Lida Larrimore

CHAPTER XI

John stopped his car before a square frame house set flush with I don't know why, at your age. the pavement uling a street of you're so set on it Give me the square frame livuses separated by attetches of area covered lawns. The late aftermen light was gray! demic of influency Nothing to do about it, though life sunk his chin into the collar of his bearskin cost and started across the key pavement to the steps of the house.

A child's voice, shouting, drew him to the fence, parallel to the had been all for her husband, poor street. He looked through brown wretch skeletons of liluc tiushes into the side yard.

"Hi, Commodore" he called. The shouting stopped. Nathanie Adams, Dr. Sargeant's eight-year old grandson, standing on the seat of a garden swing strung with an intricate network of ropes and atring, waved a mittened hand toward him

"I'm Admiral Bard," he called "Oh, are you" How's it going Land in sight "

"We're in de prit straits," Ad miral Byrd in a low and red snowsuit and high buckled galoshes shouted cheerful's across the icefloes of the Antarctic "Hadio's gone dead. Can't get a squeak out of her anyhow

"That's serious" John sympathized. "Have you tested the tubes?"

"Aya Deader n a door-nail " John smiled, marveling at the rapidity with which a child adapted himself to an environment. Young Not had been beta in the Philippines and cut his teeth in San Francase o, but his "Aya" was as authento as though, instead or six months, ie and spent the six veits of his ie in Maine

Nell, keep your conrage up You eight to sight land by morning " 'Maybe you can find out what's along with it. Nat suggested

"Sorry, old man Excuse me-Admiral I'm a doctor, not a radio technician " You could try anyway, couldn't you!" the child persisted. "Got to keep moving, Nat. You'd better come in pretty soon. This wind is cold."

John went into the house. Lamps were lit in the wide hallway. The warm air made his face burn. He threw. off his coat and went to the table beneath a gilt-framed mirror. The day's accumulation of mail lay there in a tidy heap. John ran through it rapidly. Nothing from Gay. There had been nothing for three days. That was not unusual. though. Sometimes he received two letters a day. Again several days chair and propped his feet on the would pass without a message from desk. He would never be happy in graphic, amusing, affectionate. He contacts, the crystal hardness of enjoyed them. Well-

from Dr. Sargeant. A crescent might experiment a little on the moon reflected itself in dark blue side. Perhaps he could when he had water. A round white tower, a light- become more accustomed to the house, perhaps, rose against a star- | routine of office hours and calls. strewn sky A sim red bout with For the present he was too tired a half-furled san 'ny at anchor when his long day had ended to do here, won't you?" against a strip of AUCTION SALE An auction sale of the household effects of the late Miss Barah Godfrey. Georgetown, consisting of modern and antique furniture, carpets, rugs, linoleum, bedding, stoves, dishes, etc. Everything is to be sold to close estate. Date to be annuonced later.

FOR BALE $2,500.00 house, eight rooms, in excellent condition, Draper St. Could easily be converted into a duplex. For particulars apply on premises of T. W. Welr, owner, 10 Watford Ave., Toronto, Ont.

WANTED Live and dressed poultry. Highest A. BARNETT & BON. Huttonville. Phone Brampton 343 r 14, reverse

charges

FOR RENT

Two large rooms, kitchenette and Guaranteed Household Necessities. If bathroom, with continuous hot water, you are ambitious you can make good newly decorated, on the ground floor, money from the start with a Familex separate entrance; also smaller fur-HERALD OFFICE, or Phone 256.

er Bartche. The lettering conveyed nothing to his mind, but the boat reminded him of the red cance at the lake. He stood thinking of the cabin, of Gay-

A voice addressed him. He turned to see Abbie descending the stairs. walking beavily, her hand abding along the rail, her white apron cracking with starch, her round high-colored face wreathed in an emishle smile.

"Hello, Abbie," John said. Abbie had hved with the Sargeants for years. She was more a member of the family than a servent, as Huldah was in his mother's home. "You in for good" she saked.

halting at the newel grat "I bope so " "I'll have supper on in half an hour. You sure your ears aren't frost-bitten? Sale Jaked with kindly CODCETT. warm that makes them red "

"I'd advise you to rub snow on 'em." Abbie suid "It's a heathenish life a doctor's called on to live word if you're called out, so's I can set something in the oven " The office was shadowy with dusk and a sharp wind blew in across John switched on a light and dropped Casco Bay. John, stepping out of into the chair at the Ductor's desk the car, glanced up through bare Dr. Bargeant would have known branches of elms, serens and gra-I how to handle that whining creature cious in summer, etched now in he'd called on this afternoon, he bleak austerity against a cold gray thought, lighting a cigarette. He. sky. There was snow in the wind, himself, had been unable to sympahe thought A hisrard would thire with the woman who had probably leave in its wake an epi- poured into his somewhat embarrassed ears a stream of self-pity and imagined symptoms. His examination had checked with notes on the case he had found in the Dector's files Physically, she was us sound as a nut. His sympathy

No, definitely, he hadn't a bednide manner. John pulled the deak memorandum toward him There were fewer notations than usual written in the clear handwriting of Mina Sprague, Dr. Sargeunt's secretary and office nurse. One notation was made in writing quite different from Miss Sprague's It asked him to call the Congress Square Hotel, Room 201. No name was aphad finished his cigarette-and he could go on with the work

He would be glad when this period of marking time has passed.

her. He'd hoped there would be a practice. He liked the stark facts something today. Her letters were of science, unconfused by human truth that could be checked and He stood looking at a post-card proved. He had thought that he where dark anything more exacting than read for a little or talk to Mary Adams before he went early to bed.

boat on the postcard the Doctor had should have had a letter from Gay. hours? Is it imposing?" She had been in Florida when last he had heard from her. It was excitement." impossible for him to imagine the life she lived there. As always, into an irrepressible grin. "Mary," when his mind dwelled upon the dis- he asked. "did you ever feel as similarity of their separate environ- though somebody had socked you in ments, a chill of apprehension set- the pit of your stomach and a miltled about his heart. He comforted lion stars were bursting inside of himself by recalling the night she | your head?" had seen him off at the station in He reached for the telephone. New York. But a great many Wed- Mury moved toward the doorway, nesdays had passed since then and smiling. she had 'not come.

liked best to recall went back to the gently, and went out and closed the time they had spent at the cabin. door. He found himself akipping over the visit to New York. There was, he thought, deliberation beneath that apparently subconscious evasion. When he recalled the visit to New York, incidents presented themseives which demanded clear and legical thought. It was more pleasant to feel about Gay than to think. happening, it was disturbing to

He should begin again the experiment he had abandoned at the cubin. If he could become interested in something of the sort, he would stop this useless brooding over Gay. It was that, he admitted to himself with reluctant honesty, rather than fatigue or lack of time which had prevented his original plan of converting the small room in which the Ductor kept supplies into a labistory in his lessure moments. when he was not actively engaged to keeping together the Ductor's to the his mind was so filled with rughts of Gay that there was no om for anything else. It was liketo be hatmful and certainly a

He would call the notel Miss surague was almost terrifyingly eftoent. She would be sure to ask ... m if he had when she returned for the evening office hours. He took "It's just coming in where it's his feet from the deak, sat forward, reached for the telephone-Todd Juneway was in Palm aste of time. He must stop it.

Bruch Guy had apply it of it is a recent letter. He was uttlue t There was a string to not between Gay and him. He remembered how she had looked the night they had consted on the Jaraway estate when the had returned to him, utar clarb ing the alope with Tests rested, to laxed, eager to be with him again She had broken away from Told and come swiftly to time amiling through the fire-light

How strong was that bond' Had his trip to New York convinced her that she had made a mistake? He wouldn't think of it. His hand reached for the telephone ugain.

halted, knotted into a fist-A rap sounded at the door. He ignored it. At a accord rap he wrenched his thoughts from an Imaginary scene on a moon-lit brach in Florids and made a somewhat irritable teply

The door opened. Mary Adams, Dr. Sargeant's daughter, stood hesitantly on the threshold.

"I'm sorry," she suid. "That's all right, Mary." John's face cleared. "Are you to a good humor?"

"Fairly so. Why" "I have an apology to make fer my younger son " Contact with tropical sunshine had given Mal pended. A guest, perhaps, who re- Adams' skin a permanent tan She quired the services of a distor. He was slight and worn, at thirty, from should make the call. In a few having dutifully and gladly, folminutes when he'd gotten warm and lowed the fleet, from having had two tubies, "each in a different lan-He would be glad when this per guage" as she expressed it, from riod of marking time had passed the struggle to keep up the necessury front on a naval heutenant's he enjoyed. John tilted back in his 143. But her dark eyes in the sharp pixic like brownness of her face were animated and cheerful and the stories she told of her vagrant existence were a source of amuse> ment to John 'What has Skippy been up to'" > he usked 'Look, John' She held out a rumpled sheet of jellow paper. This telegram came for you yesterday afternoon I left it on the table in the hall and supposed you'd gaten it when you came in. But Suppy must have You know how he walways looking for letters from Nat I found it in the pocket of the sweater he had on yesterday. think he's eaten most of it. There isn't much left."

John took the paper from her hand. The only typewritten words which remained legible were "-NOON TOMORROW-GAY" He looked up from the paper to Mary Adams.

"Abbie took a telephone message just after noon when Miss Sprague was out for lunch. It was from . the Congress Square."

"Do you suppose that was Gay?"

he asked in a dazed voice. "Abbie said it was a lady. She never gets names straight, you know. When I found the telegram was pretty sure-" 'Then she's been here all after-won." John ran his fingers through s hair effecting crisp disorder. Why didn't you call the hotel"" 'I considered it out I thought she ight wonder why I read your tele-:tama." 'What will she think of me "" onn asked still in a ... ed and bea ldered voice Mary's face (winkled with sympaetic excitement Tve spanked Skippy if that makes you teel better." she said "You'll bring her

"May 1?" 'For dinner, if you like, We can open the emergency bottle of olives.

The crescent moon and the red Or maybe you'd rather-" "After dinner,", he said. "Will sent recalled the cabin again. He you take care of her during office

> "Imposing! I'm hysterical with John's diffident smile widened

"I feel that way every time Nat's The memories of her which he ship steams into port," she said

(Continued Next Week)

Plowers were placed on the altar at the United Church on Sunday in lowing memory of the late Charles E. Now, while she was so far away Ruddy, who died one year ago. Two from him, when anything might be let and the late Herbert Brain. Al the baptismal service Charles Harl and Jo-Ann Ruddy were christened