

BORN
MARPLESDEN—At Peal Memorial Hospital, Brimpton, on Monday, April 6th, to Mr. and Mrs. D. O. Marple (nee Beale Hastings, of Acton) the gift of a daughter, Anne Elizabeth.

IN MEMORIAM
MORTON—In memory of our dear daughter, Mildred, who passed away April 7th, 1937.
 "We are sad within our memory,
 Lonely are our hearts today,
 For the one we loved so dearly
 Has forever been called away;
 We think of her in silence,
 No eye can see us weep,
 But many silent tears are shed
 When others are asleep."
 —Ever remembered by her Father,
 Mother, Sisters and Brothers

The air raid alarm sounds! German planes are heading inland over Britain to drop another load of death and destruction. That's why these inquisitive eyes are turned seawards as the young children at the National Children's Orphanage in Hertfordshire pause at the entrance of their air raid shelter before descending to safety underground. It's hidden like this—orphans and children evacuated from the bombed areas of London, who benefit from donations to the Evening Telegram War Victims Fund, which last week passed the $1,350,000 mark. Included in that sum is $221,811 donated in 16 months by readers of the Georgetown Herald. A lot of money — and yet not so much that we can't dig a little deeper and make it $5,000, $10,000 — there's no limit to what is needed.

LIMEHOUSE

The April meeting of the Limehouse Women's Institute was held at the home of Mrs. J. R. O. Butherford on the 7th. Roll call was answered by "House-cleaning Tips." Ten ladies attended in spite of wet weather. Word had been received from four local overseas men that the cigarette rent in January had arrived. The secretary reported that a collector had offered to buy the local salvage. The people in the community were asked to have anything to give ready by April 18th. A dance was planned for April 24th at the Kirkpatrick home and a bingo at the Legion Hall on April 30.

The War Work report for the past six months was read showing 117 knitted articles, 15 quilts, 7 children's dresses and 1 pr. oxford to Red Cross, and 201 articles used clothing and 8 quilts sent the Salvation Army. Money spent on war work during that time amounted to $126.56.

Mrs. Gowdy read Mrs. Newton's poem: "A kindly word a cheery smile will help you through the longest mile." Mrs. Elberly read a paper concerning suggestions for community activities which could be carried out in the neighborhood. The group of ladies putting on the demonstration "Canadian Foods can be Adequate" on summary day practiced it before the ladies.

Mrs. Gowdy expressed the thanks of the branch to the hostess. Following the National Anthem a social half hour was spent.

The W.M.S. met at the home of Mrs. William Mitchell on Thursday evening, with a splendid attendance. The president, Mrs. A. J. Smethurst, was in the chair. The meeting opened with the singing of the hymn "Fling out the Banner," and the daily prayer in unison. The scripture reading followed, and the roll call. Mrs. C. C. Cochran was guest speaker, telling of John Calvin, which all enjoyed. Vocal numbers were given by Miss Jean McDonald and Mrs. Harlow, and Miss Joan Campbell. Bread and butter, cheese, cookies and tea were served after the meeting.

Mrs. Gode, who has been with Mr. and Mrs. Newton for the winter has returned to her home in the village. Colds are prevalent in the neighborhood at present.

Mrs. Chambers and Master Bobby, of Toronto visited the Hills last week.

Mrs. John Meredith returned home last week after spending the winter with her family in Windsor and Toronto.

Mrs. William Gowdy left Monday morning for Wisconsin to visit her father and other friends and relatives in the USA.

Mrs. J. Shevlin and Master Jack, of Chatham, visited her sister, Mrs. Miss Marion Norris spent part of her Easter holidays with her grandparents in Georgetown.

Mr. Vivian, representing the Chrysler Corporation, was guest of the Y.P.U. on Thursday evening, April 9th. He showed several reels of very interesting and instructive pictures. Other number on the program included a vocal solo by Miss Edith Wrigglesworth readings by Mrs. John Belloddy and community singing led by Miss Joy Huddell. At the close of the program everyone retired to the basement where lunch was served and a social time enjoyed when all took part in games under the leadership of Miss Joy Huddell. Visitors were welcomed from Georgetown, Norval and Boston.

Several young people from our church attended the rally of the Halton Y.P.U. held at Bronte on Monday evening, April 13th.

Miss Edith Wrigglesworth, of Milton, spent Easter week at her home here.

Miss Enid Shore has resumed her duties after the Easter vacation. Miss Betty Spright is a student teacher in our school during this week. We wish Miss Spright success in her work.

Miss Etta Bird and Miss Isabel Alexander both of the Toronto teaching staff spent the Easter vacation at their homes here.

Frankie Wilson had a holiday at the home of his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. W. McCullough during Easter week.

Miss Muriel Laidlaw, of Norval, spent a few days last week with her cousins, Misses Joy and Betty Rodell.

ASHGROVE

The Baby Band and Mission Band held a joint meeting for their Easter Thank-offering. Betty Ruddle provided for this lovely meeting which was arranged by the leaders of the two bands. Billie Wilson and Barbara Cunningham recited and a sweet solo was sung by Bernice Wilson, also a duet by Jean and Margaret Bird. After these Baby Band numbers, Mrs. Hector Bird took charge of a memorial service for little Robert Austin, following with the graduation service of five Baby Band members to the Mission Band: Gordon Bird, Jean Bird, Elmer Bird, Jimmy Switzer, Billie Wilson. Miss E. McKay, of Georgetown, brought a message of encouragement to the leaders. Numbers from the Mission Band followed and included a lovely story, "The Artist Who Forgot the Four Colors" by Mrs. H. C. Wrigglesworth. Marion Switzer's scripture reading, followed by a reading by Betty Ruddle told the Easter story. A meditation and prayer was led by Mabel Wrigglesworth. Gladys Ruddle recited the Mission Band Purpose and Doreen Brownlee gave a temperance recitation. Viola Bridgen favored with a sweet vocal solo. A vote of thanks was extended to Mrs. H. C. Wrigglesworth and Miss McKay by Jessie Winfield for assisting with the program. After the closing hymn Mrs. E. Wilson dismissed the meeting with prayer. Light refreshments were served and everyone enjoyed a social time together.

Rev. J. B. Moore, of Milton, was the guest speaker at the Easter Thank-offering meeting of the W.M.S. auxiliary on Tuesday evening, April 14. All who had the privilege of being present were impressed by the lovely slides which were shown on Palestine, scenes familiar to our Master when he dwelt there. Rev. J. O. Totton took as his scripture reading the resurrection given to a woman, Mary Magdalene, so it is still the privilege of Christian women everywhere to carry on and proclaim His message. Mrs. Clayton Wilson sang beautifully the solo "The Stranger of Galilee" and a vocal duet by Mrs. C. B. Dick and Mrs. H. C. Wrigglesworth was much appreciated. In a few well chosen words Mrs. Hector Bird thanked Rev. J. B. Moore for his inspiring message in words and pictures. The ladies served lunch and a social time brought the pleasant evening to a close.
