BETTY MOUNTMEN

Given Bradshaw was a member of a carefree party at a high school dance in Winnipeg when she made her debut on a dazy. She sang a number with the band playing the latest popular hits for the youngsters. She soon discovered her own, but she is just as excited about singing on the air as when she first started professionally in Geo. Frey Waddington's "swinging strings." That was easy back in 1935 A.D. Now she is singing star of "Times for Ten" every Wednesday at 10:45 p.m. E.P.T., with Albert Frate conducting, Sam McKeown arranging. That's not enough singing for Gwen. Every spare hour finds her doing concerts for the men in the Canadian forces. Her's brummet, she's salty, she's National.

Clear telephone lines for ALL-OUT PRODUCTION

Your telephone is part of a vast switching system now carrying an abnormal wartime load. Don't let needless delays hold up messages on which production efficiency may depend.

OTHER "WARTIME TELEPHONE TACTICS"

1. BE SURE you have the right number... consult the directory.
2. SPEAK distinctly, directly into the mouthpiece.
3. BE BRIEF. Clear your line for the next call.
4. USE OFF-PEAK hours for Long Distance calls: before 9:30 a.m., 1:2 p.m., 5-7 p.m., after 9 p.m.

These things may look trifling, but in a 6,000,000 daily telephone calls, they are every important.
