LOCAL NEWS

—This is the number One. Look below for number Two.

—Mr. Roy Cooper, of Milton, was giving the staff at Carroll's Store a helping hand last week end.

—Here's number Two. Three (below) tells the tale.

—Mrs. Frank Hustler, former Norval resident, has returned to her home in Brampton from Peel Memorial Hospital after being confined to bed for seven weeks with a broken leg.

—A large crowd attended the dance at Huttonville Park last Friday, sponsored by the Norval Juniors. Doris Hulla's 7-piece orchestra provided music for the dancing.

—Vacation time at the Herald this week end, with foreman "Mac" McQuibray on the absent list. He'll probably be sticking close to home, with his new garden and seeded lawn to look after.

—Yes, here's number Three. St. George's Rummage Sale, McQuibray's Store, Saturday, 7.30. Good stuff—and mighty cheap!

—The three-act play "Aaron Blick from Punkin Creek," will be presented by the Georgetown United Church young people, in the town hall, Huttonville, Thursday, June 11th, 8.15 p.m. Admission 25c and 15c. Don't miss it.

—The Women's Association of Georgetown United Church held a successful rummage sale in the McGibbon Block last Saturday afternoon. About $40.00 was realized from the sale of various donated articles. Mrs. Harvey Clarke, W.A. President, was in charge of the sale, assisted by leaders of the different groups making up the Association.

—The Limehouse folks are planning their garden party again this year, and we hope that gas and tire rationing won't cut too heavily into this popular annual event. One of last year's entertainers, Rex Bloum, has always made a hit in his numerous appearances in this district, and now he is on tour with Louise's Caravan to entertain servicemen in the army camps. Another of last year's entertainers, Tom Hamilton, had a bit in the recent movie "Captains of the Clouds." These Limehouse Garden Party entertainers certainly yet around.

—Mr. Walter T. Evans is pleased to announce that through the connection of his office with the Canadian Fire Underwriters' Association and leading non-board companies, he is able to offer to his clients much lower fire insurance rates together with a broadened protection for dwellings and contents. This additional coverage is automatically included in all policies written through his office, and clients may look forward to a greatly reduced premium when their policies come up for renewal. Extra protection never before dreamed necessary has become a reality. Damage caused to your property through the crashing of an airplane is only one of the hazards insured against by the new "Additional Perils Supplemental Contract" and "Endorsement re War Risk" which may be added to your present policy at a very small cost. Mr. Evans will be pleased to discuss this with you at any time.

—A delightful Plunkett dinner was served in the Sunday School room of Knox Presbyterian Church, on Tuesday evening, June 2nd. After dinner, patrons were shown movies in technicolor. Prizes, consisting of products which the dinner advertised, were awarded to the following: Mrs.

ASHGROVE

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Dick, of Cleveland, are visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Dick, and other friends in the vicinity this week. The June meeting of the Ashgrove Auxiliary of the W.M.S. met on Tuesday afternoon, June 2nd, in the church. The devotional period was taken by Mrs. Walter Brownridge, and

Mrs. Frank Ruddell gave facts on the "Church's service to men and women engaged in the war effort." The sale materials were put on display at the close of the meeting, and Mrs. Walter Brownridge, supply secretary for the Halton Presbyterian, had an interesting poster, showing map locations and snapshots of the missions to which our boys go this year.
