

Active Service Notes

When Sgt. Thomas Warnes went overseas, his brother-in-law, Mr. Harry Knight, gave him the address of his parents, from whom he had not heard for twenty-six years. He had written often and receiving no reply, wondered what had happened to them. It was a golden opportunity to solve the mystery when Sgt. Warnes was sent to England with his regiment. Tom went to the community specified in the address given him, and after making numerous inquiries, finally found Harry's mother and father. He had been writing all these years to the wrong address. They were in the best of health and while Tom was there took some snaps which Harry was delighted to receive. He enjoyed his visit with them very much indeed and intends to take advantage of their kind invitation to come back and see them again in the near future.

The high opinion we all hold of our Lorne Scots boys is now shared by the English. The Evening Argus, of Brighton, England, recently carried a photograph of the Lorne Scots with their colours in a march in the South - Eastern Command, before Lieut.-Gen. H. D. G. Crerar, D.S.O., V.D. The following is an extract from the English paper:

"Officers and men of the Canadian regiment, the Lorne Scots, made an inspiring show on Saturday when they carried out the ceremony of floating the Colours at a place in the South-Eastern Command. Such was their bearing, and all their movements were marked with such precision, that it was difficult to realize that they had not had more than a month's training. Until they all came together for that training, the regiment had been split up in companies and platoons, and their smart performance on the parade ground on Saturday reflected the greatest credit upon them and those who were responsible for their training. A military band and a pipe band made up of representatives of the 1st, 2nd and 3rd Canadian Divisions, not only played but marched well, and provided that touch which made the general spectacle so good to watch."

A nephew of Mrs. Charles Watson, Pte. Sgt. Loy Galloway, of Barns, Ontario, started out on his "air career" with Sgt. David Crichon, one of the first Georgetown boys to join the R.O.A.F. Since those days, their paths have led in different directions. We all know of Dave's colourful career, and Mrs. Watson has learned that her nephew, prior to taking on his present post of Atlantic Patrol with the R.A.F., had been taking part in all the recent big bombing operations on Cologne, Essen and Bremen. He is a rear-gunner. He has this to say of his experiences: "We never opened up on anything unless we were pretty certain it was an enemy taking a bead on us. Otherwise, we might see a night fighter dive down, open up on him and attract attention of another just waiting up there. The first fellow might not even have seen us. The best thing to do was just sit tight, keeping our guns quiet unless we could plainly see a Jerry swinging about taking aim." In that case, according to Lloyd, there was only one thing to do—smack him.

Pte. Herb Arnold is taking a special course in Ottawa in connection with the R.O.A.F.

We were pleased to hear that Fannie Weaver, of the R.O.A.F. (W.D.) received her corporal's stripes in June. She is now stationed at Rockcliffe, Ont. Men in uniform noted home over the week end: Pte. Clayton Bradley, Brampton, LAC Alfred Sykes, Hagersville, LAC J. Bridges, Brantford, Pte. Jack Young, Niagara-on-the-Lake, Pte. Kenneth Mackenzie, Ajlmer, Pte. Walker Cleave, Toronto, Pte. Gordon James, Niagara-on-the-Lake.

Word has been received here that LAC Stewart Young has arrived safely overseas. Horace Blyth, former employee of the Alliance Paper Mills Ltd., is now on active service in the Infantry Corps at Brantford. He spent the week end at his home here to attend the Blyth-Gollins wedding on Saturday.

Lance-Corporal's stripes have just been given to Pte. Lowell Cochran, of Niagara-on-the-Lake. Congratulations.

Local sports fans will be interested to learn that Harold and Frank Chambers of the Pergus hockey team have just recently gone active. Harold has joined the Navy and Frank the Air Force.

Pilot-Officer J. T. Hurst is now temporarily stationed at Ottawa, having completed an officer's course at Lachine, Quebec. He spent the week end at his home here.

Driver John Alexander, member of the 14th Brigade Group Co., R.C.A. M.C., who was stationed at Exhibition Grounds and later at Camp Borden, has been transferred and is at present at Camp Harco, Calgary, Alta.

We are glad to report that Sgt. Horace Hurley, who has been lately confined to the hospital at Manning Depot, has completely recovered, and left Tuesday morning to report for duty at Debart, N.S.

Gnr. Fred Englysh, R.C.A. (A) left Petawawa August 8th for Sussex, New Brunswick. Good luck, Fred.

Joe Hajj has recently joined the ranks of Georgetown men on active service, and is with the Canadian Armoured Corps, at present stationed in Toronto. Before going active, Joe was a valued employee at Smith & Stone, Ltd., of many years' standing. He has always taken an active interest in sports and played intermediate hockey on the town team for several years.

Birthdays greetings to Troopie Thomas Dickenson (overseas with the Governor General's Horse Guards) August 13th. Private Harry Dickenson, a brother, celebrated his 31st birthday May 2nd. He has been in Iceland and overseas two years with the Royal Regiment of Canada.

Acton Wedding Of Local Interest

Rev. Forbes Thomson officiated at a quiet wedding at Knox Church in Acton, on Thursday, July 3rd, when Helen Mooney, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Mooney, Acton, was united in marriage to Harry Oterbein, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. Oterbein, Preston. Miss Mooney is well-known to the younger people in Georgetown, being an active member of the Acton Tennis Club, which has played frequent tournaments in Georgetown.

The bride wore a dusty rose sheer street-length dress with white accessories, her mother's pearls and a corsage of butterfly roses and bouvardia. Her only attendant was Mrs. Harold Mooney, New Toronto, sister-in-law of the bride, who wore a two-piece Queen Anne blue dress with white accessories. Her corsage was pink roses and bouvardia.

The best man was Mr. Harold Dawson, of Preston, brother-in-law of the groom.

After the ceremony, a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents. The bride's mother received a wedding present of a blue and white crocheted and a corsage of sweet peas and bouvardia.

A buffet luncheon was served by the bride's friends, Mrs. Masters, Ruth and Betty Masters, Mrs. Norton, Misses Jessie Cole and Frances Hastings. The bride's table was beautiful with three-tier wedding cake, pink and white tapers and sweet peas. When cutting the cake, the bride used a knife, the gift of Grandmother Moon-ey, and an heirloom in the family. This was the thirteenth time it had been used.

For travelling the bride donned a sky blue suit with beige accessories and carried a beige topper. The bride and groom left by train for Windsor. On their return they will reside on Maria Street, Acton.

LORNE SCOTS RETURN FROM CAMP NIAGARA

of them, route marches under a hot sun were as easy as falling off a log. They caught on quickly, too, to the routine of camp life and the intricacies of modern drill and lectures. And the men from the rural towns didn't do so badly either. There were many veterans of the last war at camp, from Orangeville, Shelburne, Brantford, Port Credit, Acton, Oakville, Milton, Bolton and other towns and villages throughout the district. Their ranks ranged from commissioned ones to back private.

The history of the Lorne Scots infantry regiment is tied up directly with the activities of various rifle companies organized in Peel, Halton and Dufferin Counties. A militia unit was formed in Halton county in 1793 and with another, formed in Peel County, took part in the war of 1812. These two units, forming the nucleus of the Lorne Scots, saw action together again in the rebellion of 1837.

In 1866 the independent rifle companies of Halton county were organized into the 20th Battalion of Infantry under Lieut.-Col. G. K. Chisholm.

That same year saw the organization of independent rifle companies in Peel County into the 36th Peel Battalion.

In 1870, following a review of the Halton battalion, by His Excellency the Marquis of Lorne, the regiment was given the designation 20th Halton Battalion, Lorne Rifles.

During the Boer War, men of Halton and Peel counties could be found serving with other representatives of the Canadian militia in South Africa. During the Great War, the Peel and Halton county regiments sent to the fighting front members of their regiments who were attached principally to the 4th, 20th, 36th, 38th, 76th, 126th, and 234th battalions, C.E.F. These men won many citations.

In 1926, an alliance was made between the Royal Ulster Rifles, a distinguished British regiment, and the Halton Rifles. In 1930 the Peel and Dufferin regiments became allied with the Lancashire Fusiliers, with permission to display the facings of this regiment. They were also granted the following battle honours: Ypres, Festubert, Hill 70, Somme, Amiens, Hindenburg Line and the Pursuit to Mons. In 1936 the Peel, Dufferin and Halton county regiments were amalgamated and in December of that year the Peel, Dufferin and Halton county regiments ceased to exist as such. They became designated the Lorne Scots, under the command of Lieut.-Col. G. Fitzgerald. The crests of the Duke of Argyll and Sir Robert Peel were incorporated in the badge of the regiment by special permission.

RED CROSS NEWS

Great God, we thank Thee for this bounteous birthland of the free. Where wanderers from afar may come And breathe the air of liberty.

—Col. T. A. Green

JAM-FOR-OVERSEAS FUND
As we have mentioned before, we have opened a fund for jam for overseas and Mrs. L. W. Dunn is town treasurer. It is not too late to send in your contribution if you have not already done so. Forty-six cents (46¢) will buy a four-pound tin. Remember there are very few luxuries in the Old Land today. With the scarcity of butter and sugar we can well imagine how much a tin of jam is appreciated, especially by a mother with little children.

In Welland County, the Women's Institute sent 2,000 pounds in 1940 and increased this amount to 6,000 pounds in 1941 and expect to do as well, if not better, in 1942.

This year the Red Cross and the Women's Institutes are working together and hope the results will be much greater than last year.

Work-Room
As the work-room is closed for the month of August, we hope that everyone will thoroughly enjoy the holiday and be ready to return with renewed vigor when we open in September. Headquarters have informed us that we can expect arger quotas and that means greater enthusiasm on the part and more workers will be needed.

Active Service League
We would like to congratulate the committee of this organization on the wonderful success of their first venture. The Civic Holiday celebration was greatly appreciated by those who had to remain in town as well as by the visitors.

Britain Appreciates
An excerpt from a letter from a citizen of Bristol, England, to a Canadian mother, reads: "I met the past general of Canadians in the last war, and this younger generation are chips off the old block and want to let the Old Country down. They are doing a grand job of work cheerfully and they can be proud of it, and we are proud of them."

Runnagge Sale in September
We hope you are not forgetting that the Special Projects Committee are planning a runnagge sale in September and are making your help to make it a huge success. Begin now and you assure any good used articles that you can spare.

The Red Cross Will Be Ready
A splendid example of the preparation for disaster is the work of the Red Cross in British Columbia since Japan entered the war. Vast quantities of supplies have been moved into the coast area, and the Red Cross Corps has increased its strength to meet any emergency.

Don't Stop Aid To Russia
Canadian Red Cross medical supplies will continue to be sent to Russia in "a never-ending stream" until victory is won. Mr. Justice P. H. Gordon, chairman of the national executive, told the Soviet Red Cross in a special message to Moscow on the first anniversary of the German invasion of the Soviet.

"Through the long winter we have heard the stories of courage and fortitude displayed in the field by Russian Red Cross nurses and doctors who have done much to alleviate suffering among the valiant Soviet forces and the civilian victims of cruel warfare," he said.

Halton County Council Reduces Tax Rate

Halton County Council met in Milton last Tuesday. There was little correspondence and what there was was filed. The most important business was that in connection with levying the County rate.

Two members were absent from the Council, Reeve W. S. Hall and Deputy Reeve W. Murray. The Warden explained Mr. Murray's absence as being a result of an accident on his farm through which he was confined to hospital. Following a suggestion by Mr. Hillmer a collection was made from members of the Council for the purpose of sending flowers to Mr. Murray.

The Road Committee recommended that estimates for road work be set at one and one-tenth of a mill, being an increase of one-tenth of a mill over that of last year. Mr. Gilbert, chairman of the Road Committee explained that there was considerable road
