78th year. For many years she had been a highly respected resident of this place, and her death is a great loss to the community.

The funeral took place from Mr. H. C. McClure's Funeral Parlor, Georgetown, on Thursday afternoon. Pall-bearers were Messrs. John Bingham, A. Eccles, Ward Russell, John Ford, W. A. Wilson, and Spencer Smith, of St. Catharines.

Mr. Fred Lyons is on the old route with an up-to-date outfit, and expects to have a good season. We wish him continued success.

Born—On Monday, July 27th, to Mr. and Mrs. A. Dawson, a daughter.

The ladies are up here for a renewal of the Terra Cotta mail route contract. Wonder who the lucky one will be.

Our general merchant, Mrs. K. Iam, reports trade quite brisk here at present.

The CNR siding here at the station has been taken up on account of lack of shipping from here. This used to be a busy place.

Miss L. Brown, of Hamilton, we understand, has been engaged as teacher at the 5th Line School. We wish her every success in her new school here.

Mr. Ben Young, who has been away on an extended trip to the West, has returned home much improved in health and reports having had a very enjoyable trip. He also reports that the crops look excellent out there.

There were quite a number of holiday visitors here on Civic Holiday.

Why go North to fish, when some of our local nurseries report catching some brown speckled beauties in the river Credit here, recently, averaging about one pound and a half?

Word has been received here that Mr. George Bringer has arrived safely in England, and likes it fine. George wishes to be kindly remembered to his many Terra Cotta friends.

We regret to learn of the sudden passing of the late Mrs. Evelyn Hudd, at the residence of her nephew, Mr. W. J. Rutledge, Terra Cotta, on Thursday, August 6th, after a lingering illness. Mrs. Hudd, wife of the late W. P. Hudd, of St. Catharines, was in her

ENGAGEMENT

Mrs. Isabel Powers, of Rockwood, wishes to announce the engagement of her daughter, Jean Isabel, to Arthur, son of Mr. and Mrs. William P. Engleby, of Georgetown, wedding to take place some time in September.

TERRA COTTA

Quite a number from here took in the sports at Georgetown on Civic Holiday and all report a very pleasant time.

A large contingent of Boy Scouts from Toronto were camping in our hamlet along the river Credit, recently, and all report a splendid outing.

Mr. H. Presswood, superintendent of Mr. Martin's fishery, 10th Line, met with a serious accident recently, and fractured his knee. But we are pleased to learn he is improving, and will be able to be around again as usual.

Mrs. R. Puckering, who has been seriously ill, we are pleased to learn, is now able to be around again, and we hope soon to hear of her complete recovery.

Threshing seems to be the order of the day, and a bumper turnout of fall
