-Thanksgiving Day will be observed throughout Canada on Monday. October 12th, it has been announced in a proclamation published recently in the Canada Gazette. -Acton Pall Pair dates have been

18 and 19 -Always noted for its livestock show and horse race. Georgetown Fair will endeavour to life up to that reputation this year, and give those who attend an afternoon of fine entertain-changed to Friday and Saturday, Sept.

-Brampton Business College opens for the Pall Term on Monday August Night School opens September 14th Enroll early for a complete business course

-There are two pairs of twin plums on display in the Herald office window this week. The yellow ones were grown by Mr. Allan Oilmer and the red ones by Mr. O. M Charters.

-The Women's Institute will meet next Wednesday, Sept. 2nd. at the home of Mrs. Ern Thompson A vish from the District Officers and roll call "A Wartime Recipe." Prize for best living room bouquet.

-A new Government Employment office has been opened in Fergus The office is one of a hundred or so that are being opened in Canada to handle important changes in the manpower and womanpower situation, made necessary by the scarcity of labour due to the war. We understand an office will also be set up in Brampton.

-INCLUDE KLEEREX IN YOUR PIRST AID KIT. Relieves Sunbarn. Poison Ivy, Mosquito Bites, Cuts, Burns, Impetigo; also heals Eczema. Psoriasis, Erythema, etc. while you work. 50c; $1.00; $2.00. (Medium and strong). Recommended and sold by Robb's Drug Store.

-The Georgetown Women's Institute wish to thank the citizens of Georgetown for the splendid way they supported the Tag Day for the Blind, held last Saturday, and also the girls who did the tagging. Over $51.00 was raised for this worthy cause. Mrs. W. McDowell was convener, assisted by a committee comprised of Mrs. D. Lavingstone, Mrs. E. Wheeler and Mrs. H. Cleave.

-Late Saturday afternoon Georgetown experienced a violent wind and electrical storm, causing interruptions in hydro power and telephone ser- in vice for some little time. The wind blew down part of a tree on the property of Miss M. C. Mathews, breaking one window and cracking another. and a plum tree belonging to Mr. R. J. Williams was completely blown over by the force of the wind.

-One hand on the steering wheel and the other hand and arm carefully preventing a passenger from being bounced out of the car constitutes an infraction of the law. A male's gallant hazzarding of life in the protection of the fair cost Albert Towes, of Milton, $5.00 plus the expenses of the law when he appeared before Magistrate F. C. McDonald on Friday. The days of chivalry are gone. The boys and girls will yearn for the good old horse and buggy era when Dobbin knew his way home. _ -For more than fifty years, the Revere House, Brampton, served food and refreshments and provided sleeping accommodation for travellers and stabling and food for horses. The hotel was one of Brampton's best with a reputation for good meals and generous service. Twenty years ago, the citizens decided to cancel the liquor selling privilege, and about the same time the use of the automobile removed the need for stabling. The well-known house became "The Victoria," a temperance house. And so it is today. Now comes the announcement of another change. The present managers have closed the dining room and decided to devote attention to the needs of travellers, tourists and permanent guests. These will be required to secure meals elsewhere.

NOTICE!

Last Call For Registrations Before the Fall Term Opens September 1st

INDIVIDUAL INSTRUCTION

If you find it inconvenient to begin your studies on the opening date, September 1st, remember our system of Individual Instruction allows you to enroll at any time and set your own time record in completing the Course.

SIX COMPLETE COURSES

Business Administration, Becretarial, Commercial Graduates, Stenographic, Office Training and Commercial Courses. Special courses arranged to meet individual needs. With our system of Individual Instruction, the length of time required to secure your training depends mainly on your previous education and application to studies while in attendance

FULLY ACCREDITED

The Quelph Business College is a member of the Canadian Business Schools Association. All courses offered are approved by the Association which sets and marks all examinations and issues diplomas to all students securing the necessary standards.

EMPLOYMENT

Present conditions require you to be trained so you may capably discharge any duties assigned to you. Be qualified, so that under the present Selective Service Regulations, you will be able to secure and hold the better type of position. Remember, there IS a scarcity of efficient stenographers.

REDUCED TUITION RATES

This year we are curtailing our practice of personal interviews to a minimum. This, of course, means a decrease in our advertisng expenditures, and we are passing the resultant saving on to our students by reducing the present tuition rates. All students registered for the Pall term will be eligible for these reduced rates.
