Tuesday evening Mrs. H. Lindsay, Mrs. Arnold Alwood, Toronto, and Mrs. Paul Barber were joint hostesses at a miscellaneous dinner in honor of Mrs. Victor Turcotte (nee Elsie Marshall), a recent bride. The event was held at the home of Mrs. Barber's parents, Mr. and Mrs. P. D. McNally. After the bride had opened the many lovely gifts which were arranged under a shower of red, white and blue streamers from a decorated watering can, an enjoyable evening was spent playing bridge. Miss Estel Thompson was a guest for the first time. A buffet luncheon was served from a table attractively covered with flowers which carried out the red, white and blue motif.

Last Thursday evening was the occasion of a delightful birthday dinner party at Hunter's Inn, when Mrs. William Cookman, of Orillia, was honoured by her guests in celebration of her 70th birthday. It was the first time the whole family had been all together and a most enjoyable evening was spent. At the conclusion of the dinner, a cake with their mother's age written upon it with candles, was brought in and her ability to sing them all out with one blow, says well for good luck in the coming year. After dinner, the party returned to the Manor where Mrs. C. C. Cookman, on behalf of those present, gave his mother a travelling bag. Guests included Mrs. William Cookman, Orillia, Mr. and Mrs. William Cookman, Kitchener, His Honour, Judge and Mrs. Archibald

John and his fellow employee, Floyd Laughlin, had been working together on the roof earlier in the day and young Laughlin was on the main floor of the factory when he received the signal to close the door, and began to pull the chain which slowly closed the door 40 feet away from him. He heard no screams from his companion on the roof over the loud clank and hammering of machines and said he did not know anything had happened until he walked up the stairs leading to the roof and found Smith caught in the door. The victim was dead by the time medical aid arrived. Born in Windsor, he is survived by his parents, two sisters, Doris and Joan; and one brother, William and Mrs. G. Orlivet wish to thank the Active Service League for the beautiful flowers sent in sympathy of the death of Private, John O'Kane in the Dimpie Raid. The flowers were placed on the altar of Holy Cross Church, Georgetown and also in St. Joseph's, Acton.
