DEAD
RUSSELL—In North Battleford, Sask. On Thursday, July 30th, 1942, Sarah Oliver, widow of the late Frank Russell.

IN MEMORIAM
HILL—In loving memory of a dear wife and mother, Elizabeth Brennan Hill, who passed away September 4, 1941.
One year has passed, dear mother, Since you were called away;
How well we do remember
That sad and weary day,
Your weary hours and days of pain
And troubled nights are past,
And in our aching hearts we know
That you have found sweet rest at last.
—Sadly missed by Jim, Elmer, Dorothy and Grandson Bobby.

HILL—In loving memory of Aunt Lizzie, who passed away September 4, 1941.
There's a sad but sweet remembrance
There is a memory fond and true,
There is a token of affection
And a heartache still for you.
—The Bert Hill Family

HILL—In loving memory of Mrs. James Hill, who died September 4, 1941.
We cannot say, and we will not say
That she is dead—she is just away,
With a cherry smile, and a wave of the hand
She has wandered into an unknown land
And left us dreaming how very fair
It needs must be, since she lingers there
And you, Oh you, who the wildest dream
For the old-time step and the glad return—
Think of her faring on, as dear
In the lot of there as the love of Heret!
Think of her still as the same, we say
She is not dead—she is just away!
(James Whitcomb Riley)
—Sadly missed by The Friendship Club

SHEPHERD—In loving memory of our loving son John and brother, who passed away September 3, 1930.
Nothing can ever take away
The love a heart holds dear,
Fond memories linger every day
Remembrance keeps him near.
—Sadly missed by Mother, Dad and Family

LOCAL NEWS
—Miss Helen Blackburn will resume her classes in piano on September 8.
—You can get your Fall Fair prize list from the Secretary, Frank Petch, or at the Herald Office.
—Next pay-day employers will have one more headache—making out the new income taxes for their employees.
—Radio licenses were sold at a record rate this week due to the annual visit of the inspectors in Georgetown.
—Don't forget the Lome Scots W.A. dance in the Armories, Monday night, Sept. 7th. Doris Hull's Orchestra. Admission 35c. Lucky door prize. Dancing 9:30 till 7.
—The Norval Junior Farmers will hold their winter roat at the home of Miss Jaobe Wrightworth on Tuesday evening, Sept. 8th.
—Re-opening services will be held in Limehouse Presbyterian Church, Sunday, Sept. 13th, at 3 o'clock. Rev. A. Neil Miller, of Brampton, guest speaker. Concert following evening at 8:30.
—We wonder what the future holds in the way of rationing? We see by the new books issued, there's still room for additions. If it isn't any worse than it has been so far, we've no cause for complaint.
—A Rummage Sale, under the auspices of the Red Cross will be held in the McOibion Block from Sept. 15 to 19. Everyone in Georgetown, Ashgrove, Stewarttown, Limehouse, Glen Williams and Norval is asked to bring their donations on the 15th.
—Mr. J. R. Williams is the man whose garden produced the prolific crop of tomatoes on display in the Herald Office window this week. On three branches there are well over 70 tomatoes. One stem alone has 25 on it. Anyone wishing to purchase same may do so and the proceeds from the sale will go to the Herald War Victims' Fund.
—The Rubber Salvage Campaign being conducted by the Post Office is now in full swing. Patrons on the Rural Routes have been asked to collect all their salvage rubber and place it at their mail box for collection by the mail carriers. Good results have come of this, but some have not as yet responded. Are you one of these? Your country badly needs what you do not need. Surely you will help. Town patrons of the Post Office are also asked to help by bringing in their rubber. Nothing is too big and nothing too small. Every ounce is needed to keep your men equipped to fight.
—Fire from unknown causes, breaking out alongside the granary, completely destroyed the large bank barn of William Fraser, Huttonville, last Wednesday night. Loss is estimated at over $10,000. Members of the family tried in vain to extinguish the small blaze, but managed to save the livestock stabled in the barn. A threshing machine and the year's crop of wheat and oats were destroyed by the flames. A driving shed and henhouse nearby were also destroyed. Fortunately the house was not in danger. Neighbors responded to the alarm and did all they could to assist. Members of the Brampton Fire Brigade attended but there was little they could do, excepting to confine the blaze to the frame buildings. The loss is partially covered by insurance.
