Council Passes Early Closing By-law

Stores Must Close at 6.30 p.m. Except Saturday When They Remain Open until 10 p.m. — Town Employees Get Cost of Living Bonus.

A deputation of six local businessmen, addressed Council last night at their regular monthly meeting, in regard to an early closing by-law, as suggested by the War-time Prices and Trade Board to conserve light and power. A petition, signed by three-quarters of the local businessmen, was presented, and after some discussion Council had no alternative but to pass a by-law regulating the hours that stores may remain open. A penalty is also provided for any infraction of the by-law.

Commencing from and after the 19th day of October, retail stores must close their doors Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday and Friday at 6.30 p.m.; Thursday at 12.30 p.m., and Saturday at 10.00 p.m., unless during a period previous to a legal holiday and two weeks prior to Christmas. This by-law does not apply to restaurants, garages, pool rooms or coal and lumber offices.

A second by-law provided for hours in which barber shops might remain open, and their hours are six o'clock in the evening each Monday, Tuesday and Friday, and from and after the hour of ten o'clock in the evening of Wednesday and Saturday, and from 12.30 on Thursday. A full set-up of the by-laws appears elsewhere in this issue.

Cost of living bonuses were granted to town employees of $2.00 per week, and include W. Spencer, H. Marchmont, Chief W. O. Marshall, Clerk P. B. Harrison and Night Constable Emerson.

A Court of Revision to hear appeals against the assessment for 1942 will be held on November 3rd, and will be composed of the following: Reeve H. Cleave, Councillors N. H. Brown, B. J. Mackenzie, A. E. Cripps and Jas. Coitigan.

A requisition for an overcoat, hand-cuffs and holster strap for the night constable was passed, as also a motion to purchase a new 2-inch water meter for an industrial plant.

On recommendation of the Fire Brigade, Jack T. was appointed driver and caretaker of the fire truck at a salary of $50.00 per annum as of Oct. 1. Mr. W. E. Nadev requested that the road to his factory on Water St. be repaired before winter, and Council are considering some much needed changes.

Mrs. J. H. Stevens Buried at Georgetown

The funeral of the late Mrs. J. H. Stevens of Toronto, formerly Mildred H. Kennedy, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Kennedy, Georgetown, took place on Saturday, October 3rd, 1942.

The service was held in Fairview United Church, Toronto, of which the deceased had been a faithful member for the past fourteen years. During this time she held executive positions in various organizations, on many occasions. Rev. George E. Trimble, pastor, assisted by Rev. H. L. Partridge, a former pastor, conducted the service, both of them speaking very highly of her beautiful Christian character and exemplary life. Mr. Trimble chose as his subject: "The sun went down while it was yet day."

The members of the Bessies, the Women's Missionary Society and the Women's Association attended in a body. The male choir of the church, of which Mr. Stephens is president, rendered the well-known selection, "Remember Me Oh Mighty One." Mrs. Wilfred Blitch, a life-long friend, sang most effectively as a solo. "The City Four Square."

The many beautiful floral tributes and the large attendance at the service, bore evidence of the high esteem in which Mrs. Stevens was held in her community.

Interment took place in Greenwood Cemetery, Georgetown, where the service was conducted by Rev. R. C. Todd, pastor of Georgetown United Church. A number of Georgetown relatives and friends were present for this service also.

"As We See It"

By J. A. Strong

Taking into consideration the present situation here in Canada and stinging up the future supply of that commodity as outlined in the daily papers we can't see why there is any need to get excited about that other request, namely "Have your fat, bones and grease". In fact we don't think that it is going to take a very large container to hold all those wanted articles.

We were wrong when we picked the St. Catharines Athletics as winners of the local Senior Lacrosse series and believed it or not we were glad that we were wrong that time. Not that we had anything against the Athletics at all but they drew a team that honour as regularly these last few years that it was beginning to be a habit with them. For the good of the game and also for the benefit of the St. Catharines team it was the best thing that could happen. The Athletics knew how to win alright during the last few years but they didn't know how to lose. It takes a rather smart team to know how to lose in a sportman-like way. They Brampton-Mimico Combines are to lose in a sportman-like way. The humbled the St. Catharines team. It is too bad that the winners didn't happen to be all from the one town though. The honours seem to be something of other when one has to split them up between the two towns that this Cornish Team represented. The final in the series drew a crowd of around ten thousand at Maple Leaf Gardens and the crowd apparently was satisfied with the game. It seems to be something of a mystery why a City the size of Toronto is unable to have a Lacrosse Team of its own. The game itself has everything and there is no other game played in the summer months at this time. The "World Series" in Lacrosse is yet to be played and those games are likely to be all played in the Gardens. If you haven't seen one of these classes it might not be amiss to suggest a trip down to one of the games. We've always got our money's worth at them.

The Dominion Government is floating a new Bond issue this month and the total amount aimed at is seven and one-half million, we understand. No doubt that objective will be over-subscribed. We are often apt to think when buying these bonds, or when purchasing the savings certificates that we are giving this money away or are giving it to the Government. Again we may think that we are doing without this or that in order that we may purchase these Bonds or certificates. Not long ago we noticed an article somewhere or other in which the writer had a totally different slant on an investment of this kind than any we had ever read or heard of before. He went on to tell that when he made an investment of this kind he looked forward to the day that these bonds would be redeemed and instead of thinking of getting the money back on that particular day he had in mind just what he would do with the money then. One Bond meant a new car in a few years time. Another bond meant a trip to the coast that year for him and his wife, another might mean a year's expenses at University the year that it became due and he would purchase one each year for the next four years in order to make sure that he would have the necessary funds to provide junior with the full university course. While each of these ways of spending the cash when the bonds became due would mean an investment of at least a thousand dollars. Yet the same idea could be applied to an investment in saving certificates or in a one hundred dollar bond instead of the one thousand bond. Even an extra hundred coming in in seven and one-half years from now could be earmarked for some needed addition to the home, or for a trip or for a summer holiday for the folks to Muskoka or maybe for a brand new stove. Again, suppose several, that could afford it, might arrange to earmark their certificates to be used when due for a new lighting system for their favourite church or perhaps a decent place for the youngsters to learn to swim in. You think this idea ever and it may give you a totally different idea in these very necessary Bonds and Saving Certificates.

PRESENTATION TO MRS. C. HODGSON

The members of the Women's Missionary Society of the Presbyterian Church and friends, met at the home of Mrs. Fred Thompson on Monday afternoon to do honour to Mrs. C. Hodgson before her departure from town.

Mrs. Hodgson's church life has always been centered around Knox Church where for many years she has been a valued and active member of the choir and the missionary society. She will be greatly missed by members of these two organizations.

After a dainty luncheon had been served, and a very pleasant hour together, Mrs. Sinclair and Mrs. Poullis presented Mrs. Hodgson with a leather handbag. Mrs. Hodgson thanked everyone in her kindly way and assured them that she would always treasure this kind remembrance.

The Georgetown Lions Club held its opening meeting in the McObrien House on Monday with the president, Dave Brill, in the chair, and a large attendance of Lions and guests.

Prominent among the visitors was the Deputy District Governor, Manager Milne, of Burlington, who urged the whole-hearted support of the Club to the Third Victory Loan, now being launched. Harry Thomson, the president of the Oakville Club, gave a short and constructive talk and some reasonable advice.

Ab. Weik was elected to fill the sometime vacant chair of secretary, with Bill Long as treasurer.

The president announced that meetings will be held on the first Monday of every month and not twice monthly as heretofore. He also announced the approach of three or more new members.

Among the guests was Walter Carpenter, principal of the high school, who spoke briefly.

Chief Brill's administration of the club so far was the subject of much comment and deep interest. Ralph Ross announced his intention of making a motion at the next meeting respecting entrance fees.

Ed McWhirter, Dick Loxia and James Ballantine were named by the president as the attendance committee. Jack Kelly announced the continuation of the Safety Patrol at the Public School, and the Lions re-affirmed their support and sponsorship.

The guest speaker was the Reverend E. C. Todd, of Georgetown United Church, and he was introduced by Col. Ballantine, while a hearty vote of thanks was moved by Ab. Weik and seconded by Jack Kelly.

Mr. Todd gave a very interesting analysis of the political set-up at present running Germany. Back of Hitler were a group of capitalists who dreamt of world conquest as their dream and their great fear and hate.

World conquest for German big business was the real objective and not the liberation of small states from economic oppression. Hitler was only a tool to the big interests to whose demands he has always acceded. The analysis was greatly appreciated by the club and was the first of a series the president has in store for this Fall and Winter months.
